- Le Moyne wins its second Division II title in three years by besting Dowling, 12-5.
- Virginia claims its fourth NCAA title in program history after defeating Massachusetts, 15-7.
- Attendance numbers continue to grow as the lacrosse championship had the highest attendance of any NCAA championship contested in 2005-06 (144,604). The final lacrosse championship site include the Divisions I, II and III championship games and Division I semifinals.

- Salisbury gets back on top and earns its seventh Division III crown. SUNY Cortland finishes second, losing, 15-9, in the title game.
- By defeating Mercyhurst, 6-5, Le Moyne picks up its second straight Division III title and third in four years.
- Johns Hopkins wins its ninth Division I title by defeating Duke, 12-11.
- Once again, attendance records were broken. The Divisions II and III finals each reached 22,778 fans, while 48,443 attended the Division I championship game and 52,004 came out to the semifinals.

- New York Institute of Technology and Le Moyne met in the Division II Championship game, with NYIT coming out on top, 16-11, earning its fourth NCAA crown.
- For the third straight year, Salisbury and SUNY Cortland played each other for the Division III title. Salisbury won its eighth title, defeating SUNY Cortland, 19-13.
- Syracuse was back to its winning ways, picking up its ninth NCAA title, and first since 2004. It beat defending national champion Johns Hopkins.
- The championships were held in New England for the first time since 1985. Record crowds traveled to Foxborough, Mass., to watch all three divisions. The Division I championship game drew 48,970 while the Division II and Division III championship games each had 24,317 fans in attendance.

2009

- LIU Post was crowned the Division II champion after defeating Le Moyne, 8-7.
- SUNY Cortland picked up its second Division III title after getting by Gettysburg, 9-7.
- Syracuse made it two straight and 10 overall after defeating Cornell in the Division I final, 10-9 in overtime.
- The championships were held in New England for the second straight year.

- Duke and Tufts won the first men's lacrosse championships in school history in the Division I and Division III championship games.
- Duke defeated Notre Dame, 6-5 in overtime, in Notre Dame's first finals appearance.
- LIU Post won its second consecutive Division II championship and its third overall, beating Le Moyne,14-9, in the championship game.
- Tufts downed Salisbury, 9-6, in the Division III title game.

- Virginia won its fifth Division I championship, defeating Maryland, 9-7, in the title game.
- Virginia's four tournament wins gave head coach Dom Starsia 35 career NCAA tournament victories, more than any other coach in Division I history.
- Mercyhurst earned the first NCAA championship in a men's sport in school history, beating Adelphi, 9-8, in the Division II tournament final.
- Salisbury avenged a loss to Tufts in the 2010 Division III title game, downing the Jumbos, 19-7.

- Loyola Maryland won the first national championship in any sport in school history when it defeated in-state rival Maryland, 9-3, in the Division I championship contest.
- For the second consecutive year, a school won its first men's lacrosse title when Dowling edged Limestone, 11-10, in the Division II title game.
- Salisbury won its second straight Division III title and 10th overall, defeating SUNY Cortland,14-10, in the title game.
- The 10th championship tied Salisbury head coach Jim Berkman with former Hobart coach Dave Urick for the most Division III men's lacrosse titles ever.

- Duke claimed its second national title after defeating Syracuse, 16-10 at Lincoln Financial Field.
- Le Moyne won the Division II title, its fourth in school history with a 11-10 victory over Mercyhurst. It marked the Dolphins first title since 2007 and put them tied for second (with NYIT) for most titles, behind Adelphi's seven.
- Stevenson and Rochester Inst. both were both eager to claim their first national championship, but in the end, Stevenson came out on top and won, 16-14.

Division I Championship Highlights

Duke junior faceoff specialist Brendan Fowler won 20 of 28 faceoffs and junior Jordan Wolf scored four goals to lead the Blue Devils to the 2013 NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championship with a 16-10 victory against top-seeded Syracuse. The national championship is the second for the Blue Devils and the second for head coach John Danowski.

Fowler garnered the Most Outstanding Player award, while David Lawson and Jake Tripucka joined him on the all-tournament team. Wolf led all scorers in the game with four goals and two assists, while Josh Offit and Josh Dionne had three apiece. Offit posted five points overall and Tripucka had four (2 goals, 2 assists).

"Well, first we want to congratulate Syracuse University," Danowski said. "Such a rich tradition and a classy coaching staff and great young men who played really hard. Nobody scripts being down 4-0 or 5-0, and inside I think we were all freaking out. But Jake Tripucka's first goal I think allowed everybody to relax a little bit. Having Brendan Fowler at the faceoff X certainly doesn't hurt anybody's confidence when he trots out there. And at halftime, we basically said that we need to play Duke lacrosse over the next 30 minutes ... I think we were settled down at halftime, and then just continued to play the game."

Duke fell behind 5-0 to start the game, but outscored the Orange 12-1 to grab a 13-7 lead with 10:47 left in the fourth quarter en route to the six-goal victory.

Syracuse raced out to a 5-0 lead in the opening 15:42 before Jordan Wolf put the Blue Devils on the scoreboard for the first time at the 12:54 mark of the second quarter.

After the Orange responded to make it 6-1, Tripucka got to the crease for his 22nd goal of the season and the first of his two of the afternoon to spark a 4-0 run that sent the Blue Devils into the locker room trailing by one at 6-5.

Four different Blue Devils netted goals in the run, including freshman Myles Jones. Duke's defense was buckled down in the second quarter, allowing just two goals and held the Orange scoreless in the final 11:47. Led by Fowler, the Blue Devils dominated faceoffs in the second quarter, winning 7 of 8 and picking up 13 ground balls to Syracuse's six. Duke also outshot the Orange 13-6 in the second session after allowing 15 in the opening frame.

"Well, obviously with such a big stage I think people just want to make plays," Dionne said. It's a natural occurrence. But I think our coaching staff did a great job at settling us down. To reiterate what Coach said, we wanted to play Duke lacrosse and I think everyone saw that and it was evident when we started doing that and when our seniors got patient, we got patient."

Fowler continued his dominance at the X in the third quarter, winning all seven restarts and ultimately 13 consecutive as the Blue Devils completed the comeback with a Lawson score 2:02 into the third period. The scoring pace slowed as neither team scored through the next seven minutes.

"Obviously winning faceoffs and getting the ball back makes it a lot easier to score goals," Fowler said. "But early I violated a few times, kind of let it get to my head a little bit. Once I cooled down a little and stuck to what I do every day, got into a groove there and just felt pretty good going out there every time."

The Orange ended its 22:19 scoreless drought at the 4:28 mark of the third to go back up 7-6, but Duke responded with seven unanswered goals for the 13-7 lead with 10:47 to play in the game. The first six of those goals came in a span of 5:17 from the sticks of four different players. Tripucka capped off the run with an unassisted score at the 10:47 mark.

Syracuse was able to pull back within four again off of a pair of JoJo Marasco goals before Wolf and Offit added a combined three more for the Blue Devils in two minutes to ice the victory as the time winded down.

Kyle Turri finished with 10 saves to become just the fifth goalie in Duke history to register 10-plus saves in three NCAA tournament contests. Dylan Donahue led all Syracuse scorers with four points, while Marasco finished with three (2 goals, 1 assist). Dom Lamolinara made 11 saves for the Orange in 60 minutes of action.

All-Tournament Team: Duke: Brendan Fowler (MOP), Jordan Wolf, David Lawson, Jake Tripucka; Syracuse: JoJo Marasco, Sean Young, Dylan Donahue, Dominic LaMolinara; Cornell Rob Pannell; Denver: Eric Law.

Loyola Maryland wins first title; Lusby scores four times to give Greyhounds championship: Unranked at the beginning of the season, Loyola Maryland is No. 1 at the end.

Loyola Maryland beat Maryland, 9-3, May 28 to win the Division I Men's Lacrosse National Championship, three months after the Greyhounds opened the season miffed at being overlooked in preseason polls.

"We knew what we had in our locker room through the whole year. It's just been an unbelievable journey," said Eric Lusby, who scored four goals and set an NCAA record with 17 in the tournament.

Loyola Maryland completed one of the most rewarding runs possible, going from unranked to No. 1 seed and finally national champion. The Greyhounds captured their first NCAA title and finished the season 18-1. Loyola Maryland was in the title game for the first time since losing to Syracuse in 1990 — when current Maryland coach Charley Toomey was a goalie for the Greyhounds.

"We don't bring up past history. This is our team," Toomey said. "This is a special group of young men that fought through a lot of things this year to put themselves in this position, and they stood tall on the biggest day."

Maryland's three goals were the fewest allowed this season by Loyola Maryland, which shut out the Terrapins (12-6) for the final 40 minutes and 40 seconds of the match. The Terps lost in the title game for the second consecutive year.

"I think individually they won the majority of the matchups. We were having a tough time getting leverage," Maryland coach John Tillman said.

Chris Layne added three assists and Jack Runkel finished with six saves for the Greyhounds, whose only loss this season was to Johns Hopkins in overtime April 28.

When the game ended, Loyola Maryland's players rushed the field, leaving a trail of sticks, helmets and gloves for a celebratory pileup. The players then ran across the field and a few leaped into the stands to join the fans before lining up and shaking hands with the Maryland players.

The two Maryland schools are separated by about 30 miles, but it was only their 21st meeting and first since the Terrapins' 19-8 victory in the 1998 national semifinals.

The Greyhounds scored seven unanswered goals after falling behind 3-2. The last three came from Lusby, who had five goals in the Greyhounds' 7-5 win against Notre Dame in the semifinals Saturday.

"It's kind of hard to explain. I just got hot at the right time. I knew going into the tournament my shot was a little off. I kept missing the cage, so I knew I just wanted to shoot for net. I just have to give credit to all the other guys on the offense," Lusby said. "When I had the opportunity to shoot and score I just wanted to make sure I made it count."

Lusby broke the tournament record of 16 goals shared by Matt Ward of Virginia (2006) and Zack Greer (2007) of Duke.

The Greyhounds scored three times unanswered in the second quarter for a 5-3 lead at halftime. Loyola Maryland's Justin Ward scored the only goal of the third quarter. Then the Greyhounds pulled away with three more in the fourth.

