GENERAL RECORDS

MCWS FORMAT HISTORY

1947	Eight teams were divided into two, four-team, single-elimination playoffs. The two winners then met in a best-of-three final in Kalamazoo, Michigan.
1948	Similar to 1947, but the two, four-team playoffs were changed to double-elimination tournaments. Again in the finals, the two winners met in a best-of-three format in Kalamazoo.
1949	The final was expanded to a four team, double-elimination format and the site changed to Wichita, Kansas. Eight teams began the playoffs with the four finalists decided by a best-of-three district format.
1950-1987	An eight-team, double-elimination format coincided with the move to Omaha in 1950.
1988-1998	The eight regional champions are seeded into two, four-team brackets. Those two brackets play double-elimination with the bracket winners then meeting in a one-game championship.
1999-2002	While the CWS format remains the same, the expanded field means the eight super regional champions advance and the 64-team bracket is set at the beginning of the championship and teams are not reseeded for the CWS.
2003	The eight super regional champions advance into two, four-team brackets. The eight super-regional winners are not reseeded for the CWS. Those two brackets play double-elimination with the bracket winners then meeting in a best two-of-three championship series.

In 1961, Western Michigan was 1-2 in the College World Series and had no doubles in its three games. However, they did manage to slug out six triples.

* * * * *

In 1964, while the Yankees had their M&M Boys, Southern California's baseball team saw plenty of M&M's at the CWS while going 2-2. Their opponents that year were Mississippi, Missouri, Minnesota and Maine.

The first team to play seven games in one series was the 1952 national champion Holy Cross team. The Crusaders used only 11 different players the entire series: eight position players, and three pitchers who combined for seven complete games.

* * * * *

Oregon State, in 2006, was the first team to lose two games at the College World Series and still win the National Championship. The Beavers lost their opening game to Miami (Fla.) and advanced through the losers' bracket to advance to the championship series. Oregon State lost game one of the Championship Series against North Carolina before winning the next two to claim the school's first national title.

* * * * *

In 2007, Oregon State became the first team since LSU in 1996 and 1997 to win back-to-back national titles. The Beavers were also the first team, since the bracket expanded to 64 teams in 1999, to win the national championship despite being a number three seed in the regional.
