This is the third of three annual publications recording the history of NCAA Championships. The fall book was released in September and the winter book was released in February.

Men's and women's summaries in all three publications are current through the spring 2004 championships. Updated summary information can be found after each championship season via the NCAA Online Web site at www.ncaa.org. To access those summaries, select "News & Publications," "NCAA Publications," "View Online," and "Records," then select the championships records book and summary of your choice.

Foreword

It has been 123 years since the start of National Collegiate Championships sponsored by the nation's colleges and universities.

This historic series began in the spring of 1883 when Joseph Clark of Harvard captured the first singles title of the National Collegiate Tennis Championships. The NCAA, now with more than 1,000 member institutions eligible for competition, began to administer collegiate athletics championships in 1921, when the Association sponsored its first outdoor track and field championships. The National Collegiate Tennis Championships became a part of the NCAA series in 1938.

This book chronicles the results of the spring 2004 men's and women's championships. In the 2004-05 academic year, championship anniversaries include Division III Baseball (30th), Division I Men's Lacrosse (35th), Division III Men's Tennis (30th), Division II Men's Indoor Track and Field (20th), Division I Wrestling (75th), National Collegiate Women's Ice Hockey (5th), Division II Women's Lacrosse (5th), Division II Women's Indoor Track and Field (20th), and National Collegiate Women's Water Polo (5th).

National Collegiate Championships competition has a rich tradition of excellence. Each of the championships serves as a stimulus for the development of the particular sport, and the series itself highlights the overall intercollegiate athletics programs of the nation's colleges and universities.

The National Collegiate Championship Series
A Brief Chronological History

1883 First National Collegiate Tennis Championships hosted by Trinity College, Hartford, Connecticut, and sponsored by the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association.

1897 First National Collegiate Golf Championships at Ardsley Casino, New York; conducted by the Intercollegiate Golf Association of America.

1906 MARCH 31. Formation of the Intercollegiate Athletic Association.

1910 DECEMBER 29. Changed name to National Collegiate Athletic Association. Seven geographical districts created.

1911 DECEMBER 28. Number of geographical districts expanded to eight.

1916 DECEMBER 28. Number of geographical districts expanded to nine.

1921 JUNE 17-18. First National Collegiate Outdoor Track and Field Championships hosted by the University of Chicago under the auspices of the NCAA.

1924 Number of geographical districts reduced to eight.

1939 JUNE 24-29. National Collegiate Golf Championships first sponsored by the NCAA.

1941 National Collegiate Tennis Championships sponsored solely by the NCAA.

1981 NOVEMBER 21. First women's championships sponsored by the NCAA included Division II women's cross country hosted by Southeast Missouri State University, Cape Girardeau, Missouri; Division III women's cross country hosted by Carthage College, Kenosha, Wisconsin; Division II field hockey hosted by Pfeiffer College, Misenheimer, North Carolina; and Division III field hockey hosted by Westfield State College, Westfield, Massachusetts. The first women's Division I championship sponsored by the NCAA was for field hockey, hosted by University of Connecticut, Storrs, Connecticut, November 21-22.

1985 Division I Men's Basketball Championship bracket expanded to 64 teams.

1991 Starting in the fall, Divisions II and III individual champions were no longer permitted to compete in Division I championships.

1994 Division I Women's Basketball Championship field expanded to 64 teams.

1996 Abilene Christian University became first institution to win all four track and field championships in any division.

1997 Stanford became first school to win six team championships (sweeps of cross country, volleyball and tennis) in one year.

JUNE 1. NCAA announced it would move its national office from Overland Park, Kansas, to Indianapolis in 1999.

AUGUST 1. NCAA's federated governance structure went into effect.

Washington defeated Princeton in the inaugural National Collegiate Women's Rowing Championship.

1998 JANUARY 7. Midseason rules changes in the sport of wrestling, caused by the deaths of three student-athletes during weight-loss activities, took effect.

1999 JULY 26. NCAA's new national office opened in Indianapolis.

NCAA adopted baseball standards relating to non-wood bats, putting limits on the diameter, weight and length differential.

2001 MARCH 23-25. Minnesota Duluth defeats St. Lawrence, 4-2, in the inaugural National Collegiate Championship for women's ice hockey, staged in Minneapolis.

2001 MAY 19-20. UCLA defeated Stanford, 5-4, in the inaugural National Collegiate Women's Water Polo Championship, held at Stanford.

2002 MARCH 29-31. The Women's Final Four was played in a dome for the first time, drawing a crowd of 29,619, the largest ever to witness a women's basketball game.

MAY 31-JUNE 2. The inaugural Division II Women's Rowing Championship and Division III Women's Championship are held at Indianapolis' Eagle Creek Park. UC Davis was the Division II champion and Williams won Division III.

2003 Division I Softball Championship expanded its bracket from 48 to 64 teams.

Divisions I, II and III Men's Lacrosse Championships were played in the same stadium for the first time. The Division I championship drew 37,944, the largest crowd to witness a men's lacrosse game and the largest to witness any NCAA championship game other than Division I men's basketball. The Division I bracket expanded from 12 to 16 teams.

The Men's College World Series changed its format so that the finals moved from a single game to a best-two-of-three-game series.

2004 APRIL 8-10. Nebraska captured the first National Collegiate Women's Bowling Championship, edging top-seeded Central Missouri State at Emerald Bowl in Houston.

(Note: All championships before 1981 were men's championships.)

Cal State Fullerton's Ronnie Prettyman races home with the championship-winning run in the Titans' 3-2 victory over Texas. Kurt Suzuki singled to drive in Prettyman.

2004 Championship

Highlights

Titans Turn Ordinary Start Into Extraordinary Finish: In a Men's College World Series where much was made of champion Cal State Fullerton's "Lucky 13," the real story may have been a couple of numbers that the Titans rendered meaningless.

In claiming their fourth Division I Baseball Championship title, the Titans demonstrated that starting the season with sub-.500 record (15-16) meant nothing except this is a team that doesn't quit.

And when senior catcher Kurt Suzuki delivered the CWS-winning hit in the seventh inning of the second game of the championship series against Texas, the 21,000-plus fans in Rosenblatt Stadium and an ESPN television audience learned that Suzuki's .100 batting average in 20 plate appearances meant nothing except that the Titans' leading hitter fully deserves his nickname of "Kurt Klutch."

Cal State Fullerton beat Texas, 3-2, on Suzuki's RBI single to left field and pitcher Jason Windsor's second complete game of the tournament, finishing off a best-two-of-three sweep of the top-ranked Longhorns and former Titans coach Augie Garrido.

"I still have chills, and it's not just from the cold water that was just dropped on my head," said Cal State Fullerton coach George Horton, who took the reins of the Titans program when his mentor Garrido departed for Texas in 1996, after leading the program to national championships in 1979, 1984 and 1995.

The victory came in Cal State Fullerton's 13th straight appearance in the Division I championship. Windsor's victory was his 13th of the season (after starting 1-4). In fact, 13 became the Titans' favorite number, as the team's traveling party took note of oddities ranging from the distance of the squad's hotel from Rosenblatt Stadium (13 miles) to the number on the Cal State Fullerton radio team's broadcast booth (take a guess).

But in the end, it was the same tenacity that Cal State Fullerton has displayed since its slow start that carried the day, as the Titans survived a loss to South Carolina in bracket play and pitchers Windsor and Ricky Romero willed themselves to a total of three complete-game victories, then the team came from behind in both games in the finals against Texas' outstanding pitching staff.

Perhaps seven actually is the Titans' number, as the team staged decisive rallies in both games against the Longhorns in the seventh inning.

In the first game, sophomore Danny Dorn smashed a double over the head and off the wrist of diving Texas left-fielder Carson Kainer to drive in two runs and claim the lead, 5-4. Dorn then scored on Felipe Garcia's fourth hit of the game for the final 6-4 margin of victory over the previously unbeaten Longhorns.

"We're elated to get this first game," Horton said after the contest. "It was like a heavyweight championship bout. I feel worn out and I know these guys next to me feel that way."

That feeling may have carried over to the next afternoon, when Texas scored a pair of runs off Windsor in the first inning of Game 2 and then pitcher Sam LeCure held the Titans scoreless entering the bottom of the seventh.

But a run-scoring triple by Brett Pill followed by a wild pitch by Texas reliever Buck Cody tied the game, then Ronnie Prettyman reached base on an error and advanced to second on Justin Turner's infield hit, setting the stage for Suzuki.

"There was never a doubt in my mind that he was going to get a hit right there," Titans first-baseman P.J. Pilittere said. "I saw a smile on his face before he went up there, and I hadn't seen that in a couple of weeks. He's been under a lot of pressure, but there's no one else we wanted up there."

"It's no mystery that I had nothing to show for the series before that," Suzuki said. "I knew that I just wanted to hit the ball somewhere. This is why I came to Cal State Fullerton, to be in this type of game and this type of situation."

Windsor took over from there. In all, he threw 322 pitches in an eight-day stretch in which he also earned a save in the bracket championship game against South Carolina in addition to his two nine-inning victories.

"I didn't think this was possible early in the season," Windsor said. "It wasn't because we didn't have a good team. We didn't seem to have much chemistry. Once we bonded and came together as a team, there was no stopping us."

Windsor was named the most outstanding player of the tournament after giving up only the two runs to Texas in his 21 innings on the mound. Teammates Garcia and Romero also were named to the all-tournament team.

Total CWS attendance this year was 256,730, down slightly from last year's record 260,091 fans. But the per-session average of 23,339 bettered the 2002 record of 22,376, and a Wednesday night session featuring Texas' bracket-clinching victory over Georgia and South Carolina's win over Cal State Fullerton drew a single-session record of 28,216 fans.

Won-Lost Records in Tournament Play

(Note: Before 1954, district playoff games were not considered a part of the National Collegiate Baseball Championship. As a result, only district playoff games from 1954 to the present, and all College World Series results, are included in the Tournament Record column.)

2004 Championship

Highlights

Delta State's Championship is Perfect 10: Delta State knew the road to Montgomery, after playing in nine Division II Baseball Championship finals without winning the title.

But now, the road to the pinnacle of Division II baseball runs through the Statesmen, after Delta State made 10 its lucky number by beating Grand Valley State in the championship game May 29 at Paterson Field in Montgomery, Alabama.

The Statesmen battled through a tough bracket, winning two of three games against top-ranked and defending champion Central Missouri State, then they pounced early on Grand Valley State – which advanced through its bracket undefeated – and rolled to a 12-8 title-game victory over the Lakers.

Bert Pickard, the tournament's most outstanding player, led off the third inning with a solo home run to put the Statesmen up, 4-0, against Grand Valley State, then he put the rallying Lakers back in the hole when his sixth-inning double drove home two more runs and extended the lead to 8-4.

Ninth-inning home runs by Will Waldkirch and Eric Patten put the game out of reach for good, finally bringing a crown to a program that had finished third four times and second twice in its previous nine appearances – including a runner-up finish in the very first Division II championship in 1968.

Ten truly was a meaningful number for Delta State. In their tournament opener, the Statesmen rallied to push Central Missouri State beyond regulation, then took the lead in the top of the 10th on a throwing error and held on for the win after the Mules put two runners on base with no outs in the bottom of the inning.

After a 14-5 victory over Columbus State, the Statesmen again faced the Mules, who staved off elimination with a rally of their own in a 12-9 win. But Delta State bounced back the following night with another rally against Central Missouri State, again riding its lucky number to a 10-9 victory to advance to the championship game.