Lusby added his second goal 3:48 into the fourth quarter. He tied the tournament record with 5:07 left and broke it with the final goal of the game, scoring with 3:45 to go.

"I think they did a great job on the defensive end making us a little uncomfortable," Maryland's Drew Snider said.

Maryland opened the scoring on defenseman Jesse Bernhardt's goal with 9:36 left in the first quarter. The Terps went up 3-2 early in the second when Kevin Cooper scored from in front, but the Greyhounds scored the next seven.

Bernhardt was knocked out of the game in a scary collision early in the first quarter. He managed to walk off the field, but Tillman said he likely had a concussion.

All-Tournament Team: Loyola Maryland: Eric Lusby (MOP), Joe Fletcher, Josh Hawkins, Scott Ratliff, Jack Runkel; Maryland: Jesse Bernhardt, Joe Cummings, Drew Snider; Duke: CJ Costabile; Notre Dame: John Kemp.

Virginia tops Maryland to win title: Colin Briggs wasn't sure if he would get a chance to play in the national championship game.

The Virginia midfielder stood on the sidelines May 28 watching his Cavaliers beat Denver in the semifinals. Coach Dom Starsia had suspended him before the semifinals for committing a team infraction and was noncommittal when asked the evening of May 28 if the senior would be in uniform for the championship game. Starsia decided to reinstate Briggs, and it proved a wise move.

Briggs scored a career-high five goals as seventh-seeded Virginia edged Maryland, 9-7, in a slow, methodical affair to capture its fifth Division I national championship. Briggs scored three times on uncontested shots and twice beat defenders 1-on-1, earning the most outstanding player award.

"I definitely disappointed myself and let down the team on Saturday. I wanted to come back (for the title game) and give everything I had," Briggs said. "I got some open looks and was able to finish some shots."

Game time temperature was 96 degrees and it was even hotter at field level on a sun-scorched afternoon. Briggs appeared a step faster than everyone else and agreed that sitting out of the semifinals gave him an edge over those who were playing for the second time in three days.

"I definitely felt fresh out there, especially in the fourth quarter. I still had legs while maybe some other guys didn't," he said.

Matt White scored three goals for Virginia (13-5), which has captured four of its NCAA titles under Starsia, the Division I all-time leader with 329 career victories.

This one was particularly satisfying for Starsia since the Cavaliers had to overcome the the dismissal of Shamel Bratton and suspension of his twin brother, Rhamel, both All-American midfielders, as well as a season-ending injury to top defenseman Matt Lovejoy. Top attackman Steele Stanwick was hobbled for much of the season with an injury while the Briggs suspension was the latest setback in what Starsia termed "the most peculiar season I've ever been involved with."

After losing four of five games from March 26 to April 22, Virginia reinvented itself both offensively and defensively. Starsia switched to a zone defense while the normally run-and-gun Cavaliers installed a more controlled offense. Those changes paid dividends as Virginia closed the season with five straight wins.

"This moment is particularly gratifying when you consider all that we endured to put ourselves in this position," Starsia said. "We had to reconfigure ourselves midseason and the players had to pick themselves off the ground. We were willing to change our personality on both ends of the field, and we got better at the end of the year as a result."

Nick O'Reilly contributed a goal and four assists for the Cavaliers, who responded with three straight goals after the Terrapins tied the score at six with 11:43 remaining. Adam Ghitelman made nine saves as the Cavaliers secured their third crown since 2003.

Grant Catalino had two goals and an assist for unseeded Maryland (13-5), which fell despite outshooting Virginia, 32-26, and winning 12 of 19 faceoffs. Midfielder John Haus had a goal and two assists for the Terps, who committed numerous unforced errors on the offensive end and finished with 13 turnovers in the slow-paced game.

"Our game plan was to attack inside with the two-man crease. I think we got a lot of good looks early, but Adam made some saves, we hit a few pipes and missed some shots," Catalino said. "I think we prepared hard and executed our game plan. It just seemed like the ball didn't roll our way (in the championship)."

Goalie Niko Amato made eight saves for Maryland, which lost in the finals for the sixth time since capturing its last national championship in 1975. The Terrapins had their own challenges to overcome, beginning with a head coaching change in the offseason. Numerous starters missed games with injuries while attackman Ryan Young's mother died of pancreatic cancer April 17.

"I'm very disappointed for the 48 guys in our locker room. I couldn't be more proud of this group, both as players and as people because of the way they handled the last 12 months," Maryland coach John Tillman said. "It's been a long year with all the things we had to deal with. The coaching transition, all the injuries, Maria Young's death, through it all we played like Terps and represented our school, our state and our alumni with class."

Briggs scored three of his goals during a 4-0 run that turned a 3-2 deficit into a 6-3 lead for Virginia. Catalino had a goal and an assist as Maryland answered with a 3-0 run to tie the score for the fourth time at 6-6 with 11:43 left in the fourth quarter.

All-Tournament Team: Virginia: Colin Briggs (MOP), Bray Malphrus, Nick O'Reilly, Steele Stanwick, Matt White; Maryland: Niko Amato, Grant Catalino, Curtis Holmes, Brett Schmidt; Denver: Jeremy Noble.

Duke wins first NCAA men's lacrosse title: Duke won its first Division I Men's Lacrosse Championship in a dramatic final game May 31, beating Notre Dame, 6-5, on a goal five seconds into sudden-death overtime.

The game featured five ties and four lead changes, and no team led by more than one goal through the entire matchup. It was the lowest-scoring title game in history, as both teams prioritized defense throughout the contest.

The victory was the first for the Blue Devils in three appearances in the championship game.

"I am extremely happy and joyful for our students and anybody who has ever worn a Duke jersey," said Duke head coach John Danowski. "This game was a great battle."

Sophomore CJ Costabile won the opening faceoff in overtime, raced down the middle of the field, dodged several Notre Dame defensemen and unleashed a high shot into the net to lift the No. 5 seed Blue Devils to the 6-5 overtime victory.

Duke held a narrow 33-31 edge in shots and won the ground ball game 26-22. The faceoff game was an even battle with the Fighting Irish winning eight to the Blue Devils' seven. Neither team scored on man-up opportunities.

Zach Brenneman scored three goals and Scott Rodgers finished with 15 saves for the Irish, but he couldn't stop the last shot that came his way. That ended a brilliant postseason run by Notre Dame, which defeated three seeded teams to advance to the title game for the first time.

The game was played cautiously by both sides, with defense and possession the priority. The teams set a championship-game record for fewest combined goals through three quarters (eight) and tied the mark for fewest at halftime (five).

Notre Dame went up 5-4 with 11:56 left in the fourth quarter by converting a rare fastbreak. David Earl picked up a loose ball and ran 30 yards before passing across the field to Sean Rogers, who pumped a shot past goaltender Dan Wigrizer.

Justin Turri scored for the Blue Devils with 8:44 left to tie the game for the last time.

Duke led 3-2 at halftime after scoring the lone goal of the second quarter.

The Blue Devils took 13 shots in the half, including nine on goal, but Rodgers had six saves and Duke committed five turnovers.

It took only 49 seconds after the start of the game for Notre Dame to go up 1-0 on a goal by Brenneman. Then, after Duke used goals by Zach Howell and Steve Schoeffel to take the lead, Brenneman scored again with 50 seconds left during a first quarter in which both teams worked the ball for several minutes at a time.

That only served as a precursor for a dreary second quarter in which the only goal came on a shot by Schoeffel with 1:24 left.

Early in the third quarter, Earl provided hope for a more offense-oriented game. With a Duke defender on his back, he scored with a low shot while being knocked from his feet. The goal ended Notre Dame's 17-minute scoring drought.

Howell put the Blue Devils back in front, and Brenneman's third goal tied it at 4 with 1:12 left in the quarter

Syracuse Cruises to 10th NCAA Title: FOXBOROUGH, Mass. (AP) -- Kenny Nims never realized how desperate things had become for Syracuse because he refused to consider the possibility that the defending NCAA lacrosse champions might actually lose.

"Never count us out," said Nims, who scored with 4.5 seconds left in regulation to send the game into overtime and help the Orange beat Cornell, 10-9, for their second straight title.

Cody Jamieson scored the game-winner 80 seconds into overtime to give Syracuse a victory over its central New York rival. Jamieson, a transfer who didn't become eligible until April, has scored eight of his nine goals this season during the NCAA tournament.

It was the ninth time the championship game has gone into overtime, and the first since Princeton beat Syracuse, 10-9, in 2001. Syracuse, which never led before the final score, is the first team to win consecutive men's lacrosse titles since Princeton in 1997-98.

John Glynn scored three goals with two assists -- all in the first half -- to help Cornell open a three-goal lead before Syracuse began to cut into the deficit. Stephen Keogh scored with 3:37 left, then Jamieson cut it to 9-8 less than a minute later.

In the final seconds of regulation, Keogh scrambled for a loose ball and flipped it over his head to Matt Abbott, who brought it into the attacking zone and found Nims all alone in front.

For Cornell midfielder Max Seibald, it was a reminder of the 2007 NCAA semifinal game in which the Big Red lost to Duke with 3 seconds left.

Jamieson's goal with 2:40 left in the 4-minute, sudden death overtime spawned an orange wave of celebration that left a wake of discarded helmets down the center of the field.

Jake Myers had 10 saves for Cornell, and John Galloway stopped 10 shots for Syracuse, which vacated its 1990 title and officially has 10 titles -- still one more than Johns Hopkins.

All-Tournament Team: Syracuse: Matt Abbott, Cody Jamieson, Kenny Nims (MOP), Patrick Perritt, Joel White; Cornell: Max Seibald, Rob Pannell, Matt Moyer, John Glynn, Ryan Hurley.

Syracuse Earns Ninth NCAA Title: FOXBOROUGH, Mass. (AP) -- Syracuse won its ninth NCAA men's lacrosse championship, beating defending champion Johns Hopkins, 13-10, behind three goals from Dan Hardy.

The crowd of 48,970 was the largest to see an NCAA championship outdoors in any sport -- the BCS football championship game isn't an NCAA event.

John Galloway stopped seven shots for the Orange, who won their first title since 2004 and improved to 3-2 against Johns Hopkins in NCAA title games. Mike Leveille, who had five goals in the semifinal win over Virginia, was the tournament's most outstanding player.

