After the 1990 championship, the NCAA Committee on Infractions determined that Paul Gait had played in the 1990 championship while ineligible. Under NCAA rules, Syracuse and Paul Gait's records for that championship were vacated. Although the actual records are listed in this book, the NCAA does not recognize Syracuse and Coach Roy Simmons Jr.'s 3-0 record, and Paul Gait's 7 goals, 7 assists and his participation in that championship.

NOTABLE DATES IN NCAA MEN'S LACROSSE CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY

2004 DIVISION I CHAMPIONSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

Syracuse tops sentimental favorite Navy in lacrosse final: From his eye-black Halloween game-face paint job to his flair for drama, Syracuse's Michael Powell forged a Hollywood-type lacrosse career from the start. He culminated it the same way at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore on Memorial Day. In front of a championship-game record paid-attendance crowd of 43,898, the 10th largest such number for an NCAA championship in any sport, and with the now 15-2 Orange holding a 13-12 lead over Navy, Powell found the net off a fast-break pass from best friend and fellow all-tournament team member Brian Nee with one minute left.

Although the goal proved to be the game-winner, Navy, which ended the season 15-3, wasn't finished in this game in which the score was tied eight different times. Powell, who along with his brothers Casey and Ryan, are the top three scorers in Syracuse history, ended his career with a second championship.

The semifinal's paid attendance of 46,923 set a record for an NCAA outdoor championship event, demolishing last year's record of 37,944 set in last year's championship game. The championship moves to another NFL stadium next year, Philadelphia's Lincoln Financial Field, for the next two years.

All-Tournament Team: Nee, Pfeifer, Powell of the Orange were joined by teammates Dan DiPietro, Sean Lindsay and Kevin Dougherty, who had five goals in the semifinal win over Johns Hopkins. From Navy, Graham Gill and Mitch Hendler were honored, as were Princeton's Ryan Boyle and Tim Sullivan.

2003 DIVISION I CHAMPIONSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

Virginia's Moment Comes in Front of Record Crowd: The Cavaliers held off Johns Hopkins, 9-7, after opening with a 5-0 lead, May 26 at Baltimore's muddy M&T Bank Stadium in front of a record crowd of 37,944 for their third national championship. The crowd was the largest to witness any championship game in NCAA history other than the Division I men's basketball championship game and the 17th largest in NCAA championship-game history overall.

Virginia goalie Tillman Johnson claimed most outstanding player honors with a series of highlight saves in both the semifinals and final, including three in 10 seconds early in the fourth quarter of the championship game with the hometown Blue Jays threatening to steal the momentum.

The championship game was the first that didn't include either Syracuse or Princeton since 1991 and was the last game of any sport to be played on the NFL Baltimore Ravens' home stadium's natural surface, which is being replaced with artificial turf.

All-Tournament Team: Johnson was joined by teammates A.J. Shannon, Chris Rotelli, Matt Ward and Brett Hughes. The Blue Jays placed Corey Harned, Bobby Benson, Kyle Barrie and Tom Garvey. Maryland's Michael Howley also made the squad.

2002 DIVISION I CHAMPIONSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

Same Teams, Different Result: Syracuse beat Princeton, 13-12, at its own game in a rematch of the previous year's championship, defeating the Tigers for its record-tying seventh official championship and second in three years. For the defending champions, the loss snapped a 12-game tournament win streak in games decided by one goal. The Tigers' only previous tournament loss in such a game was in 1991, when Princeton had yet to win the first of its six national titles.

Syracuse's Michael Powell, who was named most outstanding player and later would be named national player of the year, scored the game-winner with 11:35 left in the game, despite some near misses by the Tigers in the closing moments.

Syracuse won three straight one-goal games in the tournament, as did Princeton the year before. The win gave coach John Desko his second championship in four years as head coach after a long stint as an assistant for the Orange.

All-Tournament Team: Michael Powell, Solomon Bliss, John Glatzel, Tom Hardy and Jay Pfeifer of Syracuse; Damien Davis, Brad Dumont and B.J. Prager of Princeton; Adam Doneger of Johns Hopkins; and John Christmas of Virginia.