Meanwhile, Grand Valley State survived a 12-inning opener against Cal State Chico, winning 2-1, then rolled past Bryant and Rollins to reach the championship game for the first time.

However, the Lakers couldn't solve the Statesmen in the single-elimination championship round and trailed the entire game, although Grand Valley State cut Delta State's lead to two on two occasions and then pulled within a run in the seventh inning on a three-run homer by Matt Wright.

Delta State, which finished 54-11, placed three players on the all-tournament team, including Pickard. Catcher Craig Newton homered three times in the tournament, and relief pitcher Scott Ellison collected two victories to go with his save in the championship game.

Also named to the team were outfielder Brandon McFarland and pitcher Matt Rafeld of Grand Valley State; third-baseman Shawn Callahan, outfielder Stephen Downey and designated hitter Josh Eftink of Central Missouri State; second-baseman B.J. Gagnon of Bryant; shortstop Juan Dieguez of Rollins; and outfielder Larry Pittmon of Columbus State.

Scott Hyde of George Fox won three games in the finals to propel the Bruins to the title. He earned the tournament's most outstanding player honor.

2004 Championship

Highlights

George Fox Makes a Name for Itself as Champion: George Fox entered this year's Division III Baseball Championship unranked and largely unknown to most of the country, but the Oregon-based team remedied that situation in a hurry.

The Bruins, after emerging undefeated from a tough regional on the home field of last year's champion, swept through its first four games in the May 28-June 1 finals at Appleton, Wisconsin, then held off top-ranked Eastern Connecticut State to claim the school's first team championship in any NCAA sport.

The title game matched first-team all-America pitchers Scott Hyde of George Fox and Ryan DiPietro of Eastern Connecticut State, who both recorded complete-game victories in the first round of the finals and then appeared in relief roles the day before the championship game.

Hyde put together another complete game and held the Warriors to three runs on five hits, while the Bruins chased DiPietro and took the lead for good with a two-run fourth inning. Right fielder Derrick Jones' seventh-inning homer put the game out of Eastern Connecticut State's reach, while Hyde retired 11 of the final 12 batters in the game.

"God touched his arm tonight," George Fox coach Pat Bailey said of Hyde, who was named the tournament's most outstanding player.

The Bruins were seeded third in their regional, hosted by defending champion Chapman, and were unranked in the Division III baseball coaches' poll. But George Fox beat the host team in the opener, then swept through Linfield and La Verne before beating nationally No. 3-ranked Trinity (Texas) in the regional final.

Then, George Fox kept rolling in Appleton, first riding Hyde's arm to an 8-3 opening win over Salisbury, then getting another complete game from Cory Dixon in a 6-2 win over Rowan. The Bruins advanced to the championship game with a 9-8, three-hour victory over the tourney's only other remaining unbeaten team, Eastern Connecticut State, sending the Warriors into an elimination game against Wisconsin-Whitewater.

The Warriors won that game, 2-1, on Dwight Wildman's two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth, then rallied again in its first rematch against George Fox, coming from six runs down to hand the Bruins their first postseason loss, 12-7.

With that, everything came down to the Hyde vs. DiPietro matchup, and George Fox finally found the Division III baseball spotlight that had eluded the Bruins all season.

Four other Bruins joined Hyde on the all-tournament team: second baseman C.R. Braniff, shortstop David Peterson, third baseman Tye Tinner and catcher Greg Dombek.

Eastern Connecticut State, which suffered its first loss in five championship-game appearances, also placed four players on the team, including DiPietro and right fielder Wildman, who hit four home runs in the tourney. Other Warriors named to the squad were outfielder Randy Re and pitcher Joey Serfass.

Aurora outfielders John Hopkins and Jay Lavender also were named to the team.

George Fox ended the season with a 40-10 record, while Eastern Connecticut State closed out play with a 43-11 mark.

2004 Championships

Highlights

Bears Win Head-to-Head Battle of Familiar Foes: California and UCLA were bearish on spring sports championships in 2004, and the two Pacific-10 Conference rivals went claw to claw once again in the Division I Men's Golf Championships June 1-4 at the 6,679-yard, par-70 Cascades Golf Course in Hot Springs, Virginia. In the end, through a steady final-round rain, California's Golden Bears outlasted UCLA's Bruins, beating par on a day no other team could.

The team title is California's first in golf, and it gains a measure of revenge for the Women's College World Series crown UCLA's softball team took from the Bears on Memorial Day. UCLA also won the women's golf team title, but California's Sarah Huarte won medalist honors. UCLA added a women's track title June 12. The Bruins also did well in tennis this year, reaching the team finals in both the men's and women's championships and winning a women's doubles title. California, meanwhile, placed fourth in the women's rowing championship.

In the men's golf battle, California got an early boost from junior Jeff Hood, who fired a 5-under-par 65 that helped propel the Golden Bears into the lead after the first round. Hood, a second-team all-Pac-10 selection who finished 32nd at the Pac-10 championships and 33rd at the West regional, brought his 'A' game to the nationals. Playing in the morning, he birdied holes No. 1, 3, 6 and 13. He posted an eagle on No. 16, hitting his second shot with a five-wood onto the green from 240 yards away and sinking the 40-foot eagle putt.

California golfers combined for a 1-under-par 279 on the day, finishing the first round one stroke ahead of second-place Brigham Young and two strokes ahead of TCU.

The quick start surprised Golden Bears coach Steve Desimone, since his squad had typically been slow out of the gate. "We've been a slow starting team all year. It's been one of those things," he said. "If you look at the regional last week, we had a very poor first round. But the second round, we were 11-under. We were nine shots better than the rest of the field and we rocketed from 21st to sixth. We've had a tendency to really get it going."

That 'getting it going' would manifest itself again in the national championship. California maintained its lead through the second day, despite a 9-over round, but then UCLA overtook the Bears in round three.

UCLA's Travis Johnson, who would finish fifth in the individual standings, shot a third-round 68, and senior Roy Moon posted a 65 to propel the Bruins five shots ahead of Kentucky and eight in front of California heading into the final round. Johnson and teammate John Merrick birdied the final two holes to lift the Bruins into the lead, with Johnson providing the highlight. On the final hole, he nearly recorded a hole in one, sticking his tee shot within a couple of feet on the 203-yard par-3 third. He drained the putt for a birdie.

"I heard a roar and we didn't know if it was a hole in one or what," Johnson said in a post-round interview. "But I thought to myself, 'I want to hear that roar.'

"We've been waiting around the past year for this tournament. We've played crummy at times during the season, just waiting for the tournament. It's kind of bad to do that, but it's nice to raise your game for this tournament. It killed us last year to finish third. Now, we're going to try and capitalize on it."

But California thought otherwise.

"Every second, every minute, every hour of every day, we practice for this day," said Desimone, who has guided the Bears for 25 years. "We knew this was a great team heading into the year. And at our first team meeting, I told the guys that before the final round we were going to be in position to win the national championship. To have one round to win the national championship, that's all you can ask for.

"I told the kids (Thursday) that if we played one great round, we'd win the national championship."

The weather conditions made that one great round an elusive goal. But California senior Peter Tomasulo's 67 and a 69 from Hood helped the Bears beat par while UCLA went 13-over and Kentucky 23-over. None of the Bruins or the Wildcats, in fact, shot under par on the day.

"Cal shot 1-under in that weather and that's just great playing on their part," said UCLA coach O.D. Vincent. "They got under par pretty early in the round and just held there. We made a little bit of a charge, but they answered all those calls. So my hat is off to the Cal Bears and their team and coach. They deserve it."

The Bears ended up six strokes ahead of UCLA. Arizona finished third, followed by Texas and Georgia Tech. Kentucky finished eighth.

In the individual portion of the championships, UNLV's Ryan Moore, a Seattle native who said he was familiar with the final-round conditions, played up to his word, firing a 66 to walk away with medalist honors at 13-under par.

Moore's final-round 66 followed a third-round 64, the best round of the tournament. He entered the final round with a two-stroke advantage over Arizona's Chris Nallen.

Moore's final round included three bogeys, but also seven birdies, including two chip-in birdies, one out of the bunker on No. 4 and one from the rough on the final hole.

"I grew up playing in conditions like this pretty much every day for 18 years," Moore said. "Maybe it bothers some guys, but I don't mind it at all.

"There was a little smile on my face when I woke up and saw the rain."

Moore out-dueled Wake Forest senior Bill Haas, son of PGA golfer Jay Haas, in the final round. Bill, who will turn pro and play in a PGA event in late June, shot a 68 in the final round, but it wasn't enough to catch Moore.

"I've played six rounds with Ryan this week, four rounds and two practice rounds, and it was pretty special," said Haas, who like Moore competed as an individual. "He shot a 66 in the final round. I would have had to shot a 62 just to tie him. So I didn't really have a shot. He beat me. I played my game and he played better."

Arizona's Nallen also finished at 7-under and in a tie for second with Haas, while Pepperdine's Michael Putnam finished in fourth place at 4-under. Oklahoma State's Casey Wittenberg, the low amateur at the Masters, finished in a tie for 24th.

South Carolina-Aiken Sets Championship Pace: South Carolina-Aiken golf coach Mike Carlisle finally got the good fortune his team has been waiting for. After a decade of close calls, including three runner-up finishes, Carlisle's Pacers won their first Division II Men's Golf Championships team title.

The tournament was part of the first Division II National Championships Festival and was conducted May 12-15 at the Victoria Hills Golf Club in DeLand, Florida.

"We feel like we probably should have won two or three times before this, but this is a hard goal to achieve," Carlisle said after his team fired a final-round 298 to stave off Cal State Chico and Barry.

"We were very fortunate—you could play the same situation tomorrow and another team would win. There are a lot of good, quality teams in this tournament and to be able to win it against such good teams just makes it all that much better."

South Carolina-Aiken opened the final round just one stroke ahead of Barry and two ahead of Cal State Chico. The Pacers' Scott Brown and Dane Burkhart both fired 1-over-par 73s, while Clint Smith had a 75 and James McGhee a 77. The final-round total of 298 was good enough to beat Cal State Chico by nine shots and Barry by 10.

But Cal State Chico had the tournament medalist in J.J. Jakovac, who won the individual title after firing a final-round 73 to finish the tournament with a 1-under-par 287. Jakovac also won the title in 2002, becoming only the third player in Division II history to win two individual national championships.

After Jakovac's 73, Cal State Chico's next-lowest score was a 76 from Marc Peterson. Barry's James Bowery fired a 1-under 71, one of only three rounds under par on the day, but the Buccaneers' next-lowest score was Ryan Lamond's 77.

Jakovac was six strokes ahead of Barton's Courtney Faircloth and Cal State Stanislaus' Ryan Thornberry, who both finished at 293.

"I played really solid on the front nine when it started raining on us—I shot a 35, which I thought was really good since it was raining hard for a while," Jakovac said of his final-round performance. "On the back nine I just wanted to make par, cruise in. It was really special to win my sophomore year, but even more so this year because I was here with the team and that makes it more special."

Columbus State and Barry were the team leaders after rounds one and two, respectively. Both teams in fact compiled the low aggregate rounds of the tournament (291), Columbus State in round one and Barry in round two. Columbus State, though, which has won the tournament six times (most recently in 1997), finished 11th overall after posting rounds of 314, 313 and 316.

Jakovac had the low round of the tournament with a third-round 67. He added a second-round 70, a score matched only by Nick Mason of Hawaii-Hilo, who tied for fourth in the individual standings.