Paul Rabil scored a career-high six goals for Johns Hopkins, one off the title-game record. Blue Jays goalie Michael Gvozden stopped 20 shots.

Syracuse and Johns Hopkins are the two most successful teams in college lacrosse history -- by wins and championships. Johns Hopkins also was going for its 10th title since lacrosse became an NCAA sport in 1971; Syracuse's 10 championships include the one it won in 1990 that was later vacated for using an ineligible player.

The crowd was mostly for Syracuse, with sections of orange filling the red and blue lower bowl that was built for the New England Patriots.

The Orange fans saw their team take a 9-7 lead that was trimmed to one goal when Stephen Peyser drew a double-team before flipping the ball back to Rabil, who scored with just more than four minutes left in the third quarter.

But Hardy completed his hat trick on the ensuing possession, and Syracuse added two goals 10 seconds apart to make it 13-8 before Johns Hopkins managed to cut the lead.

All-Tournament Team: Syracuse: Mike Leveille (MOP), Dan Hardy, Danny Brennan, Sid Smith; Johns Hopkins: Paul Rabil, Kevin Huntley, Michael Evans, Michael Gvozden; Duke: Zack Greer; Virginia: Danny Glading.

Johns Hopkins Earns Ninth NCAA Title: Johns Hopkins senior goalkeeper Jesse Schwartzman turned away Duke midfielder Brad Ross' shot with 10 seconds remaining with a well-placed kick and preserved the Blue Jays' 12-11 lead in the NCAA Division I final at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore.

The save earned Schwartzman the game's Most Outstanding Player award, though senior attackman Jake Byrne and junior midfielder Paul Rabil were excellent for Johns Hopkins, as well, with four goals and five assists, respectively, to power a Johns Hopkins offense that scored 10 first-half goals in building up a six-goal halftime lead. Schwartzman, who was also the Most Outstanding Player of the 2005 championship game and is 10-1 career in the postseason, was able to slow a Duke attack that featured two first-team All-Americans all day, finishing with 15 saves and holding junior Zack Greer and senior Matt Danowski to one combined goal.

The Blue Jays never trailed in the game; however, they had to withstand a furious second-half charge from the Blue Devils, who took 27 shots after the intermission.

Freshman attackman Max Quinzani started the Duke run when he picked up a Greer rebound five minutes into the third period, and Ned Crotty took a Danowski assist at the top of the restraining box to convert a man-up opportunity and cut the lead to 10-6.

Ross had his second of the game 1:30 later, and sophomore midfielder Mike Catalino scored his seventh goal of the season with 7:44 remaining. Peter Lamade cut the lead to 10-9 less than three minutes later, but Rabil's lone goal one minute into the fourth period came after a nice swim move and ended the Blue Devil run.

Danowski converted a broken play 1:30 later to cut the lead back to one and Quinzani deflected in a Nick O'Hara pass with 4:37 remaining to tie the score 11-11. Junior attackman Kevin Huntley scored the game-winning goal with 3:25 remaining after Rabil corralled a Duke failed clear.

Johns Hopkins strengthened its bid for a second championship in three seasons and ninth overall by playing a nearly flawless first half, including winning 12-16 faceoffs and scoring on all three extra-man opportunities.

The Blue Jays jumped out to an early lead when Byrne took a pass from Rabil off of the opening faceoff and beat Duke goalie Dan Loftus just 12 seconds into the game. Huntley doubled Johns Hopkins' lead seven minutes later when Rabil, in one of his most athletic moves of the day, ran through a double-team and delivered the pass, picking up his second assist.

Duke got on the board with 4:15 remaining in the quarter when Ross beat Schwartzman with a hard overhand shot from 11 yards out. Crotty evened up the score with an extra-man goal two minutes later, but senior midfielder Stephen Peyser answered with :39 remaining and Huntley scored 19 seconds later to close the first quarter with a 4-2 Johns Hopkins lead.

Just 33 seconds into the second quarter, Peyser struck again when he swept to his right across to the top of the box and put a nice shot low and away past Loftus, tipping off a 6-2 Johns Hopkins second-quarter run.

Johns Hopkins was able to overcome the vaunted Duke ride through much of the game finishing 12-16 on clears.

The Blue Jays finished with a distinct faceoff advantage, winning 17-26 draws including 8-12 from senior Jamison Koesterer, but turned the ball over 17 times to Duke's 10. The Blue Devils got 10 saves from Loftus and held Johns Hopkins freshman midfielder Michael Kimmel scoreless. Peyser picked nine groundballs in the win.

All-Tournament Team: Johns Hopkins: Jesse Schwartzman (MOP), Jake Byrne, Stephen Peyser, Paul Rabil, Eric Zerrlaut; Duke: Ned Crotty, Matt Danowski, Zack Greer, Nick O'Hara; Cornell: David Mitchell.

Virginia wins title over Massachusetts: Virginia used an 8-2 second half run to break open a tight contest and win the men's lacrosse national title, 15-7, over Massachusetts before an NCAA championship record crowd of 47,062 at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia.

The championship is Virginia's fourth NCAA championship and the sixth national title in program history. The Cavaliers become the first team in NCAA history to finish with a 17-0 record and the 13th team in NCAA history to win the national championship with an undefeated record.

Matt Ward and Matt Poskay, playing their final game in the orange and blue, scored five goals each to lead the way for the nation's No. 1 offense.

Drew Thompson won eight of 12 faceoffs to help Virginia win the advantage in the faceoff circle with 16 wins in 26 attempts. The successful faceoff play for the Cavaliers enabled them to dominate the time of possession.

Defenseman Michael Culver held Massachusetts' leading scorer Sean Morris to two assists as his 34-game goal-scoring streak ended.

Massachusetts midfielder Brett Garber scored early in the second half to forge a 5-all tie, the first time Virginia had been tied in 11 games.

Ward and Kyle Dixon scored goals shortly after as Virginia regained the lead 7-5. Jamie Yaman scored at the 7:59 mark to trim the margin to 7-6, but the Cavaliers ended the third quarter with four goals in a four-minute and 12-second span. Poskay scored twice and Dixon and Ward scored once during the run.

Poskay and Ward scored to open the fourth quarter as the Cavaliers pushed the lead to 13-6. Massachusetts scored its final goal with 9:25 to play, while Virginia sophomore Ben Rubeor tallied the final two goals of the game.

Ward was named the tournament's Most Outstanding Player. He scored 16 goals in the tournament to set the record for most goals. Syracuse's Gary Gait held the record with 15 goals in the 1990 tournament.

All-Tournament Team: Virginia: Matt Ward (MOP), Michael Culver, Kyle Dixon, Danny Glading, Matt Poskay; Massachusetts: Jake Deane, Sean Morris, Jack Reid, Doc Schneider; Syracuse: Brett Bucktooth

Blue Jays Win First Championship Since 1987: Johns Hopkins completed a perfect season May 30 to win the Division I Men's Lacrosse Championship at Philadelphia's Lincoln Financial Field.

The Blue Jays came from behind to beat Duke, 9-8, and become the 12th team in NCAA men's lacrosse championship history to finish the season undefeated.

The game was played before a Division I men's lacrosse championship-game record crowd of 44,920. The previous record was 43,898, set at the 2004 championship game in Baltimore between Syracuse and Navy.

Duke led by as many as two goals on several occasions, but the experienced Johns Hopkins team, which has appeared in the postseason tournament every year since 1972, scored the last three goals of the game to take the title.

On a Blue Jays team filled with seniors who still felt the sting of a 2004 semifinal loss to eventual champion Syracuse, it was the underclassmen who stepped up their play to engineer the win.

Freshmen Kevin Huntley and Paul Rabil joined junior Greg Peyser and senior Kyle Harrison with two goals apiece. The one goal sophomore Jake Byrne scored happened to be the game-clincher in the fourth quarter.

Underclassmen also dominated the Duke scoring. Sophomore Matt Danowski, who broke the Duke single-season points record with 92 (50 goals and 42 assists), was one of three Blue Devils to tally twice.

The largely back-and-forth game featured strong defense, with neither team scoring after Byrne connected with 13:35 remaining in the game. Blue Jays sophomore goalkeeper Jesse Schwartzman had seven of his 12 saves in the final 30 minutes. He credited defensemen Chris Watson, Tom Garvey and Matt Pinto with keeping the ball away from the net.

Syracuse tops sentimental favorite Navy in lacrosse final: From his eye-black Halloween game-face paint job to his flair for drama, Syracuse's Michael Powell forged a Hollywood-type lacrosse career from the start. He culminated it the same way at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore on Memorial Day.

In front of a championship-game record paid-attendance crowd of 43,898, the 10th largest such number for an NCAA championship in any sport, and with the now 15-2 Orange holding a 13-12 lead over Navy, Powell found the net off a fast-break pass from best friend and fellow all-tournament team member Brian Nee with one minute left.

Although the goal proved to be the game-winner, Navy, which ended the season 15-3, wasn't finished in this game in which the score was tied eight different times. Powell, who is among the top three scorers in Syracuse history along with his brothers Casey and Ryan, ended his career with a second championship.

The paid attendance of 46,923 at the semifinals set a record for an NCAA outdoor championship event, demolishing the record of 37,944 set in last year's championship game. The championship moves to another NFL stadium, Philadelphia's Lincoln Financial Field, for the next two years.

Virginia's Moment Comes in Front of Record Crowd: The Cavaliers held off Johns Hopkins, 9-7, after opening with a 5-0 lead, May 26 at Baltimore's muddy M&T Bank Stadium in front of a record crowd of 37,944 for their third national championship. The crowd was the largest to witness any championship game in NCAA history other than the Division I men's basketball championship game and the 17th largest in NCAA championship-game history overall.

Virginia goalie Tillman Johnson claimed Most Outstanding Player honors with a series of highlight saves in both the semifinals and final, including three in 10 seconds early in the fourth quarter of the championship game with the hometown Blue Jays threatening to steal the momentum.

The championship game was the first that didn't include either Syracuse or Princeton since 1991 and was the last game of any sport to be played on the NFL Baltimore Ravens' home stadium's natural surface, which is being replaced with artificial turf.

