2021 CHAMPIONSHIP

HIGHLIGHTS

Pepperdine wins 2021 NCAA Division I Men's Golf team championship

It had been 24 years since they had last done it, but the Pepperdine Waves are the kings of college golf once again.

No. 3 Pepperdine defeated No. 4 Oklahoma, 3-2, in a thrilling back-and-forth affair in the championship round at the Grayhawk Golf Club in Scottsdale, Arizona to win the 2021 NCAA Division Men's Golf National Championship.

And who else to deliver the decisive, match-clinching third point than Clay Feagler, the man who's played the most rounds for Pepperdine in school history. Earlier this week, Feagler became the all-time rounds leader for the Waves, surpassing a record previously set by current head coach Michael Beard in 2002.

Feagler defeated Ben Lorenz with a thrilling one-point lead after paring the tricky 18th. The redshirt senior was phenomenal for the Waves. He had a huge birdie on hole 14 to put him up one, which gave him his first advantage of the match -- and he never let go of that lead. He also had a clutch par putt on 16 to keep a firm grip on that one-stroke edge.

"It was kind of surreal to come down to the 18th hole and basically have the last point just kind of on my shoulders," Feagler said "It was nerve wracking but it was exciting. I didn't think I was going to be the final point here. It was kind of crazy."

The Sooners got on the board with an early lead thanks to Jonathan Brightwell's win over Dylan Menante. It took all 18 holes to do it, but Brightwell knocked in a par putt to clinch the win after erasing an early two-point deficit.

But minutes after the Sooners' first point, the Waves answered with theirs. Junior Joe Highsmith never trailed against Garrett Reband, winning comfortably 4&3 after a really solid start to the back nine where he picked up three points.

Sophomore William Mouw gave the Waves their second win, a crucial tally onto the scoreboard as he toppled Oklahoma's Quade Cummins with a 4&3 win. Mouw jumped out to a lead after the first hole and never trailed the rest of the way.

The Sooners' second win of the match came via Logan McAllister, who used a hole-in-one -- his second this week -- on the eighth hole to sneak out a one-point win over Joey Vrzich.

But for every Sooner highlight, the Waves seemingly always had a response. When the Sooners would tighten the Waves' lead, Pepperdine repeatedly pulled clutch shot after clutch shot out of its back pocket.

The Waves were the No. 1 ranked team when last season was suspended due to the coronavirus pandemic, and they returned five players who appeared in the 2019 National Championship.

A return to the top of the golf world felt imminent with this group, and they lifted a 24-year spell to deliver the second title in program history.
