

Transcript Release Form

The Eligibility Center does not require a transcript release form. You may send student transcripts without filling out a release form. The Transcript Release Form provided to you by the Eligibility Center is done so as a courtesy, just in case your school would like to use it. Remember, though, that it is not required.