

Division II Championship

2007 Title Game Summary

Late Score Clinches Title for Valdosta State: It has been just eight years since Northwest Missouri State last won a Division II football title, but the wait for its next crown has been interminable. The Bearcats lost their third straight championship game December 15, 2007, falling to Valdosta State, 25-20.

Michael Terry found the end zone on a 1-yard run with 22 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter to propel Valdosta State to its second national championship. The Blazers won their first title in 2004.

After a first-quarter field goal by Valdosta State kicker Zac Williams, it was all Northwest Missouri State, as the Bearcats jumped out to a 14-3 lead with a pair of touchdowns in the second quarter.

Northwest Missouri State's Aldwin Foster-Rettig picked off a pass from Willie Copeland and returned it 31 yards to put the Bearcats on the board with 13:28 remaining in the second quarter. It was the fourth interception return for a touchdown in championship-game history. Toward the end of the period, quarterback Joel Osborn found Mike Peterson on a 3-yard route to stake the Bearcats to a 14-3 lead at the break.

Valdosta State answered in the early part of the third quarter, as Copeland hooked up with Clay Callaway on a 7-yard touchdown pass to cut the Bearcat lead to 14-10.

In the fourth, the Blazers went to the bag of tricks and went ahead on a pass from tailback Ronnye Nelson to Zach Parker. The former quarterback found Parker for 14 yards and a 17-14 lead.

Less than one minute later, Northwest Missouri State answered behind Xavier Omon, the nation's leading rusher. Omon, who scored four touchdowns in a semifinal victory over Grand Valley State, scored on a 2-yard run to put Northwest Missouri State ahead, 20-17. A blocked extra-point attempt translated into good fortune for the Blazers, as Roger King scooped up the live ball and ran it back for two points. The defensive extra-point score was the first in championship-game history.

The score remained 20-19 until the last minute of the game, when Terry scooted into the end zone to give Valdosta State a 25-20 lead and the national title.

Valdosta State won four games to bring home the championship, beating Catawba, North Alabama and California (Pennsylvania) before knocking off the Bearcats.

"Obviously, I am very proud of our kids. We had a four-game playoff run and in every game we played, we were either behind at the half or tied at the half," said Valdosta State head coach David Dean. "Our kids never panicked -- you never felt like they were out of the game."

Valdosta State becomes the eighth team to win more than one Division II football championship, while Northwest Missouri State is the first program to lose three consecutive championship games.

Division III Championship

2007 Title Game Summary

Wisconsin-Whitewater holds off Mount Union in third championship meeting: In each of the last two seasons, the Wisconsin-Whitewater football team has scratched and clawed its way to the Division III national championship game only to be stopped in the final by perennial power Mount Union.

The Warhawks, who were a combined 28-2 in 2005 and 2006 -- with both losses coming in the final to Mount Union -- were facing the same fate December 15 when their annual nemesis lined up against them.

This time, the Amos Alonzo Stagg Bowl followed a different script as the Warhawks built a 17-point lead and held off Mount Union, 31-21, to capture the title in Salem, Virginia.

The cold, rainy conditions played a factor as the teams combined for six turnovers. Fortunately for Wisconsin-Whitewater, it only had two of the miscues.

That was the kind of statistic that went against the Warhawks in their two previous Stagg Bowl defeats at the hands of the Purple Raiders.

"If you look back at last year's game to this year's, we didn't allow big plays," said Wisconsin-Whitewater coach Lance Leipold. "Yeah, we turned it over a little bit, but there weren't the explosive plays for them. They had to drive to score, and that's a tribute to our defense."

The Warhawks set the tone on Mount Union's first drive. The Purple Raiders drove to the Wisconsin-Whitewater 30-yard line, but were turned away when the Warhawks stopped them on downs.

"Our goal was to come out early and be physical, and I thought we did that," Leipold said. "We played aggressively and had to make it a four-quarter game."

After stopping Mount Union's first possession, Wisconsin-Whitewater scored the game's first touchdown with a five-play drive. The drive included a 26-yard run by Gagliardi Trophy-winning tailback Justin Beaver, and a 23-yard pass from quarterback Danny Jones to Matt Gifford.

Jones scored on a one-yard run to cap the drive.

Later in the first quarter, Mount Union ventured deep into Warhawks territory again. Mount Union's Nate Kmic was ruled down inside the 1-yard line after a video replay review on a third-and-goal play.

Kmic received the handoff on fourth down but was stopped short of the tying score by Wisconsin-Whitewater's Anthony White and Ryan Ogrizovich.

"Getting stopped on the goal line on that early drive was a key," said Mount Union coach Larry Kehres. "That was good defense. That's our bread-and-butter play, and we didn't get in. I credit their defense. They stopped what I think is our best goal-line play."

A 32-yard field goal by Jeff Schebler with two seconds remaining before halftime gave Wisconsin-Whitewater a 10-0 lead at the intermission. The field goal was set up when senior linebacker A.J. Raebel caused a fumble that senior defensive back Andy Murray recovered.

The Warhawks made it a 17-point advantage with 11:05 remaining in the third quarter when offensive lineman Michael Sherman recovered a fumble by Beaver in the end zone.

Mount Union, which only trailed once all season, showed its championship mettle by cutting into the deficit. A pair of Kmic touchdown runs made the score 17-14 with 19 minutes left in the game.

Kmic's second touchdown was set up by a fumble by Beaver.

However, the Gagliardi Trophy winner refused to let it deter him or his team from winning the national title.

"The biggest thing is I've seen so many people make mistakes and put their head down," Beaver said. "I've kind of learned through many things in life that if you make a mistake, just bounce back as hard as you can."

Beaver scored on a 13-yard run with 6:11 remaining in the game to give Wisconsin-Whitewater a 24-14 lead. Leipold wasn't surprised to see his tailback turn a negative into a positive.

The coach also revealed that Beaver ran for all of his 249 yards in the Stagg Bowl and a lot of his 2,455 yards on the season with an injury.

"At the Gagliardi dinner, I was asked to tell something about Justin that others don't know," Leipold said. "I said that Justin played the last five, six weeks with a fractured rib, and that just shows you once again the kind of competitor, and the heart he has."

Kmic, who had 121 yards, pulled Mount Union to within 24-21 on a 4-yard run with 3:36 remaining.

However, Wisconsin-Whitewater responded with a six-play, 75-yard drive. Beaver gained 66 yards, and Jones finished the march with a one-yard run to seal the victory that ended Mount Union's 37-game win streak.

Both teams ended the season with 14-1 records.

Wisconsin-Whitewater's 23 seniors finished their careers with a 49-6 record and received praise from the opposition.

"They deserve to be champions. We played very well in spots, but we had a few too many mistakes," said Mount Union's Kehres. "There were a couple of little bounces of the football when it got away from us and cost us the victory. But primarily, my review of the game would be Whitewater played a great game and deserved to win."