Glenville State's Tim Fisher made the only hole-in-one of the championships with an ace on the 182-yard par-3 second hole.

Golf

DIVISION III

2004 Championships

Highlights

Three-Time Runner-Up Gusties Reach Pinnacle: At last year's Division III Men's Golf Championships, Ohio Wesleyan's Chad Poling and Luke Benoit of Gustavus Adolphus battled for 12th place, with Benoit edging Poling by a shot. At this year's championships, however, the stakes were a little higher, and Poling was a little better.

The Ohio Wesleyan senior led from wire to wire in winning medalist honors at the championships, held May 10-13 at the par-72 PGA of Southern California Golf Club at Oak Valley in Beaumont, California. Benoit finished second, but he didn't go away without a title — he helped the Golden Gusties win their first team title in the sport.

Poling's opening round 66 signaled his intention to contend. That performance was a school best and tied the NCAA Division III tournament record for lowest round under par (6 under). He followed that with a second-round 71 and fired rounds of 72 and 73 to complete a 6-under total score of 282.

Benoit finished two strokes back after a final-round 65 that tied a tournament record for low score and established a new mark for lowest round under par. His final round included a double-eagle 2 on the par-5 16th hole.

Benoit helped the Gusties protect a six-stroke lead they had entering the final round. Host Redlands climbed to within two strokes at one point, but Benoit's 32 on the front nine kept Gustavus Adolphus on top. Teammates Brent Borgstahl (73), Chase Thonvold (76) and senior Neil Johnson (77) helped the Gusties pull away to a 12-shot cushion over Redlands. Greensboro finished third, followed by Methodist and Emory. Poling's Ohio Wesleyan squad, which hosted last year's championships and placed third, finished seventh this year.

Besides Benoit's second-place finish individually, Johnson earned a tie for 10th and Thonvold, a freshman, placed 19th.

Borgstahl chipped in a 24th-place showing. The title was the first for the Gusties after finishing second in 1990, 1991 and 1992.

Poling is Ohio Wesleyan's first national champion in golf. The NCAA tournament was the sixth victory in a row for Poling, who was medalist in the final four tournaments of the regular season before winning individual honors at the North Coast Athletic Conference championships.

Ohio Wesleyan rode Poling's opening-round 66 and sophomore Justin Schroeder's 70 to lead after the first day. But Gustavus Adolphus compiled an even-par 288 on day two to wrestle the lead away from the Bishops.

Three golfers tied for third in the individual standings behind Poling and Benoit. They were Jonathon Dudley of Greensboro, Trent Erb of Oglethorpe and Adam Horton of Methodist, all at 1-over-par 289. Horton tied for fourth at last year's championships.

Ohio Wesleyan's Chad Poling set the championships' tournament record for most strokes under par when he finished at six-under.

2004 Championship

Highlights

Syracuse Tops Sentimental Favorite Navy in Final: From his eye-black Halloween game-face paint job to his flair for drama, Syracuse's Michael Powell forged a Hollywood-type lacrosse career from the start. He culminated it the same way at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore on Memorial Day.

In front of a championship-game record paid-attendance crowd of 43,898, the 10th-largest such number for an NCAA championship in any sport, and with the now 15-2 Orange holding a 13-12 lead over Navy, Powell found the net off a fast-break pass from best friend and fellow all-tournament team member Brian Nee with one minute left.

Powell preceded the goal, the 150th of his career and 47th of the season (but first of the day), with his game-high five assists.

Although the goal proved to be the game-winner, Navy, which ended the season 15-3, wasn't finished in this game in which the score was tied eight different times. Navy's Chris Pieczonka won the ensuing faceoff. Twenty seconds later, Navy destroyer Ian Dingman muscled his 6-3, 248-pound frame for his 36th goal of the season, closing Navy to within the eventual final score with 40 seconds left.

Pieczonka won the next faceoff, too, scooped the ball himself and drove solo for a shot that was snuffed by all-tournament goalie Jay Pfeifer of the Orange. Syracuse called timeout with 31 seconds left, giving the ball to Powell deep in the Orange's defensive area on the restart. Though the Orange's clear attempt was unsuccessful and Syracuse lost the ball, Navy did not get a shot in the closing seconds, and Syracuse clinched its eighth official championship. Powell, who along with his brothers Casey and Ryan, are the top three scorers in Syracuse history, ended his career with a second championship.

"To be honest, I was just excited that I finally scored," Powell said of the game-winner, noting that he didn't play his best game. Minutes before that goal, he had missed an open net after Matt Russell of Navy had come out of the goal to play the ball. "It just came at a good time."

Then he pondered the moment.

"We came away with a win against one of the best teams I've seen in college lacrosse," he said. "I scored the game-winner in my last game against Navy on Memorial Day. Hollywood probably ought to buy that."

Orange coach John Desko, who led the squad to an NCAA-record eighth crown, three of which have come under his command, said this game was different from the others, mainly because of the opponent.

"Our opponent, the United States Naval Academy, Richie Meade, the head coach, and his staff just had a real sense of pride," he said. "I was so proud of them being there and they way they've been playing this season.

"They played with a bigger cause. And to go out and play them, it didn't have the feel typical of playing other opponents. We were pulling for them, also."

That last sentiment echoed a feeling that one of the Orange players had joked about during the previous morning's press conference. Powell noted that, on the way to the interviews, teammate Steve Vallone had just finished reading a Baltimore Sun article on Navy advancing to the championship game from 30 miles down the road. The article talked about how people were flying in from all over the world to see the title game, and how servicemen who couldn't come would be watching or listening from ships at sea.

Powell confided to the media that Vallone told him, "Geez, after reading this, I even want Navy to win."

The four-time all-American got caught up in that a bit himself Sunday, saying that if the Orange won it would be bittersweet. His tune changed on title day.

"We were playing a lacrosse team. Some people took it a little too far. We weren't playing to beat our country. We weren't playing to beat the Naval Academy. We didn't view it as something unpatriotic. We viewed it as a national championship game."

And now they view themselves as national champions.

The semifinals' paid attendance of 46,923 set a record for an NCAA outdoor championship event, demolishing last year's record of 37,944 set in last year's championship game. The championship moves to another NFL stadium next year, Philadelphia's Lincoln Financial Field, for the next two years.

All-tournament team: Nee, Pfeifer and Powell of the Orange were joined by teammates Dan DiPietro, Sean Lindsay and Kevin Dougherty, who had five goals in the semifinal win over Johns Hopkins. From Navy, Graham Gill and Mitch Hendler were honored, as were Princeton's Ryan Boyle and Tim Sullivan.

Lacrosse

DIVISION II

2004 Championship

Highlights

Le Moyne's Spillett Puts Finishing Touches on Dolphins' Win: Yogi Berra needn't impart words of wisdom to Division II men's lacrosse champion Le Moyne.

The Dolphins' Brandon Spillett knows "it's never over 'til it's over," especially when he's on the field.

The unanimous most outstanding player of the game ended the second overtime contest in Division II championship history May 30 at Baltimore's M&T Bank Stadium with his seventh goal of the day. Spillett took a feed from Craig Rosecrans 44 seconds into the second sudden-victory period and gave the Dolphins an 11-10 win in front of a Division II-record turnstile crowd of 19,202. With the win, Le Moyne finished 16-0, making the Dolphins the second undefeated champion in the 20-year history of the tournament. The other perfect champion was Hobart in 1977. The previous attendance record was 15,417, set last year at the same venue.

"(When I got the ball), I was hoping not for the same thing to happen as what happened on the first play of the game when I got stripped right off the bat," said Spillett of the game-winner, his 40th score of the season. "I thought we needed a goal and coach said to put the ball in my stick, so I had to get it done."

Minutes earlier, with 11 seconds left in regulation and the Dolphins down, 10-9, not even Flipper would've given the Dolphins a prayer. Limestone's Kyle Zentz had the ball in his stick deep in his defensive end of the field on a restart after a Le Moyne turnover. Lightly pressured by the Dolphins' Matt Holdridge, Zentz tried to wing the ball down the field out of harm's and Le Moyne's way, as the seconds ticked away to cement a title for Limestone.

But he dropped the ball.

Holdridge got it and Le Moyne called timeout. Dolphins coach Dan Sheehan put the game in the junior attackman's hands by giving him an isolation opportunity.

Sheehan said he was amazed at his team's coolness in the huddle.

"We're all laughing on the sidelines," he said. "These guys are just so much fun to be around. When you can go out there and play a game like that and laugh on the sidelines, wow."

Spillett made a move to get in front of the net and buried a shot with two seconds remaining in regulation, forcing the first Division II championship overtime game since Towson beat Hobart, both now Division I teams, 18-17, in double overtime in 1974.

"There wasn't much time to think," Spillett said. "I just had to go to the goal and put the ball in the back of the net."

At the postgame interview, Sheehan, sitting beside teammates Travis Tarr and Rob Trowbridge, summed up Spillett's performance best.

"Travis and Trow and I might as well leave, talk to him (Spillett)."

Spillett, whose title-game goal output was second in tournament history behind the record of eight set by Harold Draffen of Hobart back in that 1974 game and John Hildebrand of Ohio Wesleyan in 1976, wanted to make sure that his teammates' efforts didn't get lost in his personal laurels.

"The other 39 guys on the roster are all in the locker room now and they're watching this (on the TV monitor in there), and they've got the biggest smiles on their faces," he said.

Third-year coach T.W. Johnson of Limestone, which has played in the last five championship games and won two, knew his team had played in a game for the ages after a season for the ages. The Saints finished the season 15-2, losing previously only to Division I tournament quarterfinalist North Carolina.

Le Moyne's Rob Trowbridge (left) races past Limestone's Mike Freudiger during Le Moyne's 11-10 double-overtime victory in the championship game.

"That was the best lacrosse game I've ever been a part of," he said. "Obviously, I'd like to be on the other end of it. It was two teams that really scratched and clawed for everything for over 60 minutes."

Salisbury's Corey O'Neil reaches back for extra power on this shot against Nazareth in the final. The Sea Gulls defended their 2003 title with a 13-9 triumph.

2004 Championship

Highlights

Salisbury Solves Goalkeeper Shield: Ten yards generally is a goal on a football field. In the Division III Men's Lacrosse Championship May 30 at Baltimore's M&T Bank Stadium, home of the NFL Ravens, it was a limit – the distance beyond which defending champion Salisbury could not shoot.

The reason? Nazareth goalie Alex Civalier.

"We drew a big black line on our field this week and told them that no one could shoot from outside that for this game because we knew that he was a good goalie," said Salisbury coach Jim Berkman.

The plan didn't stop Civalier from becoming the second losing player in the championship's 25 years to be voted most outstanding player [Larry Boehm of Washington (Maryland) being the other in 1986], but the main goal was realized. The Sea Gulls, despite Civalier's 20 saves, won their second straight title, 13-9, claiming their 29th straight win and finishing the season with a school-record 20 triumphs. The last time the Gulls lost was April 10, 2003, to Lynchburg.

"He made a lot of saves but they were all on close shots," Berkman said of the opposing goalie, noting that his team followed the game plan.

Playing in front of a turnstile crowd of 19,202, which broke last year's mark of 15,417, the Sea Gulls, whose title was their fifth, all under Berkman, stormed to a 4-0 lead by 3:43 left in the first quarter. Nazareth coach Rob Randall, coaching in his first championship game and the Golden Flyers' first since they registered consecutive crowns in 1996 and 1997, said his squad may have suffered some jitters from playing in front of such a large crowd.

