2017 CHAMPIONSHIPS

HIGHLIGHTS

NAU's Men's Cross Country Repeats As NCAA National Champions In Dominating Fashion: As if they were going to go out any other way, Northern Arizona ended its perfect season by winning its second-consecutive NCAA Division I Men's Cross Country National Championship at E.P. Tom Sawyer State Park.

The Lumberjacks dominated the meet, winning with a 74-point performance and beating the next closest team by 53. Northern Arizona placed five athletes in the top 40 of the race.

Matt Baxter led the way for Northern Arizona with a second-place finish with a time of 29:00.78. Just like it has been all year, Tyler Day was right behind him to finish third with a 29:04.55 performance. The two have gone back-and-forth besting one another all season, with Baxter just beating out Day this time by four seconds.

Baxter and Day led the race from the start and battled with Syracuse's Justyn Knight for the individual title. Knight eventually out kicked them at the end to become Syracuse's first ever individual men's cross country champion.

Knight hung around the leaders for the duration of the meet, lurking in sixth for the majority of the first portion of the race. Between the fourth and sixth kilometer, a group of four broke off in front, with Knight once again making his move toward the front.

With two kilometers left, he dropped Alabama's Gilbert Kigen and pulled past Tyler Day with one kilometer left. Over the final distance he pushed past Matt Baxter to secure the title, crossing the 10k distance in 29:00.1.

Knight finishes his senior cross country season unbeaten, winning the Nuttycombe Wisconsin Invitational, ACC Championship, NCAA Northeast Regional and the individual NCAA title.

Not to be out shined by the top two of Northern Arizona, Peter Lomong ran his best race of the season for the Lumberjacks with an eighth-place showing at 29:33.09.

Andrew Trouard finished in 35th (29:58.07) while Geordie Beamish rounded out the Northern Arizona scoring attack in 40th (30:01.12).

Northern Arizona posted the lowest team score since 2014 and bested last year's title run by 52 points.

The Lumberjacks became the first program to win back-to-back titles since Colorado accomplished the feat during the 2013 and 2014 seasons.

The team also tied a school-record by placing three runners inside the top-25 of the meet.
