Summary

NATIONAL COLLEGIATE/DIVISION I

Photo by Brock Scott/NCAA Photos

UCLA has won 65 team titles, including six in water polo.

1999-00 Championships

Highlights

Four schools shared the spotlight by winning two championships each during the 1999-00 campaign. Arkansas captured cross country and indoor track and field; Penn State won fencing and gymnastics; Stanford took home tennis and outdoor track and field titles; and UCLA was crowned in volleyball and water polo. All except Penn State are among the all-time team championship leaders, with UCLA pulling within five of Southern California's leading figure of 70 titles. Of note this season: Iowa's 20th title in wrestling and UCLA's 18th in volleyball.

Stanford's eight individual championships matched the Cardinal's previous-year total and were tops for the division. Again this year, Stanford's championship haul came from five different sports: three in outdoor track and field, two in indoor track and field and one each in fencing, swimming and diving, and tennis. Southern California maintained the overall lead in individual titles with 277 by capturing one each in swimming and diving, and outdoor track and field. South Alabama in cross country and indoor track and field (two), and MIT in fencing won individual titles in the division for the first time.

MEN'S SUMMARIES

National Collegiate/Division I Individual Championships

(Notes: Each school is credited with one championship for each competitor involved in a tie. The boxing championships began in 1932 and were discontinued after the 1960 championships. The individual championships totals for fencing, rifle and skiing include some championships won by women. In tennis, two championships are awarded each year: one to the school whose competitor wins the singles championship and one to the school whose team wins the doubles championship. In swimming, track and skiing, relay victories count as one championship.)

Summary

DIVISION II

1999-00 Championships

Highlights

The only school with two team national titles, Abilene Christian led the division this year while three other schools captured team titles for the first time. The Wildcats won indoor track and field for the eighth time and outdoor track and field for the 11th time, which ties Florida Southern golf for the division lead. Schools winning their first NCAA championships were Limestone in lacrosse and Southeastern Oklahoma State in baseball, while Metropolitan State won the basketball title to go with three previous individual titles in swimming and diving. Cal State Bakersfield captured swimming and diving to maintain its overall lead in team titles with 22.

Abilene Christian led among individual winners for the second consecutive year, netting a total of nine crowns from outdoor (six) and indoor track and field (three). Drury and St. Augustine's were next with six championships. Drury's overall individual tally is now 46, all in swimming and diving, while St. Augustine's eclipsed the century mark with an even three-three split in indoor and outdoor track and field. Cal State Bakersfield maintained its overall division lead by netting five swimming and diving titles to increase to 128 overall. Carson-Newman in wrestling and Gardner-Webb in outdoor track and field won NCAA titles for the first time.

Summary

DIVISION III

1999-00 Championships

Highlights

Lincoln (Pennsylvania) and North Central not only tied for the outdoor track and field championship, they also tied for the best showing in Division III by winning an additional national title during 1999-00. Lincoln captured indoor track and field, while North Central won cross country. Four schools made it their breakthrough year by winning national titles in the division for the first time: Greensboro in golf, Norwich in ice hockey, Pacific Lutheran in football and Trinity (Texas) in tennis. Trinity is a previous Division I tennis team champion.

Kenyon, tops in overall team (21) and individual (168) titles, won 10 individual crowns in swimming and diving for the second straight year. The Lords continue their dominant streak of having won all of their NCAA titles in swimming and diving. Lincoln captured three indoor and four outdoor track and field championships to maintain second place overall with 73 individual crowns. And four schools - Augsburg, Denison and North Central - captured four individual titles apiece. First-time winners in the division this year were Greensboro in golf and Puget Sound in cross country.

Individual Championships

(Notes: Each school is credited with one championship for each competitor involved in a tie. In tennis, two championships are awarded each year: one to the school whose competitor wins the singles championship and one to the school whose team wins the doubles championship. In swimming and track, relays count as one championship.)