"Our kids may have been a little shocked coming out of the blocks," he said.

But Nazareth steadied soon, capitalizing on the few chances it got despite being dominated statistically. The Flyers scored the first three goals of the second period, the third coming with 10:55 left in the half from Chad Amidon, his 17th of the year. Although Salisbury answered by widening the margin to two on two different occasions later in the half, Nazareth's Bryan Adams' 37th goal of the season with 51 seconds left in the half closed the score to 8-7 at the break.

"I looked up and saw the halftime statistics," Berkman said after the game, "You give up a four-goal lead and you say 'man, what are we doing wrong, we're not playing well, but we played awful well.'

"I look up there and see that Civalier had 12 saves (at half) and I don't know how many more shots we had than them (seven) and he was saving everything for a while."

Salisbury extended its lead to three on a goal by Scott Simmons, his third of the day, assisted by Mike Edwards, with 11:01 left in the third quarter. Six minutes later, the lead was back to four after Andy Arnold scored his third goal of the game. Arnold also scored the game's last goal, giving him a game-high four and his team a 13-9 win.

"We played an outstanding game for 45 minutes, today," Randall said. "If we could have erased that first quarter, we would have had an even game.

"We regrouped at the end of the first quarter and into the second, and I'm proud as heck of our kids."

Second that emotion for Berkman. Ever since his teams won back-to-back titles in 1994 and 1995, newcomers have been well-schooled in Sea Gulls' tradition. This team built its own and possibly passed the not-so-old-timers.

"These guys have heard about those guys for a long time," the Gulls' coach said. "Now they've etched their own name in history. I'd say they're as good if not the best team I've ever coached."

Highlights

Baylor Wins Battle of Bears for First Team Championship: Baylor captured its first team championship in any sport when the Bears won the Division I Men's Tennis Championships team title May 25. Baylor earned the crown with a shutout of UCLA, 4-0, at the Michael D. Case Tennis Center in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

The Bears won the title in just under two hours, one of the shortest championship matches in NCAA history. The win was just the sixth shutout in the history of the title match.

This marks the first time since 1972, when Trinity (Texas) won the event, that a Texas school has won the title.

Baylor's Benjamin Becker also brought home the first singles title for the Bears, defeating Tulane's Michael Kogan in straight sets, 6-4, 7-6, May 31.

Sam Warburg and KC Corkery of Stanford won the doubles title May 31, defeating Georgia's Bo Hodge and John Isner, 6-2, 6-7 (3), 6-4, to claim the crown. It was the Cardinal's 14th NCAA men's doubles title.

In doubles play of the team event, Baylor's Reiner Neurohr and Ivor Lovrak were the first to finish with an 8-4 win at No. 3 over Tobias Clemens and Chris Surapol. Benedikt Dorsch and Matija Zgaga upset UCLA's Alberto Francis and Kris Kwinta at No. 1.

In singles play, all six Baylor players won their first set. Zgaga defeated Francis, 6-2, 6-3, in the first completed match. Next, after rally from a 4-1 deficit to win the first set in a tiebreaker, 7-6 (4), Becker made quick work of Luben Pampoulov in the second set, 6-1. Matias Marin upset Chris Lam in straight sets, 6-3, 6-2, to give Baylor its fourth and final point.

"We played our best match of the year. We built toward this all season," said Baylor head coach Matt Knoll. "We played our very best match of the season on the day it mattered the most."

In the singles event, Becker won the first set, and he and Kogan broke each other's serves to tie the match at 6-6 and force a tiebreaker. Kogan led, 6-5, in the tiebreaker and was serving to win the set when he lost the point. With the next two serves, Becker took a 7-5 lead, but fell behind, 8-7, after he couldn't run down a drop shot by Kogan. Trailing, 9-8, Kogan's shot went long and he lost the tiebreaker and the match.

"This was by far my biggest win," said Becker, who finished the season with a 44-9 record. "I was surprised. I didn't expect it at all."

In doubles, Warburg and Corkery beat Isner and Hodge in a fast-paced, three-set match. After two service breaks in the first set, the teams went 23 games without a break.

"Obviously, Georgia played well all year," said Stanford head coach Dick Gould. "They're a great team. I thought our guys had to play their best match to get through those guys and they did."

West Florida's Paulius Jurkenas leaps into this backhand return during the Argonauts' championship-match win over Valdosta State.

2004 Championship

Highlights

State of Florida State of Euphoria for Argonauts: West Florida won its first Division II Men's Tennis Championship, defeating Valdosta State, 5-2, at the Division II National Championships Festival in Florida. The Argonauts had last been in the finals of this event in 1997, when they lost to Lander.

This time, however, West Florida prevailed over Valdosta State and avenged its loss to the Blazers in the finals of the Gulf South Conference tournament in April. This was Valdosta State's first appearance in the final.

West Florida completed its season with a 33-1 record. The 33 victories are the most in a single season. Valdosta State finished with a 21-4 record.

"We have always had great tennis programs, but we always came up just short at nationals," said West Florida head coach Derrick Racine. "Everything went right all week as we were able to pull out every tough match. It was just our week."

The Blazers started the match with the doubles team of Peter Kreutzfeldt and Phillip Laucht downing the West Florida duo of Guillaume deVerbizier and Jonas Mouly, 8-3. But the Argonauts responded by winning the next two doubles matches. West Florida's Radovan Chrz and German Dalmagro picked up an 8-4 triumph over Eduardo Rincon and Heiko Wunderlich. Mario Vergara and Paulius Jurkenas followed with a hard-fought 9-7 victory over Christoph Schneider and Norman Weidle.

Valdosta State started singles action with Schneider upsetting deVerbizier, 6-3, 6-3, to even the match score at 2-2. But West Florida won the next three singles matches en route to the national championship. Vergara disposed of Weidle, 6-2, 6-2; Chrz defeated Kreutzfeldt, 7-5, 6-1; and Dalmagro clinched West Florida's first national tennis championship with a 6-3, 6-2 win over Wunderlich.

West Florida is the second school from Florida to win the title. Rollins, which the Argonauts defeated to reach the finals, has won four titles.

Tennis

DIVISION III

2004 Championships

Highlights

Panthers Rally Past Williams to Ace First Crown: Middlebury won its first Division III Men's Tennis Championships team title May 14 with a 4-3 victory over Williams, which finished as runner-up for the second consecutive year.

The championships were held at Bates College's Wallach Tennis Center May 12-17.

In individual play, UC Santa Cruz's Matt Seeberger won the singles title and Mary Washington's Dan Uyar and Paul Bristow captured the doubles crown. It was Mary Washington's first doubles title. UC Santa Cruz last won a singles title in 2001.

In the team competition, first-year player Alex Scott held serve with an overhead slam to give Middlebury its victory. Scott's win capped a tremendous comeback for the Panthers, who trailed, 3-1, after Williams' Andrew Murray won, 6-3, 6-1, at No. 1 singles. The Ephs won the doubles points and also got a win at No. 5 singles with Scott MacKenzie's straight-set victory.

Ari Beilin started the comeback for the Panthers, rallying from a set down for a 2-6, 6-3, 6-1 win. George Mayer added a 6-4, 6-7, 6-0 win at No. 4 singles to knot the score at 3-3.

Scott lost the first set to Williams' Lex Urban, 3-6, but rebounded with a 7-5 win in the second set. The duo traded service breaks for five consecutive games before Scott finally capped the match with a 7-5 win in the third set. Middlebury finished the season 18-3, while Williams fell to 13-6.

In the individual portion of the tournament, Seeberger defeated John Michael Cham-A-Koon of Claremont-Mudd-Scripps, 6-1, 6-4, in the championship match. He broke Cham-A-Koon's serve twice early on to build a 3-0 lead before coasting to a win in the first set, then battled back from a 3-0 deficit to prevail in the second set.

Uyar and Bristow took out Cham-A-Koon and Kyle Ellison in the doubles semifinals, winning 5-7, 6-3, 6-2, before defeating Michael Thoeresz and Brian Murphy of Redlands, 7-5, 6-3, in the title match.

Matt Seeberger of UC Santa Cruz lost only one set in five matches to claim the singles title.

Outdoor Track and Field

DIVISION I

2004 Championships

Highlights

Hogs Add Element of Speed to Claim Another Title: Arkansas displayed its usual strength in distance events but also showed unprecedented flash in the sprints to win its second straight team title at the Division I Men's Outdoor Track and Field Championships June 9-12 at Texas.

The Razorbacks claimed four individual titles – including their first victories in two sprint events – to easily outpoint runner-up Florida, 65 1/2-49, and win their 11th overall crown.

Tyson Gay claimed Arkansas' first title in the 100-meter dash and freshman teammate Wallace Spearmon posted the Razorbacks' first championships victory at 200 meters to complement wins by two-time runner-up Chris Mulvaney in the 1,500-meter run and Alistair Cragg in the 10,000-meter run.

Cragg claimed his first 10,000-meter title at the championships, after officially taking second in the event last year when he joined hands with teammate Daniel Lincoln as they crossed the finish line.

He had been favored in the 5,000-meter run entering regional meets but missed qualifying in that event due to an injury, and then lost an appeal to compete in Austin. With the 10,000-meter victory, Cragg closed out his collegiate career with a combined six Division I indoor and outdoor individual titles.

Arkansas' 16 1/2-point margin of victory is the largest in the championships since the Razorbacks' 38-point victory over UTEP in 1994.

"How sweet it is," said Arkansas coach John McDonnell. "It was hard-fought, but we still won. It's just nice to win after all the hullabaloo with the 5,000.

"I think the team did a fantastic job. So many guys laid it on the line...I don't know one guy who didn't lay it on the line. We haven't had too many meets where everyone competed well."

Gay and Spearmon combined for 25 points for the Razorbacks, with Gay finishing fourth in the 200 meters after winning the 100-meter event.

"You can't ask for more than that," Arkansas sprints and hurdles coach Lance Brauman said of the pair. "They're great athletes and great kids; it's a great combination."

Florida swept the hurdles and also won the 400-meter relay to post its best team finish at the championships. Freshman Kerron Clement won the 400-meter hurdles for the Gators and received scoring help in the event from senior Ricky Harris, who won two years ago. Josh Walker claimed the 110-meter hurdles crown.

LSU, which won the indoor title in March, finished third after Tigers senior John Moffitt completed an indoor-outdoor sweep of the long jump. South Carolina senior Tony Allmond posted the best jump of his career and appeared to take command of that event with a leap of 8.35 meters on his last attempt, but had to settle for second place for the second straight year after Moffitt responded with a jump of 8.40 meters to claim the victory.

Three teams tied for fourth, including Southern Methodist, which is discontinuing its men's track and field program. The school posted its seventh top-four finish in outdoor championships history, including team victories in 1983 and 1986.

The Mustangs' Hannes Hopley successfully defended his 2003 championship in the discus throw, giving Southern Methodist its 27th individual victory in meet history.

TCU and Ohio State also tied for fourth in the team standings.

Nebraska's Carl Myerscough joined Hopley as the only repeat event winners, with his victory in the shot put. Leevan Sands of Auburn, who won the long jump last year, was unable to qualify for the final in that event, but still claimed a title this year with his victory in the triple jump.