Same Teams, Different Result: Syracuse beat Princeton, 13-12, at its own game in a rematch of the previous year's championship, defeating the Tigers for its record-tying seventh official championship and second in three years. For the defending champions, the loss snapped a 12-game tournament win streak in games decided by one goal. The Tigers' only previous tournament loss in such a game was in 1991, when Princeton had yet to win the first of its six national titles.

Syracuse's Michael Powell, who was named Most Outstanding Player and later would be named national player of the year, scored the game-winner with 11:35 left in the game, despite some near misses by the Tigers in the closing moments.

Syracuse won three straight one-goal games in the tournament, as did Princeton the year before. The win gave coach John Desko his second championship in four years as head coach after a long stint as an assistant for the Orange.

All-Tournament Team: Syracuse: Michael Powell (MOP), Solomon Bliss, John Glatzel, Tom Hardy, Jay Pfeifer; Princeton: Damien Davis, Brad Dumont, B.J. Prager; Johns Hopkins: Adam Doneger; Virginia: John Christmas.

Hanging On, Finally: After building a 9-3 lead in two-and-a-half quarters on Memorial Day at Maryland's Byrd Stadium, the walls were threatening to come tumbling down again on Virginia, which had lost its last three championship-game appearances in overtime. Syracuse, the only number-eight seed to have advanced as far as the semifinals, had suddenly solved the defensive puzzle and scored five unanswered goals to climb back to 10-9 with 6:30 left after Tim Byrnes' second goal, but never got over the hump. The result was a 12-10 Cavaliers win, their second championship and first since 1972.

Simply the Best: For the second consecutive year, Princeton staged a performance against Maryland that conjured up the term "dynasty." The Tigers beat the Terps, 15-5, on May 25 at Rutgers. The championship was the Tigers' third straight and fifth in the last seven years. The combined winning margin in the consecutive-year victories of 22 goals is the largest in the 28-year history of the event. Next best is the 1989-90 Syracuse repeat, when the Orangemen won their two championship games by a combined 13 goals, beating Johns Hopkins, then Loyola Maryland.

All-Tournament Team: Princeton: Corey Popham (MOP), Christian Cook, Jon Hess, Jesse Hubbard Josh Sims. Maryland: Mike Bonanni, Brian Haggerty, Scott Hochstadt. Syracuse: Casey Powell, Ryan Powell.

No Doubts: Princeton, which had won two previous championships in overtime, left no question as to the dominant team, trouncing host Maryland, 19-7, on May 26, to finish the season with a 15-0 mark. The last undefeated champion was North Carolina in 1991. The Tigers broke open a game that was scoreless with 7:30 left in the first quarter with eight unanswered goals. The victory extended the Tigers' two-year winning streak to 28 games, the third longest in the sport's Division I history. Unseeded Maryland finished 11-5.

Tigers' Third in OT: Princeton defeated Virginia, 13-12, in overtime to win its third championship in five years. Jesse Hubbard scored the game-winner 94 seconds into the sudden-death period. Each of the Tigers' championships has come in overtime. Princeton, which finished the year 14-1, losing only to Virginia in the regular season, jumped to an early 3-0 lead, but the Cavaliers quickly battled back to trail, 4-3, at the end of the first quarter. After that, no more than a goal separated the two teams until Princeton went on a three-goal run to open a 12-9 lead with 11:18 left in the fourth quarter.

All-Tournament Team: Virginia: Michael Watson (MOP), David Curry, Tommy Smith, Tim Whiteley; Princeton: Pancho Gutstein, Jesse Hubbard, Chris Massey, Don McDonough, Becket Wolf; Syracuse: Casey Powell.

 # After the 1990 championship, the NCAA Committee on Infractions determined that Paul Gait had played in the 1990 championship while ineligible. Under NCAA rules, Syracuse and Paul Gait's records for that championship were vacated. The NCAA does not recognize Syracuse, coach Roy Simmons Jr.'s 3-0 record, and Paul Gait's 7 goals, 7 assists and his participation in that championship.

1989

Second Straight: Syracuse defended its Division I Men's Lacrosse Championship with a 13-12 victory over Johns Hopkins at College Park, Maryland. Paul Gait scored four goals for the Orangemen. A record crowd of 23,893 watched the final game.

1981

North Carolina scored five goals in the fourth quarter to defeat Johns Hopkins, 14-13, in the 1981 Division I Men's Lacrosse Championship in Princeton, New Jersey. The Tar Heels' come-from-behind victory snapped a three-year winning streak by Johns Hopkins, which has finished first or second in eight of the 11 championships. The title was North Carolina's first in lacrosse.

1973

Maryland overcame the stall tactics of Johns Hopkins in the championship contest, scoring a goal in the second overtime, to win 10-9. The Terps had encountered little resistance on their way to the title bout, as they downed Brown, 16-4, and Washington and Lee, 18-7. Johns Hopkins had disposed of Army, 11-5, and the defending champion, Virginia, 12-9.

The busiest man in the tournament did not even play in the title game. He was Skeet Chadwick, Washington and Lee's goalie. In two contests, he had 52 saves. Jack Thomas of Johns Hopkins had 11 tournament assists.

Virginia won its first national title by edging Johns Hopkins, 13-12, in the championship game of the National Collegiate Lacrosse Championship tournament at Maryland. The Cavaliers were the top seed in the first NCAA tournament the previous year, but lost in the first round. This time, paced by veterans Jay Connor, Tom Duquette, Pete Eldredge and Chip Barker, and freshman Richie Werner, Virginia wasn't to be denied. Eldredge got the winning goal unassisted with 4:11 left in the contest before 7,000 fans.

Maryland, the pre-tourney favorite and host team, fell in the semifinals to Johns Hopkins, 9-6, with 8,000 watching.

Connor, the tourney's leading scorer, set a meet record for assists. Maryland's John Kaestner broke the single-game assist mark. Virginia and Johns Hopkins combined to shatter all three of the meet records for shots on goal.

Cornell edged Army, 17-16, in the semifinals and then overpowered Maryland, 12-6, in the final to capture the title. Alan Rimmer, All-America attacker, banged home six Cornell goals in the final game. Goalie Bob Buhmann was credited with 22 saves as the Big Red shut off the potent Maryland attack.

In the semifinal, Cornell grabbed a 7-4 lead after one period. Army, led by Tom Cafaro, battled back and by the third period it became a question of who would get the last goal. The lead changed hands twice, and the score was tied four times in the final period, before Bob Shaw scored at 12:33, giving Cornell the victory.

 # After the 1990 championship, the NCAA Committee on Infractions determined that Paul Gait had played in the 1990 championship while ineligible. Under NCAA rules, Syracuse and Paul Gait's records for that championship were vacated. The NCAA does not recognize Syracuse, coach Roy Simmons Jr.'s 3-0 record, and Paul Gait's 7 goals, 7 assists and his participation in that championship.

Division II Championship Highlights

Le Moyne takes charge in third quarter, holds off Mercyhurst rally to win title: When it comes to nail-biters, the 2013 Men's Lacrosse Championships are bordering on the ridiculous.

Saturday's Division I semifinals saw a pair of down-to-the wire affairs. Division II followed suit Sunday.

Mercyhurst, trying to finish a perfect season and become just the sixth team since 1974 to run the table in DII, made a dramatic late charge after trailing 11-5 early in the final quarter. Down one in the closing minutes, the Lakers, who entered the game 18-0 and coming off back-to-back overtime victories, created numerous chances to tie it but could not put one by Le Moyne goalie Jeff White -- and the frame of the net.

Le Moyne, located in Syracuse, N.Y, and barely five minutes from Syracuse University, held on to win 11-10 and claim its first NCAA title since 2007. Head coach Dan Sheehan also led the program to titles in 2004 and '06. The Dolphins lost in the NCAA final in 2009 and '10.

"Everybody in our locker room is proud of the fact that we could have a game that was absolutely fantastic for everybody in attendance," said Sheehan, whose squad finished 18-2. "It was very similar to the type of games played on Saturday."

Andrew Chadderdon's slick underhand scoop from just in front of Mercyhurst goalie Michael Grace pushed Le Moyne's margin to 11-5 early in the final period.

Mercyhurst then mounted a charge.

Brady Heseltine's screamer made it 11-6 at the 11:21 mark. Brian Scheetz from eight feet away and it was 11-7. Heselstine again, and it was 11-8 with 7:52 remaining. Ian Brooks from the right wing and the margin was two at the 6:35 mark. Jake McAndrew's solo drive to the net cut it to one with 2:49 left.

During a chaotic final two minutes, Mercyhurst hit the post twice and missed a pair of in-close chances. White came up big a number of times. He finished with 13 saves overall and withstood the 17-shot final quarter onslaught.

Mercyhurst, now 0-7 all time against Le Moyne, beat Limestone, 18-17 in overtime in the semifinals. In the quarterfinals, it was a 10-9 overtime victory against Lake Erie.

Mercyhurst struggled to find any offense for most of the first half. After James Chayka's cross-field run and goal put the Lakers up 2-1, a 20-minute scoreless stretch followed that saw Le Moyne build a 5-2 advantage deep into the second quarter. But, three tallies in 1:33, including back-to-back goals in five seconds by McAndrew and Mitch McAvoy, along with Chayka's second of the day, suddenly had it tied at 5 entering intermission.

Le Moyne outscored the Lakers 5-0 in the third quarter and led 10-5 with 15 minutes remaining.

Dowling wins first national title; Golden Lions hold off late charge by Limestone to win title: Vito DeMola's four goals with two assists led the Golden Lions to their first Division II national championship. The No. 4-seeded Dowling (13-2) finished with an 11-10 win against the No. 3-seeded Limestone Saints (17-2).

The Golden Lions built a 4-0 lead in the first half, shutting the Saints out of the first quarter for just the second time this season. DeMola opened the scoring with an unassisted goal in the third minute of play. Brendan Hayes found Michael Brennan who buried it in the net with just over four minutes left in the quarter.

Back to back scores from Tom Cleary and John Amato, both assisted by Hayes, gave Dowling a 4-0 lead. The Saints rallied back for three unanswered goals to close out the half behind the Golden Lions by just one (4-3).

