Additional Amateurism Resources

A number of additional resources are available to assist with understanding amateurism, delayed enrollment, recruiting and scouting services, and other amateurism-related topics. All are available as downloadable PDFs for ease of sharing.

One-Page Amateurism-Related Flyers

Basics of Amateurism

While most student-athletes complete the amateurism certification process without any additional requirements, many are confused by the overall process. This one-page flyer outlines the basics of amateurism requirements and the amateurism certification process.

Ice Hockey-Specific Amateurism Requirements

For domestic and international student-athletes with a goal to play ice hockey at the Division I or II level, this one-page flyer outlines the amateurism information specific to this sport. A must-read for all ice hockey student-athletes!

Individual Sports-Specific Amateurism Requirements

For domestic and international student-athletes with a goal to play an individual sport at the Division I or II level, this one-page flyer outlines the amateurism information specific to several individual sports.

Skiing-Specific Amateurism Requirements

For domestic and international student-athletes with a goal to ski at the Division I or II level, this one-page flyer outlines the amateurism information specific to this sport. A must-read for all skiing student-athletes!
Soccer-Specific Amateurism Requirements

For domestic and international student-athletes with a goal to play soccer at the Division I or II level, this one-page flyer outlines the amateurism information specific to this sport. A must-read for all soccer student-athletes!

Tennis-Specific Amateurism Requirements

For domestic and international student-athletes with a goal to play tennis at the Division I or II level, this one-page flyer outlines the amateurism information specific to this sport. A must-read for all tennis student-athletes!

Tips for Recruiting/Scouting Services

Check out our one-page flyer is for students who utilize a recruiting or scouting service, this one-page flyer outlines the responsibilities and requirements of these services. Designed to address questions from the services’ perspective, this flyer provides detailed insight on the operations, requirements and regulations by which recruiting and scouting services are required to abide.