Baylor was the only other multiple-event winner at the championships. Sophomore Jeremy Wariner won the 400-meter dash for the Bears with a time of 44.71 seconds, then posted an unofficial split of 44.1 in the third leg of the 1,600-meter relay to power Baylor to its eighth outdoor title in that event.

There were no new meet records set at the championships.

2004 Championships

Highlights

Abilene Christian Wins Closest Meet: The two most successful track and field programs in Division II matched the closest finish in the 42-year history of the Division II Men's Outdoor Track and Field Championships May 27-29, as Abilene Christian survived Saint Augustine's victory in the meet's final event to claim the crown by a single point.

Abilene Christian won its third straight championship and 14th overall, but only by offsetting Saint Augustine's win in the 400-meter relay with its own third-place finish in that closing event at Cal Poly Pomona.

It is the 13th time in meet history that Abilene Christian and Saint Augustine's have claimed the top two spots at the championships, with Abilene Christian winning seven of those showdowns. This year's finish also was a bit of an echo from the 1994 championships, when Saint Augustine's beat the Wildcats by a point in what was the tightest finish before this year.

"Saint Augustine's has a very good program and it looked like we had our work cut out, but our team did a great job and kept improving," said Abilene Christian coach Jon Murray, who credited sprinter Marvin Bien-Amie's surprise second-place finish in the 200-meter dash and a one-three finish in the triple jump as the keys to the victory.

Freshman Bien-Amie – who posted only the sixth-fastest time in the 200-meter preliminaries – and senior teammate Christie VanWyk finished second and third in the 200, scoring 14 points to begin chipping away at what was then a 23-point Saint Augustine's lead after 17 events.

The Falcons built that lead with a dominating performance in the 400-meter hurdles, won by freshman Bershawn Jackson, who combined with teammates Adrian Findlay and Tim Riley to rack up 21 points. Earlier, Jackson set a meet record in preliminary heats in the event, scorching the hurdles in 48 1/2 seconds.

But Bien-Amie and VanWyk's heroics in the 200 cut the margin to 11 points, then sophomore Yevgen Pashchenko won the triple jump and Ben Washington took third in that event to boost the Wildcats into the lead by five points, 69-64, with only the 400-meter relay remaining.

Saint Augustine's did everything possible to pull out the victory, with Jackson anchoring the Falcons to a two-second victory and 10 points in the relay. But Abilene Christian crossed the finish line nearly five seconds ahead of fourth-place North Carolina Central, good enough for six points and the team title.

With the victory, the Wildcats completed their third straight sweep of the Division II indoor and outdoor track and field championships.

And even with the heroics from Bien-Amie and the triple-jumpers, it was distance runner Bernard Manirakiza who built the foundation for the Wildcats' win, with his victories in the 800- and 1,500-meter runs. The senior, who also won the 800-meter run and mile at the indoor championships in March, claimed the sixth and seventh individual titles of his collegiate career at Abilene Christian.

Even those victories were hard-won, though, as Manirakiza edged Cal State Chico's Peter Paplanus and North Dakota State's Andy Moen by less than a second in the 800 meters, and won in similarly close fashion over the Adams State tandem of Mohamed Aden and Aucencio Martinez in the 1,500.

North Dakota State finished third at the championships, powered by a one-two finish in the decathlon by Nate Schmidt and Andrew Aakre. Adams State finished fourth with 2003 cross country champion Celedonio Rodriguez's victory in the 5,000-meter run and the Aden-Martinez performance in the 1,500. Lincoln (Missouri), whose Lerone Clark won the 100-meter dash, and Western State tied for fifth.

The only meet record in addition to Jackson's preliminaries mark was set in the hammer throw by Indianapolis' Damieon Smith, who beat the previous record by three feet with a toss of 218-4.

Chicago's Adeoye Mabogunje shows his first-place form in the triple jump. His winning effort of 50 feet, 8¼ inches was nearly two feet longer than that of the runner-up.

2004 Championships

Highlights

Eagles Deliver Fourth Straight Crown: Wisconsin-La Crosse won a record six events and smashed the mark for widest margin of victory in winning its fourth straight Division III Men's Outdoor Track and Field Championships team title May 27-29 at Millikin.

The Eagles swept the meet's two relays – setting a record in the 1,600-meter event – and also claimed titles in the 400-meter dash, 400-meter hurdles, pole vault and discus throw to become the first team to score more than 100 points in the meet since 1984.

The team's 101 points beat runner-up Nebraska Wesleyan by 62 points, smashing the Eagles' own margin-of-victory mark of 24 points at last year's championships. Wisconsin-La Crosse led the field by only five points entering the final day of competition, but claimed five of its six titles on day three, including three of the final six events.

Andrew Rock anchored the record-setting 1,600-meter relay – whose winning time of 3:08.21 shaved more than a second off a 23-year-old mark set by Southern-New Orleans – and also won the 400-meter dash with a 45.58 clocking that qualified him for this summer's Olympic Trials but fell just short of the 45.29 record he set at last year's championships.

Rock became the sixth meet contestant to win back-to-back 400-meter titles, and finished his Division III outdoor career with three championships, including a 200-meter victory at last year's meet. He also won three straight indoor 400-meter titles.

Teammate Hans Schmidt also was a repeat winner, claiming his third outdoor pole vault title to go along with two indoor crowns. He became the third Division III pole vaulter to sweep the indoor and outdoor events twice in a career, joining Chad Thomas of Muskingum and Brad Parris of McMurry.

Other winners for the Eagles were Derek Toshner, who became the first three-time winner of the 400-meter hurdles and joined Rock as an Olympic Trials qualifier, and Mike Turgeon, a 2002 winner in the discus throw who reclaimed that title after finishing second last year. The Eagles' 400-meter relay team rounded out the victory parade with the school's first win ever in that event.

With the victory, Wisconsin-La Crosse completed its fourth straight sweep of the indoor and outdoor team championships, and ninth overall through Division III track and field history. The last teams other than the Eagles to win a Division III meet were Lincoln (Pennsylvania) and North Central (Illinois), which tied for the 2000 outdoor crown.

Wisconsin-La Crosse coach Mark Guthrie has led his teams to a total of 19 indoor and outdoor championships in 17 years.

Only one other championships record was recorded at the meet. Wisconsin-Whitewater's Jeremy Wendt won his second straight hammer throw title with a toss of 65.66 meters (215 feet, 5 inches), improving a 12-year-old mark. Other repeat champions included Dan Olson of Wheaton (Massachusetts), who won his third straight high jump title to go with two indoor victories; Nick Symmonds of Willamette, a two-event winner at last year's championships who won again this year in the 800-meter run; and Cody Brotherton of McMurry, who won a second straight shot put crown.

Nebraska Wesleyan's Bret Blake, a two-time indoor champion in the 55-meter dash, became a first-time outdoor winner with his victory in the 200-meter dash and also placed second in the 100-meter dash to propel his team to runner-up honors.

Chicago was the only school beside Wisconsin-La Crosse to win more than one individual event, with Tom Haxton's victory in the 10,000-meter run and Adeoye Mabogunje's winning triple jump.

2004 Championship

Highlights

Brigham Young's Fourth Win Over 49ers Has Title Ring: Brigham Young's top-ranked men's volleyball team captured its third National Collegiate Men's Volleyball Championship since 1999 with a 3-2 victory over Long Beach State May 8 at the Stan Sheriff Center in Honolulu. It was the Cougars' second crown in the past four years.

It was a hard-fought victory for Brigham Young, which won the match, 15-30, 30-18, 20-30, 32-30, 19-17. Jonathan Alleman's four kills in the fifth game helped put the Cougars over the top.

"On the stat sheet, they outplayed us," said Brigham Young head coach Tom Peterson. "But, the bottom line is, it just seemed like we had the heart whenever we needed it. The team absolutely did it all at the end, just like they've done all year."

Peterson made NCAA history by becoming the first men's coach to win a national championship with two different teams. He previously led Penn State to the title in 1994.

Brigham Young ended its season at 29-4, while Long Beach State posted a 28-7 campaign, with four of the losses to the Cougars.

Long Beach State quickly cruised to a 30-15 win in game one, but the Cougars gained the momentum in game two.

The match swung back toward Long Beach State's favor in game three as the 49ers broke an 11-11 tie and ended the game on a 19-9 run. Brigham Young then extended the match by winning a fourth game that included 13 ties but only two lead changes.

The Cougars rallied from 10-6 and 12-9 deficits in the fifth game and saved two championship points to win the match, 19-17.

Alleman led the Cougars with 13 kills, two block solos and four total blocks. Brigham Young's Joe Hillman added 14 kills, one block solo and two block assists. Carlos Moreno, the American Volleyball Coaches Association's player of the year, was recognized as the tournament's most outstanding player.

Long Beach State was led by Scott Touzinsky's 17 kills, five aces and four block assists. Jeff Wootton added 16 kills and 10 digs, while Duncan Budinger hit .609 with 15 kills and four blocks.

The 49ers advanced to the championship game with a 3-0 victory over Penn State. Brigham Young won its semifinal, 3-0, over Lewis.

Brigham Young placed Moreno and Fernando Pessoa on the all-tournament team, which also included Touzinsky, Budinger and Tyler Hildebrand from Long Beach State, Keith Kowal of Penn State and Jeff Soler of Lewis.

2004 Championships

Highlights

Bruins Do In Field With Final-Round Birdie Binge: UCLA overcame several rain delays and stiff competition from a top-notch field to win its second Division I Women's Golf Championships team title May 18-22 at Auburn's Grand National Golf Course. The NCAA title was UCLA's 92nd (25th women's title) – best among all Division I schools – and its second of the 2003-04 academic year. The Bruins also won a women's gymnastics crown in April. (UCLA also won the Women's College World Series May 31 for its 26th women's title.)

The Bruins played the final round in 2-over par 290 and finished with a 72-hole score of 4-under 1,148. Second-place Oklahoma State was three shots back and top-ranked Duke was 11 strokes off the winning pace. California finished fourth, followed by Vanderbilt, which posted a fifth-place finish while playing with only four players.

The tournament was close throughout, with UCLA trailing Oklahoma State by one after the first day of play, then forging a one-stroke advantage over Duke after day two. The Bruins stretched their margin to five shots after the third round, then played the final nine holes in 5-under par to clinch the win. UCLA coach Carrie Forsyth called the postchampionship feeling "one of the greatest I've ever had."

"We knew we needed to come out and play solidly to leave here with the trophy," she said. The Bruins won their first women's golf championship in 1991 in a sudden-death playoff over San Jose State.

In the individual competition, California's Sarah Huarte shot a final-round 69 for a four-round tally of 278 to win the individual title by a stroke over Oklahoma State's Karin Sjodin. Huarte birdied Nos. 2, 8, 9 and 12 in the final round to stave off Sjodin, who birdied three of the final seven holes to finish a shot behind at minus-9 for the tournament. Huarte, who finished in a tie for 97th at last year's tournament, compiled 25 birdies during the four rounds – the most in the field – and she was a collective minus-11 on the par 5s.

"This was my fourth time in the tournament and I have just never had a great game before, but I played consistent this week," Huarte said. "It was stressful watching Karin (Sjodin) putt on the last hole. This is by far the biggest tournament that I have ever won."

Sjodin said, "It's not that fun to finish second, but after finishing eighth in the regional this is great. We are a young team and should be very good next season."

Rain forced delays in three of the four rounds. The final round, in fact, was completed on Saturday, a day after the tournament was scheduled to end.

