Home School Information Sheet

What is “Home School”?

Generally, if a parent or tutor created the curriculum, provides instruction, assesses the coursework and awards grades and credit, the student is considered to be a home schooled student-athlete.

Learning at home does not necessarily equate to being home schooled. Because of the tremendous growth of online and virtual education, a student may be able to learn at home through an online school with online teachers, which would not be considered parent-directed home school.

To help determine whether a prospective college-bound student-athlete would be considered home schooled, please review the following questions. This will help you determine whether the student’s schooling would be considered “home school” or “nontraditional.” Remember, the NCAA definition for nontraditional courses includes courses taken online through a program that provides teachers, assessments and grading.

Nontraditional Home School Provider

Home school administrators may also purchase/implement nontraditional curriculum in the home school program. If a nontraditional home school provider is used in the home school program, the Home School Administrator will be required to complete the Nontraditional Core-Course Worksheet.

Click here to review nontraditional home school providers.

Home School Course Evaluation

The only courses that would need to be evaluated as home schooling are those in which the parent or tutor is the one is responsible for all of the following:

- Planning and delivering actual instructional activities (lectures, discussions, tutorials, feedback, assistance, etc.).
- Determining the student’s comprehension of the material by grading and evaluating student performance and achievement on assignments and assessments and providing appropriate re-teaching (if necessary) and feedback.
- Determining the overall grade the student achieved in the course.
- Either placing the grade on a transcript/grade report or reporting the grade to a transcription agency or entity.

No matter how many home school courses a prospective student-athlete completes, the following home school documentation is required for the course(s) to be considered in an academic certification:

- Official Home School Transcript (created and sent by parent or sent from approved umbrella program).
- Administrator and Accordance Statement.
- Core-Course Worksheets for each core-course completed.
Coursework Completed Outside of Home School

Traditional/Nontraditional Program Coursework
If the answers to the “What is Home School?” questions suggest the courses were completed through other means (such as online or virtual school), the coursework completed would be evaluated under the guidelines of High School Review Committee’s Policies and Procedures.

For any outside traditional/nontraditional coursework completed in addition to the home school program, the prospective student-athlete should:

- Include the program(s) in their education profile:
- Check the status of the program to ensure that it is “Cleared”, with an approved Core-Course List (be sure to review the “Additional Information” section); and
- Ask for an official transcript or grade report to be submitted directly to the Eligibility Center.

Dual-enrollment Coursework
For college dual-enrollment coursework to be considered:

- The course(s) must appear on the home school transcript with grade and credit. The home school transcript must also include:
  - The name and location (city and state) of the two-year or four-year college/university where the course(s) were completed.
- The transcript from the two-year or four-year college/university where the course(s) were completed must be sent to the Eligibility Center. This can be sent in by the home school administrator, the two-year or four-year college/university where the course(s) were completed, an approved umbrella program if used or the NCAA institution recruiting the student-athlete.

A Core-Course Worksheet is not required for dual-enrollment coursework.

Reminder: The NCAA Eligibility Center will evaluate home school coursework only after all required documents have been received and an evaluation has been requested by an NCAA school.
Submitting Student Records

Document Submission

Student records should be submitted once the prospective student-athlete completes their first 6-semesters of coursework. Generally, this is the time NCAA schools request that an account be evaluated. Student records may also be submitted when coursework is completed at the end of each academic year. An updated Home School Transcript and Core-Course Worksheets should be submitted at the end of each academic year in this instance. The Administrator and Accordance Statement only submitted once.

Email

Email is the preferred method of document submission. All home school documentation should be emailed to ec-processing@ncaa.org. Please keep in mind, this email inbox is intended for document submission only. Please direct any case-specific or process related questions to our Customer Service team at 877-262-1492.

Please Note: Documents submitted via email will only be accepted if sent from the email address listed on the Administrator and Accordance Statement Form.

Other Options

Documents may be submitted by mail as well. Email is still the preferred method of document submission, as it allows documents to be received to student’s accounts much faster than if sent via standard mail.

If sending via standard email, please use one of the following addresses:

Mailing Address:

NCAA Eligibility Center
P.O. Box 6222
Indianapolis, IN 46202-6222

Overnight/Express Mailing Address:

NCAA Eligibility Center
Home School Evaluation
1802 Alonzo Watford Sr. Drive
Indianapolis, IN 46202

Important Notes

Documents submitted with or as the following will not be accepted:

- Photos of Documents
- Embedded Links
- Digital Signatures
- Writing in Pencil

Keep in mind!

Please be sure to include the prospective student-athlete’s NCAA ID number with all submitted student records, regardless of the method of submission.

