NATIONAL COLLEGIATE MEN'S

Highlights

Three in a Row! Trojans Beat California For National Championship: Southern California won its third straight National Collegiate Men's Water Polo Championship on Dec. 5 with a tense 12-10 overtime victory over California.

Peter Kurzeka had four goals and Nikola Vavic had three for the Trojans, who were picked to finish fourth in the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation after losing all three of their first-team All-Americans from last year's team.

But the Trojans wound up the regular season ranked No. 1 in the country, then won the national title in the home pool of the team that provided the biggest obstacle – No. 2-ranked California, which had been No. 1 most of the season.

"We figured if we were going to win it, we would have to go through Cal," Kurzeka said.

"The mecca of water polo is here," Southern California coach Jovan Vavic said. "It was everything a championship game should be."