"After the rain delay from (Friday), we knew that we needed to regroup and come out and play solidly," Forsyth said after saying her team got off to a "rough start" in the final round. "We played much better (on Saturday). This means everything to our university, our staff and our girls."

Susie Mathews had the lowest four-round total for the Bruins, firing a four-round 280 with a final-round 72 to place third, the highest by a UCLA golfer since Kathy Choi finished third at the 1996 championships.

"It's an absolutely great feeling to be national champions," Mathews said. "I like the sound of that."

Teammate Charlotte Mayorkas finished four strokes behind Mathews to place fourth at 4-under. Her final-round 70 included birdies on Nos. 12, 16 and 17. Gina Umeck was the next highest-placing Bruin with a 291 after a final-round 73. She finished in a four-way tie with Allison Fouch (Michigan State), Elizabeth Janangelo (Duke) and Annie Thurman (Oklahoma State) for 16th place.

Oklahoma State coach Amy Weeks said her team was in position to win, "but we just ran out of golf holes. (UCLA) had some clutch birdies and pars down the stretch."

Oklahoma State almost wasn't in any position at all. The Cowgirls had to survive a one-hole sudden-death playoff just to advance out of regional play.

UCLA's four-round total of 1,148 was the lowest at an NCAA women's championship, and the Bruins' three-stroke victory was the closest tournament win since Georgia held off Duke by three strokes in 2001.

California's Huarte put the exclamation point on her individual title with a final-round 69. After a first-round 73, she played the final 54 holes in 11-under par. She is the niece of former college football quarterback John Huarte, who won the Heisman Trophy at the University of Notre Dame in 1964.

"I putted awesome this week, though I was a little streaky," Huarte said. "My hitting got better throughout the week. I hit my irons close. I didn't have to make any extremely long puts, mostly 15-footers. This may be up there with my uncle's Heisman. I have to give him a call right after this."

"This is a dream come true for her," said California coach Nancy McDaniel. "Sarah worked so hard for this. It is not a bit shocking to me that she won."

Golf

DIVISION II

2004 Championships

Highlights

Rollins Rolls to Second Crown: When Rollins won the Division II Women's Golf Championships team title last year it marked the first title for the Tars after three runner-up finishes in seven years. Apparently comfortable with the role of champion, the 2004 Tars steamrolled the field on their way to a 68-stroke win at this year's championships.

The tournament was part of the inaugural Division II National Championships Festival and was conducted May 12-15 at the Legacy Club at Alaqua Lakes near Orlando, Florida.

Not only did Rollins repeat, but so did the Tars' Charlotte Campbell, who as a sophomore revisited the medalist podium she graced as a freshman. While her first win was by four shots, she needed a birdie putt on the 18th hole in the final round to edge teammate Freddie Seeholzer. Campbell shot a two-under 70, the best round of the week and also a national tournament record, and finished at 11-over 299, which tied her own record.

The Tars placed five golfers in the field's top six, including third-round leader Mariana De Biase at 15-over 303 in third place and Ulrika Ljungman in fifth (305). Sabrina Gassner tied for sixth at 307 with Western New Mexico's Kristen Kennedy. Florida Southern's Pamela Feggans tied De Biase for third.

Rollins shot a tournament-record 44-over 1,196 for the four rounds. Florida Southern and Ferris State tied for second place at 1,246, followed by Northeastern State in fourth at 1,265 and Western Washington in fifth at 1,279.

The Tars opened a 10-shot advantage over Northeastern State in the first round, then stretched the margin to 24 strokes over Ferris State in round two. Their third-round lead ballooned to 44 strokes after a tournament-best 296.

Kim Keyer-Scott of Northern Kentucky was the top individual after round one, shooting an even-par 72. De Biase tied for the low round of the second day with a 72 and maintained her lead in round three with a 74.

Campbell overcame an 80 in Thursday's second round to produce a round 10 strokes better on Saturday. She shot a four-under 32 on the back nine to win it.

"All I was thinking was trying to get second," said Campbell, who entered the final round nine strokes behind De Biase. "We had some team goals left, trying to break 1,200, which we did. But as far as me, second place was it. I did want to shoot under par because no one had."

Campbell birdied Nos. 11, 14 and 15, then hit her approach on 18 within 12 feet.

"It was just a very poor front nine," Campbell said. "I missed a two-footer on No. 5 and I was just so disappointed. I just wanted to play the back nine better."

Seeholzer could have forced a playoff with a birdie on her final hole but settled for a par. She shot 73 for the day, the second best round of the day and her best of the tournament. De Biase shot a final-round 83 but still tied for third overall.

2004 Championships

Highlights

Methodist Weathers Conditions, Field for Fifth Crown: Methodist maintained its monarchy in Division III women's golf, winning a fifth consecutive team title at the Division III Women's Golf Championships May 11-14 at the par-73 Links Course at the Golf Courses of Lawsonia near Green Lake, Wisconsin.

The title was the eighth overall for the Lady Monarchs in women's golf, who have won every title but one in the nine years Division III teams have been eligible for NCAA championships, including the first four years when it was a combined Divisions II and III tournament. Lynn was the lone non-Methodist winner in 1997.

Methodist carded a final-round 339 for a 72-hole total of 1,303, good enough for a two-shot victory over last year's runner-up, Mary Hardin-Baylor. The Crusaders entered the day seven shots behind, but made things interesting with a final-round 334. Methodist won the title by 53 shots over Mary Hardin-Baylor in 2003.

Methodist led by just a shot with the Lady Monarchs' Charlotte Williams and Mary Hardin-Baylor's Amanda Tuskey, the final two players for both teams, facing birdie putts on the par-5 18th hole. Williams sank a curling 25-footer while Tuskey missed her six-foot birdie try.

Williams paced the Lady Monarchs with a four-round score of 316. She was the tournament leader heading into the final round but was overtaken by McMurry's Brittany Cary, who won medalist honors by two shots over Williams and Katie Taylor of Concordia-Moorhead. Both Cary, who finished seventh in 2003, and Taylor were among the 10 individuals not affiliated with one of the teams playing in the tournament.

Cary played in wet conditions during the final round after a steady morning rain and carded an 8-over par 81. Taylor was tied with Cary entering the final round but shot an 83. Williams logged an 84.

Higher final-round scores reflected the weather conditions. Every team shot significantly higher scores in the final round than in the third, several by more than 20 strokes. Methodist was one of those, firing a final-round 339 after a third-round 314. Besides Williams' 84, Melissa Arnett carded an 82, Hope Thomas shot an 86 and Heather Martin contributed an 87.

Mary Hardin-Baylor's Tuskey, who finished fifth overall, was the lone golfer to break 80 in the last round when the average score was 88.42. Her 79 combined with Emily Breedlove (82), Holly Glover (84) and Carrie Franciskovic (89) for the Crusaders' fourth-round total of 334.

DePauw, which entered the tournament ranked No. 1 by Golfstat, finished third with a total of 1,315, 12 shots off the lead. Sarah Gates led DePauw with a fourth-place finish in the individual standings.

Wisconsin-Oshkosh, located about 25 miles east of the golf course, finished fourth in the team standings.

Lacrosse

DIVISION I

2004 Championship

Highlights

Cavaliers Clamp Down Tigers' Offense En Route to Third Title: Virginia avenged last year's overtime loss to Princeton in the Division I Women's Lacrosse Championship with a 10-4 victory over the Tigers May 23 at Princeton. The victory gives the Cavaliers their third overall title in the event.

Virginia ended two-time defending champion Princeton's 28-game winning streak to earn the title. It was the Cavaliers' first championship since beating Princeton, 8-6, in overtime in the 1993 final.

Princeton defeated Vanderbilt, 11-3, to advance to the final game, while Virginia defeated Georgetown, 12-9, in its semifinal match.

The Cavaliers ended their season 19-3, while the Tigers finished 19-1.

Virginia was led by junior Amy Appelt, who had four goals, with the third of those being the 200th of her career. Caitlin Banks also delivered three goals for the Cavaliers. Goalkeeper Andrea Pfeiffer had 19 saves and was named the tournament's most outstanding player.

The Tigers' four goals tied the lowest total in a championship game, equaling Maryland's mark in a 6-4 loss to Temple in 1984.

Princeton jumped out to a quick lead with the first goal of the game by Elizabeth Pillion coming early in the first half. But the Tigers were unable to maintain momentum and the Cavaliers scored five goals before halftime and led, 5-1. Virginia's halftime advantage was the biggest held by any team this year against the Tigers.

After the break, Princeton again scored the first goal of the half, but Virginia was too much for the Tigers, outscoring them, 5-3, in the second half, including a goal from Appelt with 27 seconds left on the clock.

Appelt finished the 2004 season with 90 goals and 121 points, making her only the third player in Division I history to record 90 or more goals in a single season, and only the fourth player in Division I history to notch more than 120 points in a single campaign.

Virginia head coach Julie Myers became the first person in women's lacrosse history at the Division I level to win a title as both a player and as a head coach.

All-tournament team: Pfeiffer, Appelt, Banks, Nikki Lieb and defender Elizabeth Pinney from Virginia; defenders Lauren Vance and Katie Norbury, and midfielder Elizabeth Pillion from Princeton; Coco Stanwick and Michi Ellers from Georgetown; and Ashley Bastinelli and Bridget Morris from Vanderbilt.

Highlights

Hock's Half Dozen Helps Adelphi Gain Title Goal: Adelphi junior Katherine Hock's six second-half goals led the Panthers to a 12-11 victory over West Chester and their first Division II Women's Lacrosse Championship.

The May 15 championship match was played as part of the inaugural Division II National Championships Festival in Orlando, Florida. The win marks Adelphi's first championship for a women's program at the school.

West Chester, which previously won this event in 2002, dominated the first half of the game and held a 6-1 lead at the break. The Golden Rams maintained a majority of the possessions and outshot Adelphi, 12-5. Kathleen Sheehan tallied three goals and an assist to lead West Chester's charge.

The second half was a different story as the Panthers scored three goals in the first seven minutes to close within 6-4 with 23:28 still remaining in the game. Hock scored six of the Panthers' last seven goals of the game.

After West Chester's Danielle Roy scored at the 22:55 mark to put the Golden Rams up, 7-4, Adelphi rallied with four of the next five goals to tie the score at eight on a Hock goal with 9:01 remaining. West Chester's Kirstin McGoldrick gave the Golden Rams their last lead of the game when she tallied a goal with 7:04 remaining. Adelphi scored the next three goals, two by Hock, to take a 11-9 lead with 4:42 left in the game.

West Chester made their last push with two goals in a row, the final one coming with 2:16 remaining in the game on a shot by Roy. Hock scored what turned out to be the game-winner with 1:29 remaining.

Hock led all scorers with six goals, while Roy led West Chester with four. Sheehan added three goals and four assists.

"Katherine (Hock) was the first recruit I ever signed," said Adelphi head coach Jill Lessne. "She completely stepped up at a time when we needed her. She proved that when you really want something you can acheive it. West Chester is a phenomenal team. They are extremely competitive with top-notch athletes. They made us work really hard for this championship."

West Chester defeated Limestone, 23-12, to advance to the championship game. Adelphi beat C.W. Post, 11-10, to make it into the finals.

Hock was named to the all-tournament team, along with teammates Tara Grodotzke, Lauren Lopez, Allyson Murphy and Melissa Demasi. Others to make the team were Sheehan, Katelyn Martin and Christa Somits of West Chester; Summer Ferraro and Pam Gateau of Limestone; and Trisha Moran and Lauren Lomonaco of C.W. Post.