Only home school administrators or home school umbrella programs can submit student documentation. Student-submitted documentation will not be accepted.
Transcript Information

Transcript Submission
Transcripts may be created and submitted by a parent; or they may be submitted by an umbrella program that has been reviewed and approved by the Eligibility Center. See Home School Umbrella Program for additional information on umbrella programs.

Transcript Information Requirements
All home school transcripts must include the following to be considered official:

- Ninth grade start date (month/day/year).
- Course titles and grades awarded.
- Units of credit for each course.
- Grading scale required if numeric scale is used. If so, alpha letter equivalent necessary.
  - Example: 100-90 = A; 89-80 = B; 79-70 = C; 69-60 = D; 59 – 0 = F)
- Handwritten signature of the home school administrator.
- The academic year in which the course was taken (e.g., ninth grade or freshman year 2018-19).
- Graduation date (month/day/year).
- Full name and complete home address of student.

Keep in mind! If ANY of the above information is missing, the transcript will be NOT BE USED.

Core-course Crediting
All core courses must show units of credit (or semester or annual grades) on the home school transcript. Course credits will be acceptable in the following increments: .25, .50, .75, 1.0 or .34 or .67.

Note: No course shall receive more than 1.0 unit of credit.
Dual-enrollment Coursework Crediting

If a college-bound student-athlete completed dual-enrollment coursework (college/university), it must be on the home school transcript with a grade and high school equivalent credit awarded. The home school administrator will determine the amount of credit to be awarded for the completion of a dual-enrollment course. Please note the college transcript will also need to be submitted to the Eligibility Center.

Note: No course shall receive more than 1.0 unit of credit in an academic certification.

Proof of Graduation

Accepted Proof of Graduation

- Diploma showing month, day and year of graduation.
- Home school transcript showing month, day and year of graduation.
- State-recognized equivalency exam test results and diploma.

Exceptions

New York and Hawaii

The NCAA Eligibility Center cannot accept proof of graduation from a diploma issued by a home school in these states because they do not recognize home school diplomas. If a student is home schooled in New York or Hawaii, and does not graduate from a high school, the local school district or state board of education must review the student’s home school record and provide a written letter indicating that the student has met their requirements for graduation or the equivalent. The letter must clearly state the month, day and year that the student met graduation requirements.

In order to satisfy proof of graduation requirements, the student may also provide the test results and diploma/certificate earned from passing the state recognized equivalency exam to meet the NCAA’s graduation requirements.

High School Equivalency Exam

A state high school equivalency exam (e.g., General Education Development) may be accepted as proof of graduation for home school students under certain conditions, but it will not satisfy requirements for core courses, GPA or ACT/SAT scores. The equivalency exam may be accepted as proof of graduation if taken after the graduation date of the student’s class but before full-time enrollment into any college or university. An official copy of the applicable certificate, along with test scores, will be required.

Note: A state high school equivalency exam cannot be used to satisfy proof of graduation requirements for the Eligibility Center if it was taken before the date the student would normally have graduated with his or her class. On-time graduation is typically based on the local school’s academic calendar.
Florida Virtual Full-Time [102414]
A student can graduate from Florida Virtual Full-Time (High School CEEB 102414). If a student attends Florida Virtual Full-Time, a diploma will be awarded.

Florida Virtual Flex [101541]
A student cannot graduate from Florida Virtual Flex ([High School CEEB 101541), as high school diplomas are not awarded. If graduating from Florida Virtual Flex as a home school student, the Home School Completion Affidavit is required.

- The Home School Completion Affidavit must be signed by a parent/guardian, and include the actual date in which the student met graduation requirements (month, day and year).
- The Affidavit does not include a section for the actual date of graduation, so it will need to be added by the parent/guardian.

Keep in mind, Florida Virtual is an approved nontraditional program. Home school documentation is not required for Florida Virtual, except in instances in which the student intends to graduate as a home school student. In this case, the Home School Completion Affidavit is required.

Note: For a Home School Competition Affidavit to be viable proof of graduation from Florida Virtual, the student must be a resident of Florida. If not a Florida resident, a self-created home school transcript with proof of graduation, along with the signed Administrator and Accordance Statement Form, may be submitted for consideration. A separate, official Florida Virtual transcript would also be required.
Administrator and Accordance Statement

Administrator and Accordance Statement Information
The Administrator and Accordance Statement is required for the home school review. The statement must be signed by the home school administrator. The home school administrator is the individual who:

- Managed the home school program.
- Taught and evaluated the coursework.
- Awarded grades and issued credit.

Supporting Documentation
Supporting documents may be requested upon receipt of the Administrator and Accordance Statement. Examples of supporting documentation that may be requested include:

- An Intent to Home School form, a home school enrollment form or any other registration document required by the state.
- A signed letter from the district indicating that the student is home schooled.
- A signed letter from the state’s board of education indicating that the student is home schooled.