The Saints caught up to the Golden Lions at the 12:49 mark in the third quarter with a goal from Anthony Starnino. Senior Matthew Muzio put Dowling back on top with his 11th goal of the season. Limestone got two goals in just over a minute for a 6-5 advantage. With 3:29 remaining in the third quarter DeMola found Kevin McElhone to tie the score at 6. The Saints anwered back at the 2:03 mark to take a 7-6 lead into the fourth and final quarter.

Dowling didn't trail long, three minutes into the fouth quarter DeMola netted his second goal of the day and Billy Richardson came around from the back of the cage and faked a pass to the wing shooter and found the back of the net to give the Golden Lions a lead that they would hold onto for the remainder of the game. Three consecutive Dowling scores extended the lead to three (11-8). The Saints turned in back to back goals to reach within one with under two minutes remaining.

In the final 30 seconds the Saints fired off three shots on goal with two just wide, and Ryan Dougherty came up big with his final of six saves. Matthew Lauria scooped up the ball as the final seconds ticked down on Dowling's first NCAA Division II Men's Lacrosse National Championship.

Eight Golden Lions contributed goals, with Hayes dishing out three assists.

Dowling's defense turned in a outstanding performance anchored by Lauria with three caused turnovers and six ground balls.

At the line, Louis Riley won 14 of 25 faceoffs.

Mercyhurst wins first Division II crown; Wild scores four goals to put the Lakers over the top: Mercyhurst captured its first Division II lacrosse title May 29 in Baltimore, beating Adelphi 9-8 on four goals from junior midfielder Ian Wild, the game's Most Outstanding Player.

Junior attackman Kyle Kallay added two goals and sophomore attackman Brian Scheetz had a goal and three assists in helping lift Mercyhurst (14-2) to the first national title in the program's 15-year history. The Lakers lost to Le Moyne in the 2007 final on a last-second shot.

Junior attackman Joe Vitale had three goals and two assists for Adelphi (16-3), which was in the finals for the first time since winning its seventh national championship in 2001.

Junior midfielder Kieran Riegel and junior attackman Danny Blau added two goals apiece for the Panthers, who lost despite holding a 16-5 faceoff advantage.

Kallay and Trevor Rice scored extra-man goals during a 4-0 run that gave Mercyhurst a 7-4 lead at the 10:08 mark of the third quarter. Adelphi outscored Mercyhurst 4-2 the rest of the way and got within one on a no-look flip shot by Blau with 6:29 remaining in the fourth period.

Head coach Chris Ryan's team stalled away more than two minutes before Adelphi regained possession to get one last opportunity to tie. However, Riegel's 5-yard shot with 2 seconds left was saved by Mercyhurst goalie Zach Nash.

Eric Janssen made 13 saves for Adelphi, which committed 15 turnovers and was just 9-for-14 clearing the ball.

Nine-goal second half spurs LIU Post to 14-9 national title win over Le Moyne: The LIU Post men's lacrosse team repeated as NCAA Division II champions by coming back from an 8-5 deficit in the first half with nine second-half goals to defeat Le Moyne, 14-9, May 30 in Baltimore.

"It was a very exciting game," said head coach John Jez. "We go into halftime down by three goals. Then our offense came together and started to play as a unit and we were able to get more points on the board."

Sophomore Eddie Plompen led the Pioneers (16-1) with four goals and was named the game's Most Outstanding Player.

The Pioneers opened the game with a 3-0 lead with goals from Keith Rodriguez, Joe Meo and Plompen.

Le Moyne (15-2) got on the board when Jack Harmatuk scored unassisted out front with 6:37 to play in the first quarter.

The Pioneers got the goal back when Rodriguez scored on a spin-around shot in front of the goal at 5:11. Le Moyne's offense began to heat up with two unanswered goals from Mike Rabbitt and Taylor Brooks, the latter coming with 34 seconds to play in the first quarter.

LIU Post scored the final goal of the first quarter when senior midfielder Mike Cama grabbed the ground ball on the following faceoff and rushed in to score with 30 seconds remaining.

The comfort level that LIU Post was feeling with a two-goal lead would not last long as Le Moyne took control of the tempo in the game and outscored the visitors, 5-0, in the second quarter to head for the locker room with an 8-5 lead. Harmatuk led the way with a pair of goals for the Dolphins.

The Dolphins outshot the Pioneers, 17-14, in the half. LIU Post was charged with eight turnovers compared with Le Moyne's four.

In the third quarter, LIU Post's offense re-emerged and scored four unmatched goals, including two from Meo, as well as one each from Justin Patterson and junior attacker Nick Coric to reclaim the lead, 9-8, heading into the fourth.

The fourth quarter was highlighted by Plompen, who registered a hat-trick, including the game's final goal with 3:10 on the clock on a pass from Coric. Junior midfielder Mike Messina added a goal and Rodriguez scored his third goal of the game.

Both teams were even in shots with 32 apiece. But, the Pioneers held a 36-17 advantage in ground balls. In addition, LIU Post was 13-for-14 on clears compared with Le Moyne's 8-for-12.

Plompen closed out the game with four goals and an assist to lead all players with five points. Rodriguez and Meo each added three goals. Bryan Leonard led the defense with two caused turnovers and picked up three ground balls.

Cama was 15-for-26 on faceoffs in the game.

Goalkeeper Mike Giordano made five saves in goal to improve his record to 7-0 on the season.

Harmatuk led Le Moyne with three goals with an assist and junior attacker Vinnie Alexander added two.

LIU Post crowned NCAA champ: LIU Post refused to let rain and lightning dampen its determination as it edged previously undefeated Le Moyne, 8-7, to capture the NCAA Division II Men's Lacrosse Championship on May 24 at Gillette Stadium in Foxborough, Mass.

The Pioneers, in their 50th season, concluded the 2009 campaign with a 15-1 overall record – a program best. Le Moyne ends its season at 16-1.

"It's been a great year for us at LIU Post," said head coach John Jez. "We had one hiccup earlier in the year, and today, we overcame that hiccup. The seniors have worked so hard the whole year. Greg Cerar and Dan Sciulla led us the whole way. We're just really happy. Our university is really happy, and we're just proud of all our guys."

The title is the second for LIU Post. The first came in 1996 with a 15-10 win over crosstown rival Adelphi.

Senior attacker Cerar led the offense with four goals, including three in the third quarter, and was named the game's Most Outstanding Player.

Senior goaltender Sciulla made 13 stops, including seven saves in the fourth quarter to protect the Pioneers' lead.

NYIT denies Le Moyne third straight crown: Le Moyne came up just short in its quest for a third straight Division II championship and fell to New York Institute of Technology, 16-11, in front of 24,317 May 30 at Gillette Stadium in Foxborough, Mass. The Dolphins (15-2) were led by Nick Gatto's three-goal performance. The Bears captured the program's fourth Division II crown and wrapped up the season at 13-1. Keith Henderson, the game's Most Outstanding Player, netted five goals for NYIT.

The Dolphins raced out to a 5-2 lead after one quarter of play and held a 14-6 advantage in the shots category in the first 15 minutes. Five different Dolphins connected on first-quarter scores. Brian Welch sent in the game's first goal at the 9:08 mark and Gatto, Jack Venditti and Alex Bily followed with a trio of goals to push Le Moyne's lead to 4-1. After Henderson scored NYIT's first goal of the game, Brian Cost tallied with 31 seconds remaining to give the Dolphins their largest lead of the game.

NYIT scored a man-up goal, its first of three on the afternoon, and cut Le Moyne's lead to two when Austin Carino scored 13 seconds into the second quarter. Henderson followed with his second goal, but Gatto contributed a man-up goal of his own to push Le Moyne's lead back to two. After the Bears countered with a Matt Sullivan score, Le Moyne's Mike McDonald netted his first of two goals to put the Dolphins back ahead by two. But NYIT countered with a four-goal attack in nine minutes, including two scores in the half's final 15 seconds.

Henderson tallied his fourth goal of the game just over 30 seconds into the second half but Le Moyne responded with a pair of scores from Tom Donahue and Bily to trim the Bears' lead to one at 10-9. The seesaw affair continued throughout the third quarter. After an NYIT goal, McDonald scored his second goal of the game to trim NYIT's lead to 11-10 at the 3:46 mark of the third quarter. But with 49 seconds left in the third quarter, Henderson answered with his fifth goal of the afternoon and his 62nd of the 2008 campaign.

Gatto scored Le Moyne's final goal of the game at the 14:04 mark of the fourth quarter to bring the Dolphins within one at 12-11. But the Bears ended the game with four straight tallies, including a pair from the stick of Ryan Amengual.

A Dolphin defense, which had allowed a nation-best 3.27 goals per game coming into the game, allowed 16 goals for the first time since it allowed 20 scores against RIT in 1999. The team's man-down unit entered the game with a .889 success rate but surrendered three goals to the Bears' potent man-up attack. Goalkeeper Doug McIver finished with seven saves against NYIT's high-powered offense.

Le Moyne takes down Mercyhurst for Division II Title: Le Moyne junior attackman Mike McDonald scored the tie-breaking goal with seven seconds remaining to give the Dolphins a 6-5 win over Mercyhurst on May 27 in the Division II final at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore.

After Mercyhurst called timeout following a missed shot, McDonald isolated behind the left side of the Laker goal, got a step on his defender and put a shot past goalie Jason Lashomb, breaking open a game that never saw either team lead by more than two goals. Le Moyne won its third NCAA championship in four years.

The shot also won McDonald the game's Most Outstanding Player award for the second consecutive season.

The 6-5 final, the lowest goal total for a final in NCAA lacrosse history, came from a desire to control possession and tempo from both sides. Le Moyne finished with 26 shots, while Mercyhurst managed 22.

The Dolphins (15-2) came out of the gate blazing as junior midfielder Alex Bily scored just 36 seconds into the contest. McDonald scored with 9:25 remaining in the first quarter, giving Le Moyne a 2-0 lead.

Mercyhurst (13-2) got on the board two minutes later when senior attackman Bryon Lindner, the Lakers' leading goal-scorer, drove from behind the cage, rolled, and dove across the top of the crease. Senior attackman Scott Janssen leveled the scoring with 40 seconds remaining in the first quarter when he turned one of Mike Bartlett's two assists into a goal.

