NATIONAL COLLEGIATE

2001 Championship

Highlights

Cougars Crowned: Brigham Young upset 18-time champion and perennial favorite UCLA to claim its second championship in three years. The Cougars downed the Bruins 30-26, 30-26, and 32-30 in front of a crowd of 4,807 at the Pyramid in Long Beach, California. It is only the third time in the history of the championship that a non-California team has won the title.

Using the new rally-scoring format with games to 30 points, both teams had ample opportunity to seize the match. But the Cougars managed to stay one step ahead of the Bruins.

Hector Lebron's accuracy at the setter position fueled Mike Wall and Joaquin Acosta on the offense for Brigham Young. UCLA's block could not withstand the pounding. And any attempt the Bruins made to return fire was stymied by the Cougars' almost impenetrable defensive wall.

All-tournament team: Jose Quinones of Penn State, Adam Naeve and Scott Morrow from UCLA, and Hector Lebron, Joaquin Acosta and Mike Wall of Brigham Young. Wall was also named the most outstanding player of the tournament.

TOURNAMENT PERCENTAGE LEADERS
