

Highlights

Lynn completes undefeated season, winning 11 tournaments overall: The historic season for Lynn came full circle May 17 after the squad's 29-stroke victory at the Rock Barn Golf & Spa to claim the 2014 NCAA Division II Women's Golf Championships. This marks the second consecutive national title for the women's golf program. Louise Manalo doubled the Fighting Knights' celebration by becoming the program's fifth individual national champion with a 72-hole program record score of 287.

The Blue & White shattered the records books this season, winning 11 tournaments, including tying a Sunshine State Conference record with seven in a row, and smashing every individual and team mark. Additionally, Lynn went undefeated against all Division II opponents this year and has not lost since the SSC Championship last season, a span of 15 tournaments. This is also the second time the Fighting Knights have claimed back-to-back titles, having won three consecutive from 1995 to 1997 (NAIA 1995 and 1996, NCAA 1997).

Manalo cruised through the front nine and finished the back nine even with par to turn in a 68 and 287 overall score. The Brussels, Belgium, product is just the third player in program history to shoot a round of 68. She joins Genevieve Laverdure (1993, NAIA), Josephine Stalvant (1995, NAIA), and Zoe Grimbeek (1997 NAIA and 1998 NCAA) to win an individual title in women's golf.

Lynn held on to a 13-stroke lead heading into the final round but added some cushion by shooting 5-under par through the first nine holes. Manalo came through the turn strong, making birdie putts on four of the last five holes on the front nine. Jessica Bradley and Irene Calvo both shot one-under par while Samantha Smolen was even with a bogey and a birdie. Ellen Chambers was 2-over par on the front nine but dropped a stroke on hole No. 11. She finished the round with a 78 and a 303 through the 72-hole tournament. Irene Calvo shot a 70 in the final round and a 303 overall to finish tied for 23rd overall with Chambers. Samantha Smolen carded a 73 in the last round to earn a top-10 finish, the 10th of the season.

Jessica Bradley entered the final round with a two-stroke lead over her teammate. She turned in a 71 to finish the day even with par after a huge birdie on hole No. 18 but was slightly edged by Manalo to finish as the national runner-up. Bradley shot 288 throughout 72 holes to finish 4-over par. Her second-place finish is the 13th top-10 finish of the season and 25 for her career, both program records.

Lynn took the title with a four-round score of 1164 (+28), the second-lowest total in NCAA Division II Women's Golf Championships history. The Fighting Knights finished the tournament with a championship-low 282 in the final round. No. 3 Barry finished runner-up with a team score of 1193 (+57), while No. 2 Rollins finished in fourth with a total score of 1,212 (+76) to give the Sunshine State Conference three of the top-four teams in the final standings.

This marks the fifth consecutive year that an SSC golfer has won the NCAA Division II championship. Teams from the league have now claimed the past 15 NCAA Division II Women's Golf Championships since 2000, and a conference team has also been the national runner-up 12 times during that span.
