2019 CHAMPIONSHIP

HIGHLIGHTS

Tampa wins the 2019 DII baseball national championship: Eight days from the USA Baseball National Training Complex came to a thrilling end with Tampa winning the 2019 DII baseball championship. It was the Spartan's eighth national title, defeating Colorado Mesa 3-1.

Two DII powerhouses went to work in the championship game on Saturday. Tampa's Keven Pimentel and Mesa's Trevin Reynolds went head to head on the mound as both teams battled through light showers, a theme of the final few days in Cary. The two matched zeroes for five innings, barely running into trouble. When Colorado Mesa broke through in the top of the sixth with a run, Mr. Big Hit Cole Perry came through again in the bottom half, tying the game.

Yorvis Torrealba struggled mightily in Game 1. The SSC player of the year went 0-for-4 with three strikeouts. That was when the rally chicken was brought into the picture, and Torrealba, and Tampa's, fortunes quickly changed. Torrealba delivered the decisive blow, with a two-RBI single in the bottom of the seventh. Jacinto Arredondo, who picked up two wins and a save out of the bullpen for Tampa, took care of the rest.

"That's the reason we all come to Tampa," Torrealba said. "To be part of history. We come out here to win that national championship and have our name in the record book."

Saturday may be Tampa's day in the sun after sweeping its way to yet another championship, but there were eight great teams who played eight great days of DII baseball.

Eight days is a lot of baseball. Central Missouri began it's run to the national semifinals in the first game of the championship last Saturday. The Mules took down Ashland 9-4 as Harrison Schnurbusch began his all-out assault on pitchers in Cary. In fact, the entire top of the Mules' lineup was raking until Colorado Mesa's Will Dixon found a way to silence them in the 'if necessary' game of the semifinals.

Mercyhurst also made a memorable run, reaching the semifinals for the first time in program history. Surprisingly, the Lakers did it behind the unlikely power in the field. Mercyhurst, who entered the championship tied for the least home runs in the field, slugged four, led by first baseman Matthew Schneider's two monster shots. The Lakers made an impressive run after falling to Tampa in the first game, surviving two elimination games before succumbing to Tampa once more.

It was a much different experience than last year's two and out for Mercyhurst.

"It's a big sigh of relief for me," Schneider said. "Just to compete better and play better baseball. Last year we didn't put everything together, we kind of struggled. This year we have a lot of talent and a lot of depth. It's nice to get that win."

Two Lakers pitchers — Matt Minnick and Tyler Garbee — highlighted a group of ten players selected in the MLB draft while playing in Cary. Tampa had the most in the field with four drafted, two of which would play the hero three days later in the title-clinching game.

Tampa's run to the finals was the easiest route traveled. It took the Spartans a little bit to get going, as the Garbee held Tampa scoreless through eight in the opener. A big hit from Cole Perry would ignite the Tampa offense as the Spartans won the next two games handily.

Colorado Mesa's run to the finals was a little trickier. The Mavericks three battles with Central Missouri were amongst the best in Cary. Colorado Mesa took two of three from the Mules, with both wins decided by one-run. Senior closer Will Dixon's complete game shutout — yes, you read that correctly — was the single best pitching performance of the championship.

Tampa closes out the season on an 11-game winning streak, going perfect in the regional, Super Regional, and then finally here in Cary. After all, that's simply the Tampa Way.

"To be remembered as a Spartan, you have to win a national championship," head coach Joe Urso said, who picked up his DII-best fifth title, and sixth overall with Tampa, winning one as a player. "No one remembers who was runner-up. That's how big this is for our program. That's what we talk about the first day we recruit these guys."

For the eighth time in the program's history, Tampa is your national champions. A tip of the cap to this young Colorado Mesa team, one you can be sure you will hear from again next year. The Spartans are your 2019 DII baseball champions.
