All the head coaches in the 1998 Final Four were making their first appearance as a Final Four head coach. That was the seventh time this had happened and the first since 1959. The other five times were the first five tournaments from 1939-43.

Question...

Who is the only player to play for two schools in two different Final Four championship games?

Answer...

Bob Bender, currently the head coach at Washington, played in the 1976 title game for Indiana's title-winning team, and two years later scored seven points for Duke in a losing cause to Kentucky in the season's final game. Steve Krafscin is the only other player to play in two Final Fours for two different schools. Krafscin played for North Carolina in 1977 and Iowa in 1980.

Tournament Moments...

March 28, 1992, at the Spectrum in Philadelphia – With Duke down by a point in overtime, the Blue Devils inbounded the ball from under Kentucky's basket with 2.1 seconds left. The pass went from Grant Hill to Christian Laettner, who was standing at the top of the key just inside the 3-point line. With his back to the basket, Laettner dribbled once to his left, then turned to face the basket while putting up a jump shot. It was good and for Duke the celebration was on as Blue Devils advanced to the Final Four with the 104-103 victory.