Le Moyne keeper Jared Corcoran, who came into the game stopping 60 percent of the shots he saw and was named a first team All-American at halftime, kept the Lakers at bay in the first period, making four of his eight saves.

After a second period that saw each team notch one goal, Janssen gave the Lakers a spark just over a minute into the second half when he took an assist from senior midfielder Adam Mulherin and put a behind-the-back shot over his right shoulder, past Corcoran.

The Dolphins' Matt Cassalia answered with a nice split dodge from the top of the restraining box, bulled his way through two defenders, and tied the score, 4-4.

Mercyhurst's David Osier and Le Moyne's Brian Cost then traded goals to set up a 13-minute struggle to snap the tie, which McDonald did with his dramatic goal.

Statistically, the game was as close as the score, with Le Moyne winning 7 of 13 faceoffs and each team picking up 27 groundballs. Neither team capitalized on its extra-man opportunities, going a combined 0-7.

Le Moyne defense trumps Dowling offense for title: Le Moyne bested Dowling 12-5 to take its second NCAA Division II Men's Lacrosse Championship in three years May 28 in Philadelphia. The Dolphins also won the title in 2004.

The championship game matched Le Moyne's top-ranked defense against Division II's most prolific offense. Dowling averaged 15.6 goals per game coming into the championship, but the Golden Lions were held to their lowest goal total all season in the championship game.

Though Le Moyne didn't waver in its season-long mission to protect the goal, the Dolphins also chose the championship game to release a flurry of offense, led by Mike McDonald, who scored four times.

Le Moyne coach Dan Sheehan noted the team's ability to perform well in any situation.

"This is the most determined group of 18- to 22-year-olds I've ever been around," he said. "We were fortunate this year to have a group that does it on both ends of the field. We were able to send our senior class off the field with two national championships and only two losses in their career."

Le Moyne's victory was not assured early on – Dowling jumped out to an early 2-1 lead before five minutes had elapsed. Golden Lions' goaltender Nick Tracey played tough, saving 11 shots from reaching the net. Once the Dolphins calmed their nerves before the crowd of 23,990 at Lincoln Financial Field, they jumped back into the game, tying the score at two and then taking the lead for good on a goal from McDonald late in the first quarter. McDonald, named the tournament's Most Outstanding Player, scored again to lead off the second quarter. The Dolphins allowed Dowling just one more goal in the first half and posted a 5-3 lead at the break.

The Dolphins extended their cushion to 9-5 late in the third quarter, boosted by a pair of goals from sophomore Brian Cost. Le Moyne held the Golden Lions to only two second-half goals and none in the last 30 minutes

Le Moyne finished the year 18-0, which adds to a 62-2 record during the previous four seasons. The Dolphins' 2004 championship team also was unbeaten. Dowling's final record is 12-2, with its only regular-season loss coming against conference foe LIU Post. The Lions were making their first appearance in the championship game.

Bears bask in overtime glow: Before last year, the Division II Men's Lacrosse Championship hadn't experienced an overtime final since 1974. But now extra periods seem to be a trend, since for the second straight year, the champion wasn't decided until after regulation play. This year's thriller also produced another similarity to last year's in that Limestone was on the losing end, this time by a 14-13 count to New York Institute of Technology.

The game was played May 29 at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia. It is the second title for NYIT in three years.

Limestone came out strong, scoring the first two goals of the game. Throughout the contest, the score remained close, and neither team scored more than two consecutive goals. The Saints led at halftime, 7-6.

But Bears senior midfielders Joe Gabrysiak and Tom Zummo were difference-makers after the break. Zummo led the team with five goals, and Gabrysiak scored four, including the game-winner in overtime. Gabrysiak was named the game's Most Outstanding Player.

Limestone, which had six different players score in the game, provided a spread-out offense that challenged the Bears. Senior midfielder Patrick Cardiff scored the last two goals of regulation to send the game into overtime for the third time in Division II championship history. Despite Cardiff's efforts, the Saints fell in overtime off an aggressive play from Gabrysiak.

Le Moyne's Spillett puts finishing touches on Dolphins' win: Yogi Berra needn't impart words of wisdom to Division II men's lacrosse champion Le Moyne. The Dolphins' Brandon Spillett knows "it's never over till it's over," especially when he's on the field. The Most Outstanding Player of the game ended the second overtime contest in Division II championship history May 30 at Baltimore's M&T Bank Stadium with his seventh goal of the day. Spillett took a feed from Craig Rosecrans 44 seconds into the second sudden-victory period and gave the Dolphins an 11-10 win in front of a Division II-record turnstile crowd of 19,202. With the win, Le Moyne finished 16-0, making the Dolphins the second undefeated champion in the 20-year history of the tournament. The other perfect champion was Hobart in 1977. The previous attendance record was 15,417, set last year at the same venue.

Spillett, whose title-game goal output was second in tournament history behind the record of eight set by Harold Draffen of Hobart back in the 1974 final and John Hildebrand of Ohio Wesleyan in a 1976 first-round game, wanted to make sure that his teammates' efforts didn't get lost in his personal laurels.

Third-year coach T.W. Johnson of Limestone, which has played in the last five championship games and won two, knew his team had played in a game for the ages after a season for the ages. The Saints finished the season 15-2, losing previously only to Division I tournament quarterfinalist North Carolina.

NYIT rides goalie to title: New York Institute of Technology avenged the previous year's championship-game loss to Limestone with a 9-4 win over the Saints May 25 at Baltimore's M&T Bank Stadium.

The game was played in front of a record turnstile crowd of 15,417, obliterating the old mark of 2,180 set in 2001 at Rutgers' Yurcak Field. NYIT's championship was its second in four title-game appearances. The Bears also won in 1997.

The Bears' Matt Hunter earned Most Outstanding Player honors with 12 saves, including five in the first half, helping hold the defending champs to one goal at intermission, the stingiest performance in a half in title-game history. The game as a whole also ended up being the lowest-scoring contest in championship game history, beating the previous mark of 11-7 set in 1993 when Adelphi beat LIU Post.

The game marked the first time the division's title game was played on the same field as the Divisions I and III games. The Division II title game had been played in a smaller stadium adjacent to the main stadium on the same campus as the other two games since 1998.

No fluke: Limestone, a virtual unknown four years ago in the lacrosse world, won its second championship in three years, knocking off previously unbeaten New York Institute of Technology, 11-9, on May 26 at Rutgers' Yurcak Field. The Saints led 11-7 with 4:37 left before the Bears staged a futile late rally.

The Saints, playing under T.W. Johnson, their third coach in as many years, were paced by Devan Spilker, who earned Most Outstanding Player honors after finishing with three goals and one assist.

Division III Championship Highlights

Stevenson's fourth-quarter run answers RIT, gives Mustangs first championship: If you blinked during the first 49 minutes of the Division III Men's Lacrosse Championship final, you probably missed a half-dozen goals.

t the end of the offensive frenzy, it was Stevenson which beat RIT 16-14 on in front of 22,511 at Lincoln Financial Field.

Both programs were making their first appearances in the NCAA championship game.

"The character is unbelievable," Stevenson head coach Paul Cantabene said. "These guys show up every day, come out to practice to get this job done and just a crazy, crazy game. It's unbelievable and it's a testament to them and their character of what they were able to do [Sunday], and I thank them.

"I thought we played to win the game, we didn't play to lose the game. At 13-10 when things weren't really looking good for us in the fourth quarter, I thought they really … in the huddle Pat Candon was coming to me, 'Coach, don't worry, we're going to get this.' Mike Crowe came up to me, 'Coach, don't worry, we're going to get this, it's in our hands, we can handle it.'"

Stevenson (22-2) opened the game with a 5-0 run. RIT responded with a solid second quarter and trailed 9-6 at intermission.

Then it just got weird in a penalty-filled, back-and-forth afternoon of lacrosse.

RIT dominated the third quarter, winning seven of nine faceoffs and outscoring Stevenson 7-1 to take a 13-10 advantage into the final stanza. Stevenson responded with five goals in the opening 3 1/2 minutes of the fourth quarter, the final one a sweet no-look from the left wing by Candon that gave the Mustangs a 15-13 lead.

It looked like the first one to 20 might be crowned DIII champion.

However, during the final 11 minutes the two teams combined for just two goals. Stevenson goalie Dmitri Pecunes finished with 15 saves in a game that saw the two squads combine for 85 shots, 17 penalties and a wild roller-coaster ride to boot.

Pannenton, who scored five goals in the game, was named DIII's Most Outstanding Player. He finished with 62 goals in 2013, 16 of them in five NCAA tournament games. Peter Green scored three goals with Nick Rossi scoring twice and assisting on two others.

RIT's Kyle Aquin tied a DIII championship game record with seven goals. He finished the season with 65 goals. Eddie Kiesa scored twice and had four assists.

Aquin's fourth goal of the game to start the second half cut the Stevenson lead to 9-7. Kiesa's unassisted finish made it 9-8. The game was tied at the 10:28 mark on a man-up goal by Aquin after some tic-tac-toe passing around the goal. RIT took the lead after a ground-ball pick-up and rush by Kiesa. RIT's ninth and 10th goals came during a pair of unsportsmanlike conduct penalties on the Mustangs.

Momentum shifted back to the Mustangs' favor moments later.

Pannenton's fourth of the game made it 10-10 with 5:57 left in the third. RIT responded immediately with a fast-break goal by Aquin, his sixth of the day. Aquin's seventh with 1:07 left in the third made it 13-10.

As if they were shot out a cannon, the Mustangs opened the final period with a flurry.

Michael Crowe's unassisted tally 1:02 into the fourth started the run. Pannenton scored off a pass from Tyler Reid 28 seconds later. Rossi's unassisted score tied it at 13. Glen Tompkins scored 29 seconds later and Candon's 22nd of the season concluded the run that finished with Stevenson on top, 15-13, with 11:31 remaining.

RIT's Alec Sulesky momentarily wrestled momentum back for the Tigers at the 10:13 mark, but RIT could not find a way to score again. Rossi's unassisted goal with 5:07 left fashioned the final score.

Stevenson beat 10-time DIII champion Salisbury in the semifinals. Three teams from the state of Maryland have now won DIII titles – Salisbury, Washington College and Stevenson.

