EDDIE ROBINSON*A Coach For The Ages

Because Grambling is not a Division I-A member, most football historians agree that Grambling's Eddie Robinson not be listed in the major college coaches' section. But there is no denying that the Tigers' former head coach belongs in any mention of great collegiate coaches.

Robinson, who retired following the 1997 season, compiled one of the most impressive coaching legacies in collegiate history. He is the only college football coach with more than 400 victories (408) and he has coached in more games (588) than any other coach in the 131 years of college football.

Only the legendary Amos Alonzo Stagg had more years as a college head coach (57) than Robinson's 55 seasons at Grambling (he coached two war years at Grambling High School). Robinson began his career in 1941, at the start of World War II and continued through more than half a century of change.

Here is a breakdown of the milestone victories in his career:

Victory No.	(Date Reached Milestone)	Age in Yrs.-Days	Career Game (Record)	Career Yr.-Game