Note: The Administrator and Accordance Statement is not required if the student uses an NCAA-approved home school umbrella program. An approved home school umbrella program will be noted as such in the Additional Information section of the program’s NCAA Eligibility Center account.

Keep in mind! The Administrator and Accordance Statement requires a handwritten signature from the home administrator; digital signatures will not be accepted.

Current Version Required
Please use only the current version of the Administrator and Accordance Statement (dated 2019), as provided in this document. Administrator and Accordance Statement versions dated earlier than 2019 (or statements created by the home school) cannot be accepted.

Core-Course Worksheet Information

Home School Course Evaluation
The only courses that need to be evaluated as home schooling are those in which the parent or tutor is the one who:

- Plans and delivers actual instructional activities (lectures, discussions, tutorials, feedback, assistance, etc.).
- Determines the student’s comprehension of the material by grading and evaluating student performance and achievement on assignments and assessments and providing appropriate re-teaching (if necessary) and feedback.
- Determines the overall grade the student achieved in the course.
- Either places the grade on a transcript/graduation report or reports the grade to a transcription agency or entity.

What is a Core Course?
A core course is considered four-year college preparatory in the subject areas of English, math, (Algebra 1 or higher), natural or physical science, social science, foreign language, non-doctrinal religion or philosophy.

- Audited, CLEP or credit-by-exam classes are not NCAA core courses and cannot be used as part of an academic certification.

Core-Course Worksheets
For all courses taught through home school that the parent/student wish to have reviewed for approval as a core course, a core-course worksheet must be submitted. It is the home school administrator who determines if they would like a course to be considered as core. A core-course worksheet must be completed for each individual core-course.

- Each core-course worksheet requires the signature of the home school administrator—electronic signatures will not be used.
- Only the NCAA Eligibility Center-provided core-course worksheet will be accepted. Any original or self-created core-course worksheets will not be used.

IMPORTANT
Multiple courses submitted on the same core-course worksheet will not be reviewed.
Preapproved Home School Coursework
There is no preapproved home school curriculum. For coursework to be considered, the requested home school documentation must be reviewed to determine if the coursework meets core-course legislation.

Pre-Ninth Grade Coursework
High school classes taken prior to ninth grade may be considered in an academic certification. The course(s) must appear on the transcript with grade and credit. A core-course worksheet is required if the course was taken via home school.

College Coursework
For dual-enrollment coursework completed at a two- or four-year college, no core-course worksheet is required. For dual-enrollment coursework to be considered, the college course must appear on the home school transcript with grade and credit. The course must also be clearly designated as a college course. The home school transcript should indicate where the college course was completed, listing the name of the two- or four-year school, as well as the location (both city and state).

Nontraditional Core-Course Worksheets
For all courses taught in home school, in which a nontraditional home school provider was used, the Home School Administrator will be required to complete the Nontraditional Core-Course Worksheet. A nontraditional core-course worksheet must be completed for each individual core-course completed using a nontraditional home school provider.

Click here to review nontraditional home school providers.
Core-Course Worksheet Instructions

These instructions provide detail you may find helpful when completing the Home School Core-Course Worksheet.

- Each core-course worksheet must be hand signed by the administrator on file (digital signatures cannot be accepted).
  - Unsigned core-course worksheets will be marked as unofficial and will not be reviewed.
- Documents should be sent as attachments via email and cannot be accepted via Adobe EchoSign or Dropbox.
  - Photos of documents cannot be accepted.
- Only the NCAA Eligibility Center-provided core-course worksheet will be accepted.
  - Any original or self-created core-course worksheets will be considered unofficial.
- Core-Course Worksheets should not be submitted for coursework in progress.
  - Any core-course worksheet for a course in progress will not be reviewed. Core-Course Worksheets should only be submitted for completed coursework.
- A Nontraditional Core-Course Worksheet will be required for any core-course that was completed using a nontraditional home school provider.
  - Click here to review nontraditional home school providers.

Teacher of Record
This is the individual who plans and delivers actual instructional activities (lectures, discussions, tutorials, feedback, assistance, etc.). This individual also assesses student comprehension and assigns grades or reports student content mastery.

Other Teacher
If the duties and responsibilities of the teacher of record are shared with another individual, that individual should be named.

Prerequisite(s)
List any courses that must be successfully completed before taking this course. For example, Algebra 1 is a prerequisite for Algebra 2.

Text(s) Used
List the instructional materials used or a summary of materials used.

Curriculum Provider/Designer
If the course was taken through an outside program or school, or if the home school instructor used a pre-designed or packaged curriculum, that information should be listed in this field.