1999 DIVISION I MEN'S CHAMPIONSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

Hanging On, Finally: After building a 9-3 lead in two-and-a-half quarters on Memorial Day at Maryland's Byrd Stadium, the walls were threatening to come tumbling down again on Virginia, which had lost its last three championship-game appearances in overtime. Syracuse, the only number-eight seed to have advanced as far as the semifinals, had suddenly solved the defensive puzzle and scored five unanswered goals to climb back to 10-9 with 6:30 left after Tim Byrnes' second goal, but never got over the hump. The result was a 12-10 Cavaliers win, their second championship and first since 1972.

All-Tournament Team: Joining the champions' Conor Gill and Derek Kenney on the all-tournament team were teammates Ryan Curtis, Jay Jalbert, Court Weisleder and Tucker Radebaugh. Syracuse's Marshall Abrams and Ryan Powell also were honored, as were Johns Hopkins' Dan Denihan and Georgetown's Scott Urick.

1998 DIVISION I MEN'S CHAMPIONSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

Simply the Best: For the second consecutive year, Princeton staged a performance against Maryland that conjured up the term "dynasty." The Tigers beat the Terps, 15-5, on May 25 at Rutgers. The championship was the Tigers' third straight and fifth in the last seven years. The combined winning margin in the consecutive-year victories of 22 goals is the largest in the 28-year history of the event. Next best is the 1989-90 Syracuse repeat, when the Orangemen won their two championship games by a combined 13 goals, beating Johns Hopkins, then Loyola (Maryland).

All-Tournament Team: Most Outstanding Player Corey Popham joined teammates Josh Sims, Jon Hess, Christian Cook and Jesse Hubbard on the all-tournament team. Maryland representatives included attackman Scott Hochstadt, midfielder Brian Haggerty and defenseman Mike Bonanni. Syracuse's Casey and Ryan Powell also were selected.

1997 DIVISION I CHAMPIONSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

No Doubts: Princeton, which had won two previous championships in overtime, left no question as to the dominant team, trouncing host Maryland, 19-7, on May 26, to finish the season with a 16-0 mark. The last undefeated champion was North Carolina in 1991. The Tigers broke open a game that was scoreless with 7:30 left in the first quarter with eight unanswered goals. The victory extended the Tigers' two-year winning streak to 28 games, the third longest in the sport's Division I history. Unseeded Maryland finished 11-5.

All-Tournament Team: The entire Tigers attack—Most Outstanding Player Jon Hess, Jesse Hubbard and Chris Massey—was honored. Other Tigers named included goalkeeper Patrick Cairns and defenseman Becket Wolf. Other selections were Maryland's Matt Hahn and Andrew Whipple, Syracuse's Rob Kavovit and Casey Powell, and Duke's John Fay.

1996 DIVISION I CHAMPIONSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

Tigers' Third in OT: Princeton defeated Virginia, 13-12, in overtime to win its third championship in the last six years. Jesse Hubbard scored the game-winner 94 seconds into the sudden-death period. Each of the Tigers' championships has come in overtime. Princeton, which finished the year 14-1, losing only to Virginia in the regular season, jumped to an early 3-0 lead, but the Cavaliers quickly battled back to trail, 4-3, at the end of the first quarter. After that, no more than a goal separated the two teams until Princeton went on a three-goal fourth-quarter run to open a 12-9 lead with 11:18 left.

All-Tournament Team: Virginia's Michael Watson was named the tournament's outstanding player, marking the second consecutive year that a player from the runner-up team earned the honor. Rounding out the all-tournament team were Hubbard, Don McDonough, Chris Massey, Becket Wolf and back-up goalie Pancho Gutstein of Princeton; David Curry, Tim Whiteley and Tommy Smith of Virginia; and Casey Powell of Syracuse.