Perfect ending to a perfect season: Salisbury capped off the program's seventh undefeated season and 10th national championship May 27 by defeating SUNY Cortland 14-10 in the Division III national championship game at Gillette Stadium.

The team finished the season with a 23-0 record and ends the year riding a 30-game winning streak. Twenty-three wins matches the program record for most in a season.

"We've had some pretty special teams at Salisbury," head coach Jim Berkman said. "I can honestly say that this team is right there with some of those other teams. When we talk about the best teams, this is definitely right there in the same breath."

Senior attackman Sam Bradman became the first Division III men's lacrosse player to win the Most Outstanding Player award in a national championship game in back-to-back years. Bradman led the Sea Gulls with seven points on six goals and one assist in the game.

"I've loved big competition, big games ever since high school," Bradman said. "Getting into the big games, my intensity goes up, and I just like to give it my all."

Bradman and senior attackmen Matt Cannone and Lantz Carter led Salisbury to victory, completing the championship repeat. Cannone led the team with three assists and netted two goals for five points. Carter chipped in with four points on three goals and one assist.

Bradman put Salisbury on the board first with an unassisted goal just 29 seconds into the game. Two SUNY Cortland goals gave the Red Dragons the lead before Carter netted his first score to tie the game, 2-2.

Bradman scored his second with 16 seconds left in the first and the Gulls went into the second quarter tied with SUNY Cortland, 3-3.

Goals by Bradman and Cannone to start the second quarter gave Salisbury a 5-3 lead. After SUNY Cortland scored two to tie the game, senior midfielder Jeff McGuire and Carter netted scores to regain the two-goal lead. Carter's goal came with two seconds left, and Salisbury took the 7-5 lead into halftime.

The Sea Gull offense came to life in the second quarter to outshoot the Red Dragons 14-7. In the first half, Salisbury outshot SUNY Cortland 19-16, won 8 of 13 faceoffs and was successful on 6 of 7 clears.

Salisbury started the second half slowly, as the Red Dragons netted two quick scores in the first five minutes of the third quarter. However, two more goals from Bradman and a man-up score from senior attackman Erik Krum gave the Gulls a 10-9 lead going into the fourth quarter.

Salisbury held the lead despite being outscored 4-3 in the third period.

The Sea Gulls rebounded in the fourth quarter to outscore SUNY Cortland 4-1, and solidify the win. Bradman, Cannone, Carter and junior midfielder Ryan Clarke all scored in the quarter.

"We had a great senior class, 18 kids who contributed a great deal over a four-year period," Berkman said. "I'm very fortunate to be able to coach those 18 seniors."

Throughout its time at Salisbury, the current senior class has amassed a record of 81-7, made it to four NCAA tournaments, advanced to three national championship games and won two national championships.

Salisbury claims ninth national title: Salisbury claimed the program's ninth national championship with a 19-7 victory against Tufts in the 2011 Division III Men's Lacrosse National Championship game in front of 18,086 in attendance May 29 at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore.

The 12-goal margin of victory is the most significant in any of the Sea Gulls' nine national championship wins. All nine national championships have come under the reign of 23-year head coach Jim Berkman. This year's game was a rematch of the 2010 national championship game, which the Jumbos won 9-6.

"I have been waiting three years for this moment," said midfielder Sam Bradman on winning the national championship game. Named the game's Most Outstanding Player, he posted a game-high eight points on seven goals and one assist. The seven goals scored is a single-game record for a Salisbury player (in the championship game), as Bradman surpassed former Sea Gull Sean Radebaugh's (1995) six markers. Bradman fell one point shy of matching Radebaugh's nine points set in the 1995 championship game against Nazareth.

"First of all, congratulations to Tufts. They have played an outstanding season and a two-year run," Berkman said. "We had three basic things that helped us to succeed (in the championship game): transition defense, covering the crease and dodging-and-feeding and I think our guys really executed those things."

The Jumbos (18-3) won the game's first faceoff and quickly entered the offensive restraining box. Tufts midfielder Matt Witko fired off a shot but it was blocked by Salisbury senior defender Collin Tokosch before goalkeeper Johnny Rodriguez scooped up the groundball to start the clear. The Sea Gulls (21-1) tallied their first goal of the game at the 13:18 mark as Bradman took a feed from sophomore midfielder Ryan Clarke and unleashed a shot into the top-left corner of the goal. The Sea Gulls followed up with a pair of goals coming from the crease, with attackmen Matt Cannone and Tony Mendes netting goals. The three early goals forced the Tufts coaching staff to call a timeout.

Following the timeout, the Jumbos tallied their first goal with Geordie Schafer finishing off an assist from D.J. Hessler. Salisbury closed out the first quarter with goals from Bradman, Cannone and senior midfielder Spencer Smith to take a 6-1 lead.

Tufts kicked off the second quarter with a pair of goals in the first four minutes to cut the deficit to three, but Mendes ended the run with an unassisted goal with 10:19 remaining in the frame. The Sea Gulls closed out the first half with unassisted goals from junior attackman Erik Krum, Bradman and Mendes to bolster the lead to 9-3.

At the half, Salisbury outshot Tufts 27-14, picked up 18 groundballs compared with 10 for the Jumbos, and won 8 of 14 faceoffs.

Clarke scored nearly two minutes into the second half to deliver a 10-3 lead for Salisbury, before the Jumbos responded with goals from Hessler and a man-up goal from Ryan Molloy. Bradman ended the quarter with his fourth goal, handing Salisbury an 11-5 advantage.

The Sea Gulls added eight goals in the final quarter, which were the most goals in a quarter by Salisbury in a national championship game since 1995. Bradman posted the first two goals of the quarter, then closed out the scoring for the Sea Gulls with a man-up goal off an assist from midfielder Shawn Zordani with 2:41 remaining.

Bradman finished with eight points, and Rodriguez claimed the victory with four saves.

Tufts' Hessler posted a team-high five points on two goals and three assists. Molloy recorded two goals for the Jumbos.

Tufts goalkeeper Patton Watkins played the first 23 minutes of the game while registering four saves, before being replaced by senior Steven Foglietta (three saves).

Tufts wins first NCAA team title with 9-6 victory over Salisbury: Tufts won the 2010 Division III Men's Lacrosse Championship with a 9-6 victory over Salisbury May 30 at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore. It was the first NCAA team title for Tufts, which had never before advanced past the championship's second round. The Jumbos (20-1) opened up a 7-1 lead and dug in to defeat Salisbury (21-2), a program that has won eight NCAA championships.

"Our strong start took a lot of pressure off our guys," said Tufts coach Mike Daly, who has led the program for 12 seasons.

Tufts' D.J. Hessler, who led the offense with a goal and four assists, was named the game's Most Outstanding Player. The Jumbos held Salisbury to just six goals, matching the Sea Gulls' season low. Tufts goalie Steven Foglietta made 13 saves in the game, including seven in the fourth quarter, to bring home the title.

Salisbury maintains perfect season: The top-ranked Salisbury men's lacrosse team celebrated its eighth NCAA Division III national championship May 25 before a record crowd of 24,317 at Gillette Stadium in Foxborough, Mass., as the Sea Gulls defeated second-ranked SUNY Cortland 19-13. Salisbury (22-0) completed its sixth undefeated season in school history as the Sea Gulls successfully defended their title against the Red Dragons (18-2).

Salisbury junior midfielder Kylor Berkman was named the Most Outstanding Player as the first-team All-American scored a game-high five goals and added two assists.

The Sea Gull senior class graduated with an 84-1 record. Senior attackman Greg Titus (two goals, three assists), who sat out the 2006 season, finished his career undefeated.

The Sea Gulls improved to 45-18 all-time in 26 appearances in the NCAA Division III tournament. The 45 wins sets a new Division III record as Hobart held the old record of 41 wins.

Salisbury downs SUNY Cortland for championship title: Attackman Matt Hickman poured in five goals and added an assist as Salisbury (23-0) avenged last season's Division III Men's Lacrosse Championship game loss to SUNY Cortland (15-6), 15-9, at Baltimore's M&T Bank Stadium to earn the Sea Gulls their seventh title.

Hickman's performance gave him 75 goals on the year and the Most Outstanding Player award. The junior finished 2007 as the second-leading scorer on a team that set a new Salisbury record, scoring 417 goals this year.

The Gulls used a five-goal run during a six-minute third-quarter span to break open a seesaw battle.

SUNY Cortland midfielder Adam Hyde, who finished with four goals and an assist, made the score 7-7 46 seconds into the second half when he drove from behind the cage and finished with an underhand shot.

Salisbury responded as sophomore midfielder Kylor Berkman battled through a holding penalty and delivered one of his three assists to a waiting Hickman. Junior attackman Greg Titus, who had three goals to finish the year with 76, sandwiched a pair of goals around a Matt Dasinger goal before Hickman made it 12-7 when he finished a fast break with 8:36 remaining in the third.

Also putting up gaudy numbers was Salisbury senior attackman and leading scorer Eric Bishop, who finished with four goals and three assists, bringing his season point total to 102.

SUNY Cortland and Salisbury renewed their championship game rivalry as both teams favored a frantic pace early, leading to a combined 15 first-quarter shots.

SUNY Cortland jumped out to a 4-1 lead when freshman midfielder Chris Dutkowsky caught a pass from senior attackman Mike Felice – who had finished a shot on the crease after making a nice fake two minutes prior -- just inside the restraining box and let go a hard shot that beat Salisbury goalie Max Zarchin, who had 12 saves.

Salisbury got back into the game on the strength of a six-goal run, including two goals from Hickman and Titus, and went ahead 7-4 with 7:48 remaining in the second quarter. SUNY Cortland midfielder Josh Cittadino answered seven seconds later, however, when he won a draw forward, gained possession, and put a high bounce shot past Zarchin.

Hyde then finished the first half with a running right-handed shot from the top of the box with four seconds left.

SUNY Cortland got 11 saves from sophomore Michael Robinson, including two from inside five yards early in the fourth quarter, to give the Red Dragons hope.

SUNY Cortland also had an advantage at the faceoff, winning 15 of 28 draws. Salisbury was excellent on groundballs, however, picking up 48 to the Red Dragons' 33.