Course Description
A brief paragraph that outlines the general goals and content of the course. See examples below.

Course Content/Goals/Outline
This section can be a bulleted list of the key content standards or topics to be studied in the course. For English/language arts courses, be sure to include the names of novels/short stories/poems used for the course. See examples below.

Types of Assessment Used
Please list the different types of formative and summative assessments used throughout the course (e.g., tests, quizzes, writing assignments, verbal assessment, projects, presentations, etc.).
Assessments Designed/Developed By

This will largely depend on what curriculum or provider is being used. If the student is taking a course or courses through an online school or program, that school or program has likely designed and developed the assessments. If the parent or tutor has developed the course, that individual or individuals has probably developed the assignments and assessments. Or, it may be a combination of both, depending on how the course has been designed and taught.

Assessments Graded By

Please list the person(s) responsible for grading the assignments and assessments.

Grade Based On

Provide a brief explanation regarding how the student’s grade was calculated. For example: tests/quizzes 30 percent; written work 50 percent; class participation 20 percent. NOT a request for a grading scale.

Grade/Credit Achieved

Please list the grade the student achieved and the credit awarded.

Current Version Required

Please use only the current version of the Home School Core-Course Worksheet (dated 2018), as provided in this document. Home School Core-Course Worksheet versions dated earlier than 2018 (or worksheets created by the home school) cannot be accepted.

Sample Course Descriptions

Pre-Calculus with Trigonometry

This is a full-year course following Geometry and Algebra 2. The course provides traditional math instruction with frequent practice while including options for students to communicate and explore content in ways that illuminate the transitions between concrete and abstract thinking.

English 1

This course will emphasize literature and an introduction to high school level composition skills. In the first semester, the student will read and discuss a novel and work on five-paragraph essays. In the second semester, the student will read and discuss a variety of short stories. Discussions will include analysis of the focus, setting, characters, plot and theme. Student will write his/her own short story.
World Geography
This course studies the land, people and cultures of the world with an emphasis on how features, such as cultural and economic factors, affect the character of each nation in our global community.

Biology
This course will provide a thorough understanding of the fundamental principles of scientific investigation, life at the molecular and cellular level, life at the systems and organism level and the interaction of life forms.

Home School Umbrella Program

What is the definition of a “home school umbrella program”?
A home school umbrella program is any program recognized by the state as a home school program or home school support program. The three different types of programs are:

1. Programs offering transcript service, state high school diploma, record keeping and review of course materials.
2. Programs that can offer transcript service, state high school diploma, record keeping and curriculum. These programs do not offer a review of course materials.
3. Programs that only offer a transcript and a diploma.

Home School Umbrella Program Questions

Does the umbrella program administrator or the parent sign the transcript?
The transcript can be signed by an umbrella program administrator unless the program is a home school co-op. In that case, it will be signed by the parent.

Does the umbrella program administrator or the parent complete the home school administrator statement?
Neither. We do not need the home school Administrator and Accordance Statement if the program is a state-recognized home school program or home school support program. If the program is a home school co-op it can be signed by either.

Is the home school Administrator and Accordance Statement needed if a college-bound student-athlete goes through an umbrella program?
No, this statement is not needed if the program is state recognized and the program’s account is noted as an approved umbrella program. If it is a home school co-op, we will need a statement.

Is the parent or the umbrella program supposed to complete the core-course worksheets?
In all instances, the parent must be listed as either the “teacher of record” or “other teacher,” and must complete and sign the core-course worksheets.
Approved Home School Umbrella Programs

If a college-bound student-athlete is home schooled using an umbrella program, the coursework will only be considered if the umbrella program has been reviewed and approved by the NCAA Eligibility Center. Click here to check the status of a home school umbrella program. A home school transcript and core-course worksheets are still required to determine if coursework may be used in the student’s academic certification.

Registration Error

Registered as a Home School Student in Error

If a student erroneously registers with the NCAA Eligibility Center as a home school student, the home school flag and tasks in a student’s account cannot be removed until the following is received by the Eligibility Center:

- All transcripts, from each high school attended, through the first six semesters.

Once this information has been received, the student may contact the Eligibility Center to request that the transcripts be reviewed by the Home School Review staff to evaluate if the home school flag is appropriate. If it is determined that the student was not home schooled, the home school flag will be removed, and the related tasks will be closed.

Keep in mind!

This review may take up to five business days.

If, upon review of the transcript(s), evidence of home schooling exists, the student will be required to provide the appropriate home school documentation for review:

- Home school transcript.
- Administrator and Accordance Statement Form.
- Core-course worksheets for each core-course completed.