Maryland overcame the stall tactics of Johns Hopkins in the championship contest, scoring a goal in the second overtime, to win 10-9. The Terps had encountered little resistance on their way to the title bout, as they downed Brown, 16-4, and Wash. & Lee, 18-5, Johns Hopkins had disposed of Army, 11-5, and the defending champion, Virginia, 12-9.

The busiest man in the tournament did not even play in the title game. He was Skeet Chadwick, Washington & Lee's goalie. In two contests, he had 52 saves. Jack Thomas of Johns Hopkins had 11 tournament assists.

1972 DIVISION I CHAMPIONSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

Virginia won its first national title by edging Johns Hopkins, 13-12, in the championship game of the National Collegiate Lacrosse Championship tournament at Maryland. The Cavaliers were the top seed in the first NCAA tournament the previous year, but lost in the first round. This time, paced by veterans Jay Connor, Tom Duquette, Pete Eldredge and Chip Barker, and freshman Richie Werner, Virginia wasn't to be denied. Eldredge got the winning goal unassisted with 4:11 left in the contest before 7,000 fans.

Maryland, the pre-tourney favorite and host team, fell in the semifinals to Johns Hopkins, 9-6, with 8,000 watching.

Connor, the tourney's leading scorer, set a meet record for assists. Maryland's John Kaestner broke the single-game assist mark. Virginia and Johns Hopkins combined to shatter all three of the meet records for shots on goal.

1971 DIVISION I CHAMPIONSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

Cornell edged Army, 17-16, in the semifinals and then overpowered Maryland, 12-6, in the final to capture the title. Alan Rimmer, All-America attacker, banged home six Cornell goals in the final game. Goalie Bob Buhmann was credited with 22 saves as the Big Red shut off the potent Maryland attack.

In the semifinal, Cornell grabbed a 7-4 lead after one period. Army, led by Tom Cafaro, battled back and by the third period it became a question of who would get the last goal. The lead changed hands twice, and the score was tied four times in the final period, before Bob Shaw scored at 12:33, giving Cornell the victory.

2004 DIVISION II CHAMPIONSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

Le Moyne's Spillett puts finishing touches on Dolphins' win: Yogi Berra needn't impart words of wisdom to Division II men's lacrosse champion Le Moyne. The Dolphins' Brandon Spillett knows "it's never over 'til it's over," especially when he's on the field. The unanimous most outstanding player of the game ended the second overtime contest in Division II championship history May 30 at Baltimore's M&T Bank Stadium with his seventh goal of the day. Spillett took a feed from Craig Rosecrans 44 seconds into the second sudden-victory period and gave the Dolphins an 11-10 win in front of a Division II-record turnstile crowd of 19,202. With the win, Le Moyne finished 16-0, making the Dolphins the second undefeated champion in the 20-year history of the tournament. The other perfect champion was Hobart in 1977. The previous attendance record was 15,417, set last year at the same venue.

Spillett, whose title-game goal output was second in tournament history behind the record of eight set by Harold Draffen of Hobart back in that 1974 game and John Hildebrand of Ohio Wesleyan in 1976, wanted to make sure that his teammates' efforts didn't get lost in his personal laurels.

Third-year coach T.W. Johnson of Limestone, which has played in the last five championship games and won two, knew his team had played in a game for the ages after a season for the ages. The Saints finished the season 15-2, losing previously only to Division I tournament quarterfinalist North Carolina.

2003 DIVISION II CHAMPIONSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

NYIT Rides Goalie to Title: NYIT avenged the previous year's championship-game loss to Limestone with a 9-4 win over the Saints May 25, at Baltimore's M&T Bank Stadium.

The game was played in front of a record turnstile crowd of 15,417, obliterating the old mark of 2,180, set in 2001 at Rutgers' Yurcak Field. NYIT's championship was its second in four title-game appearances. The Bears had also won in 1997.

The Bears' Matt Hunter earned most outstanding player honors with 12 saves, including five in the first half, helping hold the defending champs to one goal at intermission, the stingiest performance in a half in title-game history. The game as a whole also ended up being the lowest-scoring contest in championship game history, beating the previous mark of 11-7, set in 1993 when Adelphi beat C.W. Post.

