2001

The 25-man NCAA Consensus all-America Football Team features 14 players on offense and 11 on defense. The players listed had the majority of votes competing against players at that position only. Four first-team votes were considered the minimum number required of the seven teams, except in case of ties at those positions. The ties were at offensive lineman, where all four players tied with three votes each, were listed. At the placekicking position, the leader had three votes. Seven players were unanimous choices by all seven teams used in the consensus chart — Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, American Football Coaches Association, CNNSI.com, Waller Camp Foundation, The Football News and The Sporting News.

AWARD WINNERS

Special Awards

HEISMAN MEMORIAL TROPHY

Originally presented in 1935 as the DAC Trophy by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York City to the best college player east of the Mississippi River. In 1936, players across the country were eligible and the award was renamed the Heisman Memorial Trophy to honor former college coach and DAC athletics director John W. Heisman. The award now goes to the outstanding college football player in the United States. The bronze trophy was sculpted by Frank Eliscu, with the aid of Jim Crowley, one of Notre Dame's famed Four Horsemen. Crowley was then coach at Fordham, and some of his players posed as models for the trophy.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Established: In 1947, by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame, Inc. The first class of enshrinement of Division I or major-college players began in 1951. In 1996, the yearly classes elected were expanded to include other than Division I players. Eligibility: A nominated player must be out of college at least 10 years and a first-team all-America selection by a major selector during his career. For divisional (college-division) players, the player must have been a first-team selection on a recognized all-America team in Division I-AA, II and III and the NAIA. Coaches must be retired three years. The voting is done by a 12-member panel made up of athletics directors, conference and bowl officials, and media representatives.

Member players are listed with the final year they played in college, and member coaches are listed with the year they were inducted. ($) Indicates college-division member. (†) Indicates deceased members. (#) Indicates dual member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

First-Team All-Americans Below Division I-A

2001 Selectors (and division[s]): American Football Coaches Association (I-AA, II, III); Associated Press (I-AA, II, III); Football Gazette (I-AA, II, III); The Sports Network (I-AA); Daktronics (II); Hewlett-Packard (III).

Selection of Associated Press Little All-America Teams began in 1934. Early AP selectors were not bound by NCAA membership classifications; therefore, several current Division I-A teams are included in this list.

The American Football Coaches Association began selecting all-America teams below Division I-A in 1967 for two College Division classifications. Its College Division I team included NCAA Division II and National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) Division I players. The AFCA College Division II team included NCAA Division III and NAIA Division II players. The AFCA renamed the College Division I team to Division II, and the College Division II team to Division III, in 1996; players at NAIA institutions are no longer eligible for these teams.

The AFCA added a Division I-AA team in 1979; AP began selecting a Division I-AA team in 1982; the Sports Network added a Division I-AA team in 1994; and these players are included. In 1993, the College Sports Information Directors of America Division II team was added, selected by sports information directors from every NCAA Division II institution. In 1990, the Champion USA Division III team was added, selected by a panel of 25 sports information directors and replaced by the Hewlett-Packard Division III team in 1995. In 1993, Football Gazette's team was added for Divisions I-AA, II and III.

Nonmembers of the NCAA are included in this list, as are colleges that no longer play varsity football.

Players selected to a Division I-AA all-America team are indicated by (†). Current members of Division I-A are indicated by (*).

All-Americans are listed by college, year selected and position.

NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship Winners

Following are football players who are NCAA postgraduate scholarship winners, whether or not they were able to accept the grant, plus all alter-nates (indicated by *) who accepted grants. The program began with the 1964 season. (Those who played in 1964 are listed as 1965 winners, those who played in 1965 as 1966 winners, etc.) To qualify, student-athletes must maintain a 3.000 grade-point average (on a 4.000 scale) during their collegiate careers, perform with distinction in varsity football and behave, on and off the field, in a manner that has brought credit to the student-athlete, his institution and intercollegiate athletics.

Academic All-Americans by School

Academic all-America teams have been selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America since 1952 and sponsored by Verizon since 1985. To be eligible, student-athletes must be regular performers and have at least a 3.200 grade-point average (on a 4.000 scale) during their college careers. University division teams (I-A and I-AA) are complete in this list, but college division teams (II, III, NAIA) before 1970 are missing from CoSIDA archives, with few exceptions. Following are all known first-team selections:
