

Division I

Amateurism Certification

Men's and Women's Skiing

This resource contains general rules education regarding skiing activities occurring prior to initial full-time collegiate enrollment.

WHAT DOES THE ELIGIBILITY CENTER REVIEW?

- » Timeline of all team and club participation.
- » Signed agreements with agents, recruiting services and professional teams.
- » Breakdown of prize money and expenses for each calendar year.
- » Date of birth.

RULES YOU NEED TO KNOW

A prospect may jeopardize their eligibility for Division I if, prior to enrolling full time at any college or university, they:

- » Reach an agreement (written, verbal or for future representation) with or receive benefits or services from an agent.
- » Receive more than actual and necessary expenses to compete.
- » Accept more prize money than expenses in a calendar year.
- » Receive funding for training not tied directly to competition or practice in preparation for competition.
- » Receive more than actual and necessary expenses to try out, practice and/or compete with a professional team.

ACTUAL & NECESSARY EXPENSES

Actual and necessary expenses are any expenses necessary or required for your participation in practice or competition, including but not limited to:

- » Meals.
- » Lodging.
- » Transportation.
- » Apparel, equipment and supplies.
- » Coaching and instruction.
- » Medical treatment and benefits (e.g., insurance).
- » Facilities use.
- » Entry fees.

WHAT IS "DELAYED ENROLLMENT"?

Division I Men's and Women's Skiing

- » Your delay period ends on your 21st birthday. Participation in organized competition after your 21st birthday and before enrolling full time at a college or university could jeopardize your eligibility.