SUNY Cortland ends Salisbury reign with overtime conquest: SUNY Cortland stunned three-time defending champion Salisbury in overtime May 28 to win the Division III Men's Lacrosse Championship, handing the Sea Gulls their first loss since April 10, 2003. The 13-12 defeat ended Salisbury's 69-game winning streak and brought the title back to SUNY Cortland for the first time in 31 years. The Red Dragons' Mike Felice scored a goal with 2.2 seconds remaining in overtime to lift his team over the defending champions and heavy favorites.

The teams were evenly matched from the outset, with each answering the other's score. The teams combined for 11 ties and four lead changes in the see-saw game, and the largest margin was two goals, which Salisbury held in the second quarter. The Sea Gulls were up, 7-6, at the half. The Red Dragons came out strong in the third quarter, though, opening with a quick goal, dominating the faceoffs and controlling the time of possession. Ryan Heath scored three times in the third quarter for SUNY Cortland, including a tying goal with 37 seconds left. Salisbury midfielder Luis Gonzalez led his team with three goals in the third quarter after scoring just four the entire season.

The fourth quarter was a stark contrast to the offensive barrage in the third – both teams turned to their defense to carry the day. Salisbury led the game with less than a minute to play, but SUNY Cortland's Ryan Simensky scored off a loose ball, tying the game at 12.

Red Dragons sophomore Josh Cittadino won his 13th faceoff to start the overtime, but a subsequent shot sailed wide. Salisbury also had chances, but SUNY Cortland goalie Ben Gaebel made two of his 18 saves in the extra period. The Red Dragons capitalized on their final possession, with Felice scoring the game-winner after beating his defender and getting in close range.

Felice finished with three goals and the Most Outstanding Player award. Heath led SUNY Cortland with four goals. Salisbury finished the season 20-1, while SUNY Cortland completed an 18-3 campaign.

Sea Gulls soar to third straight crown: An accurate shot in the last six seconds of play lifted Salisbury over Middlebury, 11-10, in the Division III Men's Lacrosse Championship game May 29. The game was played before a Division III-record crowd of 20,803 at Philadelphia's Lincoln Financial Field.

The victory clinched the Sea Gulls' third consecutive title and sixth overall. The Gulls finished the 2005 season with a perfect 20-0 record, while the Panthers posted a 17-2 slate.

Salisbury had been dominant all season, never trailing by more than one goal all year until Middlebury opened a two-goal margin with just more than five minutes left in the championship game. But Salisbury scored two quick goals and then ran down the clock to set up the game-winner by junior attackman Chris Phillips with 5.6 seconds left. Phillips also clinched the 2003 title over Middlebury with the final goal in a 14-13 overtime victory.

Besides Phillips, team members also credited senior goalkeeper Dan Korpon for playing a huge role in the win. Korpon was named the tournament's Most Outstanding Player, finishing with a game-high 12 saves. In the first quarter, Korpon registered five saves, the same number he posted in the last period.

The victory over the Panthers brings Salisbury's consecutive win streak to 49, a record for all NCAA divisions.

Salisbury's championship win came despite a range of statistical victories for Middlebury. The Panthers led the Sea Gulls in faceoffs, shots and ground balls. The Panthers' dominance of faceoffs was especially surprising to the Sea Gulls – Salisbury senior Bryan Bradford entered the game having won 258 of 391 in his career, but Middlebury allowed him only five of 18.

Middlebury has appeared in six of the last seven Division III championship games and has faced Salisbury in four finals.

Salisbury solves goalkeeper shield in men's lacrosse win: Ten yards generally is a goal on a football field. In the Division III Men's Lacrosse Championship May 30 at Baltimore's M&T Bank Stadium, home of the NFL Ravens, it was a limit -- the distance beyond which defending champion Salisbury could not shoot. The reason? Nazareth goalie Alex Civalier.

The plan didn't stop Civalier from becoming the second losing player in the championship's 25 years to be voted Most Outstanding Player (Larry Boehm of Washington College being the other in 1986), but the main goal was realized. Despite Civalier's 20 saves, the Sea Gulls won their second straight title, 13-9, claiming their 29th straight win and finishing the season with a school-record 20 victories. The last time the Sea Gulls lost was April 10, 2003, to Lynchburg. It was Salisbury's fifth championship, all under coach Jim Berkman.

Playing in front of a turnstile crowd of 19,202, the Sea Gulls stormed to a 4-0 lead by 3:43 left in the first quarter. Nazareth coach Rob Randall, coaching in his first championship game and the Golden Flyers' first since they registered consecutive crowns in 1996 and 1997, said his squad may have suffered some jitters from playing in front of such a large crowd.

But Nazareth steadied, capitalizing on the few chances it got despite being dominated statistically. The Flyers scored the first three goals of the second period, the third coming with 10:55 left in the half from Chad Amidon, his 17th of the year. Although Salisbury answered by widening the margin to two on two different occasions later in the half, Nazareth's Bryan Adams' 37th goal of the season with 51 seconds left in the half closed the score to 8-7 at the break.

Ever since Berkman's teams won back-to-back titles in 1994 and 1995, newcomers have been well-schooled in Sea Gulls tradition. This team built its own and possibly passed the not-so-old-timers.

Sea Gulls end Middlebury reign: Salisbury weathered a Middlebury comeback that erased the Sea Gulls' 10-4 halftime lead to claim a 14-13 victory in overtime on a goal from Chris Phillips, 29 seconds into the sudden victory period.

The championship gives the Sea Gulls their fourth title overall and first since 1999, when the runner-up also was Middlebury. The champion's Josh Bergey won Most Outstanding Player honors after finishing with four goals and three assists.

A soggy record crowd of 15,417 (turnstile) watched the muddy play in Baltimore's M&T Bank Stadium.

The victory prevented Middlebury (18-1) from becoming the first team to win four consecutive Division III titles since Hobart won 12 straight from 1980 to 1991.

Because no turnstile attendance figure had been kept previously, this year's figure will be listed as a record. The previous record of 18,586, set in 1996 at Maryland's Byrd Stadium represented the number of all-session tickets sold plus the number of walk-up tickets bought that day, not the number of people at the game. The new paid attendance record, arrived at using that method, was 33,023.

Panthers prowl: Middlebury claimed its third consecutive title May 26 after winning a rematch of the previous year's title game with Gettysburg, 14-9, at Rutgers. The win allowed the Panthers to stay one step ahead of their female campus counterparts, who earned their second straight title the week before. The victory made the Middlebury men the only active Division III team to have won three straight titles. Hobart, which has played in Division I since 1995, won 12 straight national championships from 1980 to 1991.

The game was tied at seven apiece after three quarters when the Panthers finished with a 7-2 scoring outburst for the win.

Middlebury's Zach Herbert score four goals and earned Most Outstanding Player honors.

Middlebury monarchy: Middlebury captured its second straight championship, defeating Gettysburg, 15-10, May 27 at Rutgers. Not only did the Panthers become the only team to win both the Division III men's and women's lacrosse titles in the same year, those two crowns increased the school's championship take to 14 in the last six years. Middlebury held a 7-3 halftime lead, pushed the advantage to six goals and did not allow Gettysburg to get closer than two goals.

Middlebury's Holt Hopkins had two goals and four assists in the title game and was named Most Outstanding Player.

Decade's Team: Salisbury flew to a 4-1 first-quarter lead and never looked back, running away from Middlebury, 13-6, in the championship game May 30 at Maryland. The title was Salisbury's third of the 1990s and first since 1995. Washington College and Nazareth met in each of the three previous games.

Salisbury's Brian Smith scored three goals to claim Most Outstanding Player honors.

Sho' Time: The Shoremen of Washington College have had better regular-season teams, but their 16-10 victory over two-time defending champion Nazareth on May 24 at Rutgers gave them their first championship.

Seven times before, the Shoremen had advanced to the title game, many times as one of the top seeds. This season, the Shoremen limped into the tournament with four losses, the second-highest number of defeats in the field. Just to get to the championship game, they beat two teams to which they lost in the regular season. Nazareth was the third.

Washington College went on an 8-0 run to build a 16-9 lead with 2:55 left in the game. Andy Lopatin scored four goals for the Shoremen and was recognized as the game's Most Outstanding Player.

1997

Nazareth rerun: Nazareth defeated Washington College in overtime for the second straight year, this time by a 15-14 score, May 25 at Maryland's Byrd Stadium. The winner's Ryan McDermott, who had been scoreless all day, finally found his mark 30 seconds into the sudden-victory period, giving the defending champion its third Division III Men's Lacrosse Championship. Although the actual attendance was far lower because of weather, the paid attendance of 18,086 was the second-largest total for any Division III championship in any sport. The previous year's figure of 18,586 is the record.

Nazareth's Trent Brown netted five goals and was named the game's Most Outstanding Player.

New Heights for Flyers: Nazareth's Terry Goetz won the faceoff and scored the game-winner in the first 14 seconds of sudden-death overtime to give the Golden Flyers an 11-10 win over Washington College and their second championship May 26 at Maryland's Byrd Stadium.

Nazareth successfully quelled the momentum the Shoremen had gained during a furious comeback from a 10-7 deficit with 10:14 left in regulation. Nazareth goalie Ben Wineburg had 13 saves and was recognized as the game's Most Outstanding Player.

Nazareth finished 15-0, the first perfect season in the program's 11-year history. Washington College had beaten previously undefeated Middlebury and Salisbury to reach the final game.

 # After the 1990 championship, the NCAA Committee on Infractions determined that Paul Gait had played in the 1990 championship while ineligible. Under NCAA rules, Syracuse and Paul Gait's records for that championship were vacated. The NCAA does not recognize Syracuse, coach Roy Simmons Jr.'s 3-0 record, and Paul Gait's 7 goals, 7 assists and his participation in that championship.

 # After the 1990 championship, the NCAA Committee on Infractions determined that Paul Gait had played in the 1990 championship while ineligible. Under NCAA rules, Syracuse and Paul Gait's records for that championship were vacated. The NCAA does not recognize Syracuse, coach Roy Simmons Jr.'s 3-0 record, and Paul Gait's 7 goals, 7 assists and his participation in that championship.

CH-Championships; SF-Semifinal appearances.

Divisions II and III Championship Coaching Records

From 1974-79, Divisions II and III participated in a combined championship.