The game marked the first time the division's title game was played on the same field as the Division I and III games. Men's lacrosse is the only team sport that holds all three divisional championships at the same site. (Women's rowing, a team/individual sport holds its three divisional championships at the same site). The Division II title game had been played on a smaller stadium adjacent to the main stadium on the same campus as the other two games since 1998. The reason was the NCAA Men's Lacrosse Committee's belief that the fields in the larger stadium would not hold up for one more game if there was rain.

2002 DIVISION II CHAMPIONSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

No Fluke: Limestone a virtual unknown, four years ago in the lacrosse world, won its second championship in three years, knocking off previously unbeaten NYIT, 11-9. The Saints led 11-7 with 4:37 left before the Bears staged a futile late rally.

The Saints, playing under their third coach in as many years, were paced by Devan Spilker, who earned most outstanding player honors after finishing with three goals and one assist.

1998 DIVISION II CHAMPIONSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

Early Knockout: What was billed as an epic battle turned out to be a blowout. Adelphi, which had dropped a regular-season game to C.W. Post, 9-8, weeks earlier, socked the Pioneers with a first-quarter haymaker, then never let up, as the Panthers hammered their Long Island rivals, 18-6. The win gave Adelphi its record fifth Division II championship May 24 at Rutgers.

Adelphi's Anthony Picone took Most Outstanding Player honors in the first Division II championship game to be played as part of the sport's championships weekend, which has included the Division I and III championship games since 1992.

Won-Lost Records in Tournament Play

[Note: From 1974-79, a tournament format with no third-place game was held. Semifinal losers are credited with a third-place finish. From 1980-2000, only a championship game was held. Four teams were selected again starting in 2001]

2004 Division III CHAMPIONSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

Salisbury solves goalkeeper shield in men's lacrosse win: Ten yards generally is a goal on a football field. In the Division III Men's Lacrosse Championship May 30 at Baltimore's M&T Bank Stadium, home of the NFL Ravens, it was a limit -- the distance beyond which defending champion Salisbury could not shoot. The reason? Nazareth goalie Alex Civalier.

The plan didn't stop Civalier from becoming the second losing player in the championship's 25 years to be voted most outstanding player [Larry Boehm of Washington (Maryland) being the other in 1986], but the main goal was realized. The Sea Gulls, despite Civalier's 20 saves, won their second straight title, 13-9, claiming their 29th straight win and finishing the season with a school-record 20 triumphs. The last time the Gulls lost was April 10, 2003, to Lynchburg.

Playing in front of a turnstile crowd of 19,202, which broke last year's mark of 15,417, the Sea Gulls, whose title was their fifth, all under Berkman, stormed to a 4-0 lead by 3:43 left in the first quarter. Nazareth coach Rob Randall, coaching in his first championship game and the Golden Flyers' first since they registered consecutive crowns in 1996 and 1997, said his squad may have suffered some jitters from playing in front of such a large crowd.

But Nazareth steadied soon, capitalizing on the few chances it got despite being dominated statistically. The Flyers scored the first three goals of the second period, the third coming with 10:55 left in the half from Chad Amidon, his 17th of the year. Although Salisbury answered by widening the margin to two on two different occasions later in the half, Nazareth's Bryan Adams' 37th goal of the season with 51 seconds left in the half closed the score to 8-7 at the break.

Second that emotion for Berkman. Ever since his teams won back-to-back titles in the 1994 and 1995, newcomers have been well-schooled in Sea Gulls tradition. This team built its own and possibly passed the not-so-old-timers.

2003 Division III CHAMPIONSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

Sea Gulls End Middlebury Reign: Salisbury weathered a Middlebury comeback that erased the Gulls' 10-4 halftime lead to claim a 14-13 victory in overtime on a goal from Chris Phillips, 29 seconds into the sudden victory period.

