

Home School

A student who was home-schooled for any part of secondary school, and who plans to enroll in a Division I or II college and participate in intercollegiate athletics as a freshman must register with the Eligibility Center and must meet the same requirements as all other students. There is a home school resource section for these students on the NCAA Eligibility Center website at www.eligibilitycenter.org. Students should click on the “Resources” tab on the student home page.