DIVISION III

2004 Championship

Highlights

Middlebury Ends Perfect Season with Overtime Win: Middlebury reclaimed the championship throne with a 13-11 overtime victory over The College of New Jersey in the Division III Women's Lacrosse Championship game May 16 at St. John Fisher. The Panthers ended the season 19-0, a school record for wins along with a fourth perfect season.

Middlebury is now 70-1 over the past four seasons and 131-7 over the past eight. The victory marks the Panthers' fifth lacrosse title overall, with the last coming in 2002.

The College of New Jersey ended its season at 18-1. The Lions have won this event a record 11 times, with their last victory coming in 2000.

Middlebury earned the win despite leading-scorer Nuala O'Donohoe receiving two yellow cards (for stick infractions) in the game, forcing a red card and her ineligibility to play the final 29:23 of the contest.

The College of New Jersey led, 2-1, before O'Donohoe tied the game at the 19:29 mark of the first half. The Lions regained the lead before a pair of goals from Michele Bergofsky and O'Donohoe gave Middlebury a 4-3 advantage. The College of New Jersey scored four of the game's next five goals to take a 7-5 lead with 3:13 left in the first half. Schuyler Winstead found the back of net for the Panthers with 38 seconds left in the half to cut the lead to 7-6 at the break.

The second half stayed tight, with the Lions scoring two goals in 31 seconds to take a 10-8 lead with 12:21 remaining in regulation time. Middlebury then regained control, scoring three straight goals to forge an 11-10 advantage. Elizabeth Renehan scored the first on a free position, followed by goals from Liza Humes at 5:46 and Caitlin McCormick at 2:47. The College of New Jersey came right back and tied the game with just one minute left, forcing overtime.

Two three-minute overtime periods were played, with Middlebury scoring with 1:37 left in the first overtime to take a 12-11 lead on a goal from Bergofsky. Channing Weymouth sealed the game as time was expiring to give Middlebury the 13-11 win.

Middlebury defeated Amherst, 13-9, to advance to the title game. The College of New Jersey won its semifinal against Salisbury, 14-9.

All-tournament team: Salisbury was represented by Jessica White and Linda Ackermann, while Amherst placed Liz Martin and Ashley Harmeling on the team. Katie Wagenblast, Lauren Dougher and Christie Shore represented TCNJ, and Middlbury was led by Renehan, O'Donohoe, McCormick, Sarah Grenert and Becca Brakeley.

Rowing

DIVISION I

2004 Championships

Highlights

Victories in Tight Races Vault Brown to Fourth Crown: Crews from Brown outdistanced Yale to win their fourth national title in six years at the Division I Women's Rowing Championships May 28-30 at the CSUS Aquatic Center in Sacramento, California.

Brown, which also captured team championships in 1999, 2000 and 2002, is one of only four schools to make an appearance in every championships since the event debuted in 1997. With this crown, Brown eclipsed Washington for the most team titles. The Huskies have claimed three.

The Bears, who fell just two points shy of the national crown last year, tallied 70 points in the winning effort. It was the largest point total amassed by a team since 1998.

Second-place finisher Yale notched its best showing in school history with 59 points. Before this year, the Bulldogs' highest finish was fifth place in 1997. Michigan earned 52 points to take third by a slim one-point margin over California. Washington rounded out the top five in the team competition with 43 points. Defending champion Harvard finished 10th in the team standings.

"We had some ups and downs during the course of the season, but the team really came together over the last few weeks," said Brown head coach John Murphy. "We practiced very well over that span, and we were really excited about our chances heading into the championship."

Brown's time of 6:32.9 edged Yale by 1.7 seconds in a tight I Eights final. Michigan, Princeton, Ohio State and Princeton filled out the top six. In the II Eights final, Brown captured the lead about midway through the race and surged to victory more than two seconds in front of California. Washington State took third, followed by Michigan, Yale and California, respectively.

In the I Eights petite final, the victory went to Washington, which turned in a time of 6:37.8. Harvard, Virginia, Tennessee, Notre Dame and Southern California rounded out the field.

Virginia posted the winning time of 6:48.8 in the II Eights petite final to finish in front of Wisconsin, Harvard, Princeton, Michigan State and Ohio State.

The Cavaliers also improved on last year's eighth-place finish in the Fours, winning the event this year with a time of 7:27.5. Washington, Brown, Yale, California and Ohio State followed.

Wisconsin earned first place in the Fours petite final with a time of 7:32.5 over Michigan State, Michigan, Princeton, Washington State and Harvard.

Mercyhurst nears the finish of its victorious effort in the Eights final.

2004 Championships

Highlights

Mercyhurst Makes Waves With School's First Crown: Mercyhurst became only the second school to win the Division II Women's Rowing Championships team title May 28-30 at the CSUS Aquatic Center in Sacramento, California.

Mercyhurst edged Humboldt State by one point to earn its first national championship in school history. UC Davis had won both national crowns since the Division II championships were established in 2002. The Lakers' one-point victory was the slimmest margin of victory in the championships' history. UC Davis won back-to-back championships by five points both years.

Western Washington finished third in the team competition. The Vikings were national runner-ups in 2002 and 2003. Barry earned fourth place to match its highest finish in the championships.

In the Eights final, Mercyhurst finished ahead of Humboldt State, Florida Tech and Western Washington with a winning time of 7:02.9. Humboldt State claimed a victory in the Fours with a time of 7:57.5. Mercyhurst and Western Washington finished the race in second and third place, respectively.

Adrian Spracklen, head coach at Mercyhurst, said earning a national championship had been a goal for the team.

"We're an established school, but we had yet to win a title. It took a perfect race to win, and that is exactly what happened. It's just a testament to the girls, the coaching staff and the administration to win the national title in sunny Sacramento," Spracklen said.

After reaching the shore, Ithaca begins to celebrate its first team title.

2004 Championships

Highlights

Ithaca Backs September Title Talk With May Championship: Ithaca topped Smith to earn its first Division III Women's Rowing Championships team title May 28-29 at the CSUS Aquatic Center in Sacramento, California.

The Bombers, who improved on last year's third-place finish, became the third different crew to win the title in the brief three-year history of the championships. Williams took the crown in 2002 and Colby captured the team competition last year.

Ithaca posted seven points to earn the title, the lowest point total in the championships' history. In Division III competition, the crew with the lowest number of points wins. Smith collected 10 points to finish second, its best finish in the championships. Before this year, the Pioneers' highest finish was sixth in 2002. Williams rounded out the top three teams in the team competition.

Becky Robinson, head coach at Ithaca, said her team began talking about winning the championship last year.

"We started talking about this in September, and an incredible amount of work was put into this championship. Amazingly, these were the same lineups we started with at the beginning of the season," Robinson said.

In the Eights final, Ithaca, the only crew to place two boats in the race, turned in a winning time of 7:00.8. Smith I, Williams I, Puget Sound I, Coast Guard I and Ithaca II rounded out the field.

Trinity (Connecticut) earned a victory in the Eights petite final with a time of 7:16.4. Smith II crossed the finish line in second, with Puget Sound II, Williams II, Trinity II and Coast Guard II following, respectively.

UCLA first baseman Claire Sua (20) retires California's Lindsay James during the Bruins' Women's College World Series championship win. Sua homered during UCLA's game-winning three-run rally in the fifth inning, and James scored the Bears' lone run.

2004 Championship

Highlights

Bruins Go Back to Back for 10th Series Crown: UCLA's Claire Sua homered and freshman Kristen Dedmon singled in two runs to lift the Bruins to their second straight Women's College World Series championship.

In a rematch of last year's title game, UCLA downed California, 3-1, on Memorial Day in Oklahoma City, to collect its 10th NCAA crown. The Bruins became the first back-to-back champions since Arizona in 1996-97.

This was the 11th all-Pacific-10 Conference national championship final since 1991, the first year two Pac-10 teams appeared in the title game.

The Bears, who were making their third consecutive appearance in the championship game, opened the scoring in the top of the first inning. Lindsey James drew a walk from Bruins' hurler Keira Goerl and advanced to second on a Haley Woods single. Jessica Pamanian plated James on a one-hopper down the third base line that hit the bag and headed into left field to give California an early 1-0 lead.

Bears pitcher Kelly Anderson was perfect through four innings. She retired the first 12 UCLA batters she faced and recorded four strikeouts. Sua, the Bruins' senior first baseman, swatted Anderson's first pitch of the fifth over the left center field fence to knot the game at 1-1. It was just Sua's second hit of the Series, and only the 10th home run allowed by Anderson this year.

Anderson hit the next batter, Stephanie Ramos, and walked Jodie Legaspi before being relieved by Kristina Thorson. Baserunners Ramos and Legaspi also were exchanged for pinch runners Amanda Simpson and Tara Henry, who were bunted over by Emily Zaplatosch.

Dedmon, pinch hitting for Julie Hoshizaki in her only Series plate appearance, launched a shot up the middle that scored Simpson and Henry to break the tie and seal a 3-1 victory for the defending champs.

"Cal was an incredible opponent. I tip my cap to them," said UCLA head coach Sue Enquist. "Keira (Goerl) did what she had to do to keep us in the ball game. I'm so extremely proud of this team because they never stopped believing."

Goerl, who no-hit California in last year's championship game, allowed seven hits, struck out four and walked three in a complete-game effort. She closed the season at 31-7 and joins Arizona's Susie Parra (1993-94) and fellow Bruin Debbie Doom (1984-85) as the only pitchers to win back-to-back championships.

With the losing effort, Anderson becomes the fourth pitcher in Women's College World Series history to lose multiple title games. Anderson also fell short in last year's championship matchup.

Diane Ninemire, head coach at California, said she was proud of the way the Bears opened the game.

"I thought that was a key thing for us to get a good start. Unfortunately, we fell behind, but my team kept fighting," she said. "It was unfortunate that we did not get the key hit with people in scoring position. But I can't be any prouder of this group of young ladies. They worked extremely hard throughout the year."

The total attendance for this year's Women's College World Series topped out at 41,034 to break the previous mark of 38,102 established in 2001. The Bruins, who closed out the year at 47-9, and the Bears, who finished at 53-13, played in front 5,735 fans, the second-largest crowd in Series championship-game history.

Joining UCLA's Goerl and Legaspi on the all-tournament team were Bruins Caitlin Benyi and Lisa Dodd, and Anderson, Pamanian and Vicky Galindo of California. Oklahoma's Christina Enea, Camille Harris of LSU, Stanford's Lauren Lappin and Jessica van der Linden of Florida State also made the team. LSU pitcher Kristin Schmidt was named the most outstanding player.

Angelo State Bounces Back in Rubber Game for First Title: Last year, Angelo State finished its softball campaign with a sparkling 50-9 record but was one victory shy of becoming one of the final eight teams in the national championship tournament.

Facing high expectations for an even better season from a senior-laden team this year, the Rambelles did not disappoint, winning the Division II Softball Championship with a 7-3 triumph over Florida Southern May 16 in Altamonte Springs, Florida.

The finals were staged as part of the first Division II National Championships Festival.

The championship game was the third time the teams had met in the tournament. Angelo State squeezed by Florida Southern, 2-1, in Game 8, and the Moccasins hung a 7-0 loss on the Rambelles earlier on the final day to force a deciding nightcap.

Until the final two games, offense was hard to come by in the tournament. Of the first 13 games, 11 were decided by two runs or fewer, with an average of three runs per game. Angelo State and Florida Southern combined for 17 runs and averaged more than eight runs per game in the last two contests.