The championship gives the Sea Gulls their fourth title overall and first since 1999, when the runner-up also was Middlebury. The champion's Josh Bergey won most outstanding player honors after finishing with four goals and three assists.

A soggy record crowd of 15,417 (turnstile) watched the muddy play in Baltimore's M&T Bank Stadium.

The victory prevented Middlebury, which finished 18-1, from becoming the first team to win four consecutive Division III titles since Hobart won 12 straight from 1980 to 1991.

Because no turnstile attendance figure had been kept previously, this year's figure will be listed as a record. The previous record of 18,586, set in 1996 at Maryland's Byrd Stadium represented the number of all-session tickets sold plus the number of walk-up tickets bought that day, not the number of people at the game. The new paid attendance record, arrived at using that method was 33,023.

2002 DIVISION III CHAMPIONSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

Panthers Prowl: Middlebury claimed its third consecutive title after winning a rematch of the previous year's title game with Gettysburg, 14-9, at Rutgers. The win allowed the Panthers to stay one step ahead of their female campus counterparts, who earned their second straight title the week before. The victory made the Middlebury men the only active Division III team to have won three straight titles. Hobart, which has played in Division I since 1995, won 12 straight national championships from 1980 to 1991.

The game was tied at seven apiece after three quarters when the Panthers finished with a 7-2 scoring outburst for the win.

2001 DIVISION III CHAMPIONSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

Middlebury Monarchy: The Panthers captured their second straight championship, defeating Gettysburg, 15-10, May 27 at Rutgers. Not only did Middlebury become the only team to win both the Division III men's and women's lacrosse titles in the same year, those two crowns increased the school's championship take to 14 in the last six years. Middlebury led by as many as six goals, holding the Bullets at bay all day after building a 7-3 halftime lead, after which Gettysburg could get no closer than two goals.

Most Outstanding Player: Middlebury's Holt Hopkins had two goals and four assists in the title game.

1999 DIVISION III CHAMPIONSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

Decade's Team: Salisbury can make the claim of "team of the 90s" after the Sea Gulls flew to a 4-1 first-quarter lead and never looked back, running away from Middlebury, 13-6, in the championship game on May 30 at Maryland. The title was Salisbury's third of the 90s and first since 1995. Washington (Maryland) and Nazareth met in each of the three previous games.

Most Outstanding Player: Salisbury's Brian Smith scored three goals to claim MOP honors.

1998 DIVISION III CHAMPIONSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

Sho' Time: The Sho'men of Washington College (Maryland) have had better regular-season teams but their 16-10 victory over two-time defending champion Nazareth, May 24 at Rutgers, gave them their first championship.

Seven times before the Sho'men had advanced to the title game, many times as one of the top seeds. This season the Sho'men limped into the tournament with four losses, the second-highest number of defeats in the field. Just to get to the championship game, they beat two teams to which they lost in the regular season. Nazareth was the third.

Washington (Md.) went on an 8-0 run to build a 16-9 lead with 2:55 left in the game.

1997 DIVISION III CHAMPIONSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

Nazareth Rerun: The Golden Flyers defeated Washington (Maryland) in overtime for the second straight year, this time by a 15-14 score. The winners' Ryan McDermott, who had been scoreless all day, finally found his mark 30 seconds into the sudden-victory period, giving the defending champions their third championship. Although the actual attendance was far less because of weather, the paid attendance of 18,086 was the second-largest total for any Division III championship in any sport. The previous year's figure of 18,586 is the record.

1996 DIVISION III CHAMPIONSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

New Heights for Flyers: Nazareth's Terry Goetz won the faceoff and scored the game-winner in the first 14 seconds of sudden-death overtime to give the Golden Flyers an 11-10 win over Washington (Maryland) and their second championship.

Nazareth successfully quelled the momentum the Shoremen had gained during a furious comeback from a 10-7 deficit with 10:14 left in regulation.

Nazareth finished 15-0, the first perfect season in the program's 11-year history. Washington (Maryland) had beaten Middlebury and Salisbury, each of which was undefeated, to reach the final game.
