

Changes to the List of NCAA Courses

The NCAA Eligibility Center staff has made changes to the display of the List of NCAA Courses. The changes include:

- A breakout of denied courses.
- A change in how approved courses are displayed.
- A change in how denied courses are displayed.

Each of these changes is highlighted below.

- The High School Core-Course Information section now includes a breakout of the Denied Courses.

- The Denied Courses are now categorized by subject matter area.
- The user has the ability to see a list of all denied courses, or may sort by subject area.

The display page now contains the following sections/columns:

- Course Weight Column: If courses are weighted, this field will be populated.
- Title Column: No change.
- Submission Date Column: This shows the date the school or district submitted a course through the online submission system.

NOTE: If the Submission Date Column is not populated, that indicates a submission date prior to the creation of the NCAA Eligibility Center. Hovering above the empty field will enable a tooltip that reads: Submission date information for this course is not available.

- Decision Date Column: This shows the date the High School Review staff made the decision.

NOTE: If the Decision Date Column is not populated, that indicates a decision date prior to the creation of the NCAA Eligibility Center. Hovering above the empty field will enable a tooltip that reads: Decision date information for this course is not available.

- Disability Course Column: This indicates whether the school or district submitted the course as one exclusively for students with an education-impacting disability.

- Course History Column: This field will contain any historical information on a particular course. For example: If a school submitted Algebra I three times, then the course history will show each date that the course was submitted and each date that the course had a decision rendered.

NOTE: If the Course History Column is not populated, that indicates a course with no associated history. Hovering above the empty field will enable a tooltip that reads: Course history data for this course is not available.

NOTE: If the Course History Column contains the phrase “Show Course History,” you may click on that link to see the historical information.

List of Denied NCAA Courses (Form 48H)
 The following course(s) DO NOT qualify as NCAA core course(s) and therefore CANNOT BE USED for NCAA initial-eligibility certification.

For those courses processed after January 15, 2004, the reason for denial of the courses will be included at the end of the course title listing on your high school's List of Denied NCAA Courses. The reason codes (RC) and their corresponding explanations are as follows:

- RC1. The course does not meet a graduation requirement in one of the specified core areas.
- RC2. The course does not meet the definition of a core course.
- RC3. The course contains significant personal-service components.
- RC4. The course does not meet requirements for a nontraditional course.
- RC5. The course is considered doctrinal in nature.
- RC6. The course has significant vocational components.
- RC7. The course is not considered substantially comparable, qualitatively and quantitatively, to a regular core course offered in the academic area.
- RC8. This course is on hold, pending additional information from the high school. In order for this course to be given a thorough review, the high school must fax or mail a course description from an official school publication such as a course catalog, program of studies or curriculum guide and a course outline/curriculum outline to the attention of Core Course Review. (State standards and generic pacing guides are not sufficient.) Under normal circumstances, please allow 2-3 weeks for review of RC8 materials
- RC9. The course is a nontraditional course without instructor/student access.
- RC10. The course is not taught at the level of Algebra I or higher.
- RC11. The course is taught below the regular academic level.
- RC12. The course is not considered four-year college preparatory.
- RC13. The course is not a recognized academic course.
- RC14. English as a Second Language (ESL) or Speakers of Other Languages (SOL) courses are not acceptable as NCAA Courses; however, advanced ESL or SOL courses may be used, but must be reviewed on a case-by-case basis. Any student who wishes to have advanced ESL courses considered when determining his or her initial eligibility must contact the institution he or she will be attending in order to begin the approval process.
- RC15. The course does not appear to meet NCAA core course guidelines and has been forwarded to the NCAA national office for review.
- RC16. The course is denied due to submission in the wrong academic core area. You may resubmit the course in the appropriate academic area.
- RC17. The course does not meet NCAA core course guidelines as established by the NCAA Core Course Review Committee.
- RC18. Computer science courses cannot be used to fulfill core course requirements for student-athletes first entering a collegiate institution on or after August 1, 2005.
- RC19. Courses in which the curriculum, pacing or instructional methods can be modified from student to student (including independent study courses) cannot be placed on a school's list of NCAA Courses. The Eligibility Center may review students' coursework after graduation; however, it cannot be guaranteed that the courses will be used in the initial-eligibility process.