In the final championship game, Angelo State struck early. Alexis Wing walked in the first inning, stole second and moved to third on a passed ball before scoring on an error. Florida Southern pulled even in the bottom of the inning when Krista Bradley, who reached base on a error, scored on an Ashley Alpizar single.

The Rambelles countered with an offensive explosion in the second, pushing their lead to 5-1 on the strength of a lead-off home run by Cat Mareno and a three-run shot off the bat of Michelle Hofmann.

In the fourth inning, Angelo State padded its lead on a Wing groundout and a Hofmann single.

The Moccasins added single runs in the fourth and seventh innings but were unable to sustain rallies against Angelo State hurler Arin Spence, who chalked up four strikeouts and no walks in a nearly complete-game effort. Claudia Lopez got the final out of the game after allowing just one hit. Spence finished the tournament with a record of 3-0.

Florida Southern pitcher Megan Brown was tagged for three runs, three hits and a walk in two innings of work.

Angelo State head coach Travis Scott described the weekend of competition as long, but good.

"I tell you, that was exciting," he said. "We were real disappointed after that first game. But we came out and swung the bats in the second game. Our kids did a great job of bouncing back."

Chris Bellotto, head coach at Florida Southern, said her players blended youth and experience to put themselves in position to win, but Angelo State was better when it mattered most.

"It didn't work out for us, but hat's off to Angelo State. They're a very good team," she said.

Angelo State completed a 47-11 season, while Florida Southern, which also was national runner-up in 1987, finished the year with a 55-8 record.

Angelo State's Hofmann was named the tournament's most outstanding player. Teammates Spence, Wing and Lopez joined her on the all-tournament team, along with Florida Southern's Alpizar, Brown, Stephanie Huber and Jesse Shepherd. Also on the team were Abby Augdahl and Abby Velta of St. Cloud State, Shippensburg's Jaime Dacey, Cassidi Caringi of Western New Mexico and Caldwell's Corinne Reiser.

Softball

DIVISION III

2004 Championship

Highlights

Tommies Keep Slate Unblemished With First Title: St. Thomas (Minnesota) needed just two runs to slide by Moravian and capture its first Division III Softball Championship.

The Tommies blanked the Greyhounds, who were making their first championship-series appearance, 2-0, in a weather-delayed final May 17 in Salem, Virginia.

The victory stretched St. Thomas' winning streak to 41. The Tommies went 7-0 in the tournament, never trailed and allowed just 10 runs during their regional and national-championship run. The win streak is the longest in Division III and is the second-longest for all divisions.

The contest was scoreless through four innings. St. Thomas' Kathleen Fitzpatrick broke through with a bunt single in the bottom of the fifth and stole second. She scored on a Nikki Conway single. Michelle Wong plated Conway later in the inning on a single down the right-field line to complete the scoring for the game.

"It was just a great team effort, tonight and all season," said St. Thomas head coach John Tschida. "A lot of players stepped up, just like they have all year. We have six seniors who didn't all get to make the on-field contributions, but they made a huge impact with their work ethic and attitudes."

Tschida also guided St. Mary's (Minnesota) to the national championship in 2000.

Moravian hitters managed only one hit – a double by Krissy Cianfichi – off St. Thomas sophomore pitcher Janet Nagle, who turned in a complete game, tallied four strikeouts and allowed just one walk.

The Greyhounds' Meagan Hennessy gave up two runs, five hits and no walks in the losing effort. Her three strikeouts brought the sophomore pitcher's season total to 168, a school record. Moravian, which completed the 2004 campaign with a 40-6 record, also established a school record for victories in a season.

St. Thomas finished the year 46-4.

Joining St. Thomas' Conway, Nagle, Carrie Embree and Kaja Martinson on the all-tournament team were Hennessy, Lauren Homa and Melissa Soroka of Moravian; Salisbury's Leslie White, Lacey Lister and Erin Ruest; Muskingum's Erin Zupko and Kim Tackett; Alma's Colleen Trybus; Chapman's Brittany Ziegler; and Amanda Dow-Allen of Wheaton (Massachusetts).

Janet Nagle won her 31st consecutive start with a one-hitter in St. Thomas's (Minnesota) 2-0 Division III championship-game victory over Moravian. Nagle struck out four and benefited from diving catches by center fielder Kristi Huegel and first baseman Mandy Bowlby, and RBI singles from Nikki Conway and Michelle Wong.

Tennis

DIVISION I

2004 Championships

Highlights

Cardinal Earn Crown Over Pac-10 Rival: Stanford reclaimed the title it lost last year to Florida in the Division I Women's Tennis Championships with a 4-1 victory over in-state rival UCLA May 23 at the University of Georgia's Dan Magill Tennis Complex. The victory marked the Cardinal's 13th victory in this event.

Stanford's Amber Liu won the singles title for the second consecutive year, making her the third Cardinal student-athlete to win back-to-back titles since 1982. She defeated Fresno State's Jelena Pandzic, 6-4, 0-6, 6-3, for the victory May 29.

UCLA captured the doubles title May 29 when Daniela Bercek and Lauren Fisher combined for the win with a 6-4, 6-4 victory over Marshall's Jessica Johnson and Ashley Kroh. With the victory, Bercek and Fisher, unseeded in the 32-team tournament, give UCLA the all-time lead in total NCAA doubles championships.

Stanford's team championship is the third national title for head coach Lele Forood, who has been with the Cardinal for four years and boasts a 111-3 record during her tenure. Stanford, which finished the season undefeated, last won this event in 2002.

"When you play a team for the fourth time in a year, you know each other pretty well, and UCLA came out fired up," Forood said. "We knew each match would be a grind and it was a tight match all the way through, but everyone stepped up and played very well."

The Cardinal duo of Liu and Barnes recorded Stanford's first win of the championship with an 8-3 triumph over UCLA's Jackie Carleton and Feriel Esseghir. Lauren Barnikow and Erin Burdette clinched the doubles point for the Cardinal with an 8-6 win over UCLA's Bercek and Fisher.

Barnes was first off the court in singles, defeating Carleton in straight sets, 6-2, 6-1. Stanford's Theresa Logar downed UCLA's Fisher, 6-4, 6-3. Burdette clinched the title for Stanford with a 7-6, 6-3 win over Esseghir.

UCLA's Sarah Gregg provided the lone win for the Bruins, 6-3, 6-3 over Barnikow.

In singles play, No. 4 seed Liu defeated No. 3 seed Pandzic to finish her season with a 25-4 record. Pandzic's record fell to 29-2.

"This court has been very good to me all week," said Liu. "This has been quite a week."

In doubles play, UCLA captured its first title since 1995 with Fisher and Berecek's win over Johnson and Kroh of Marshall. UCLA last made an appearance in the doubles championship in 2002 when Fisher teamed with former Bruin Megan Bradley, now of Miami. That duo fell to Stanford's Lauren Kalvaria and Gabriela Lastra.

Johnson of Marshall and Fisher of UCLA were junior doubles partners in Pennsylvania before beginning their collegiate careers.

Tennis

DIVISION II

2004 Championship

Highlights

Seasiders Stretch Streak With Dominant Win: Brigham Young-Hawaii continued its domination of Division II women's tennis with a 5-1 victory over Lynn May 15 at the Division II National Championships Festival in Florida.

The Seasiders won their third consecutive title and their seventh national championship in the last eight years. The match also increased Brigham Young-Hawaii's dual-match winning streak to 101 and improved their season record to 35-0. Lynn, which last won this event in 2001, finished its season 24-2. This marks the Knights' fifth season in a row with 20-plus wins, and the 24 victories ties a school record set back in 2001.

Brigham Young-Hawaii owns an 8-1 record over Lynn, and this marked the fifth consecutive meeting between the two teams in the NCAA tournament, dating back to 2000. The Knights picked up their third NCAA championship in 2001 with a victory over Brigham Young-Hawaii, only to fall to the Seasiders in 2002 and 2003 in the semifinals.

Brigham Young-Hawaii took two of the three doubles matches and then secured the win with wins at Nos. 1, 5 and 6 singles.

Seasiders senior Amy Sun paced the win by combining with Judy Weng for an 8-2 doubles win at No. 2 doubles and then blitzing her way to a 6-0, 6-0 victory at the No. 5 singles slot. Adrienn Hegedus also contributed a pair of points for the Seasiders with a 6-0, 6-2 win at the No. 1 singles position after an 8-6 doubles win, with partner Jing Jing Liu, at No. 1 doubles.

The third-ranked pair of Hegedus and Liu knocked off the second-ranked doubles team of Monika Mastalirova and Marie-Julie Barbier. Gurianna Korinihona provided Brigham Young-Hawaii with the final point of the match with a 6-1, 6-2 win at No. 6 singles.

"The girls were very focused today and are happy to bring another championship back to campus," Brigham Young-Hawaii head coach Dave Porter said. "We knew we were playing a strong team today in Lynn and that they would be very competitive. We were glad to get it done."

Emory's Jolyn Taylor teamed with Mary Ellen Gordon to win the doubles title for the second consecutive year. She also reached the singles final, in which she lost to Gordon.

2004 Championships

Highlights

Emory Makes History With Second Straight Sweep: The Emory University women's tennis team proved its dominance in Division III with a second consecutive sweep of the event May 14-17 in Memphis.

The Eagles became the first women's tennis team in any NCAA division to repeat as a "triple crown" winner by capturing the NCAA team, singles and doubles championships. Emory senior Mary Ellen Gordon won the NCAA singles and doubles championships for the second year in a row, both in all-Emory finals.

For the second consecutive year, Gordon beat teammate Jolyn Taylor in the singles finals, 6-4, 6-7 (4), 7-5. Gordon and Taylor teamed up for their second consecutive doubles title by beating teammates Margaret Moscato and Carina Alberelli in the finals, 6-2, 6-1. This is the first time in Division III history that teammates played each other for the doubles crown.

Gordon became the first player in NCAA history, man or woman, in any division, to win the national doubles championship all four years. With two team titles, two singles championships and four doubles championships, Gordon finishes with eight NCAA championships, making her the most decorated female player in NCAA history in any division.

Emory defeated Amherst, 5-0, to capture the team title. It was the Eagles' second consecutive team title and third overall.

In its team win, the Eagles took a commanding 3-0 lead with strong doubles performances. Gordon and Taylor defeated the Jeffs' squad of Tristan Hendrick and Rachel Holt at No. 1 doubles, 8-5. At No. 2 doubles, Emory's Carina Alberelli and Margaret Moscato defeated Wallis Molchen and Kristen Raverta, 8-5. Also earning an 8-5 win was the No. 3 team of Jamie Chan and Richelle Marasigan as they defeated Amherst's Hadley Miller and Erin Murphy.

The Eagles would not let up as they entered singles play. Needing two points to claim the championship, Gordon defeated Hendrick, 6-2, 6-3, at No. 1 singles. Moscato clinched the victory at No. 5 singles with a 6-1, 6-2 win over Molchen. The match was played to decision, leaving the remaining four singles matches unfinished.

Highlights

UCLA Takes Dramatic Path to End 21-Year Drought: UCLA emerged from a highly competitive pack on the last day of the Division I Women's Outdoor Track and Field Championships, then hung on for dear life through the final relay to win its first team title in 21 years.

The Bruins, who have finished second at the meet eight times since 1988, took advantage of a second chance in the 400-meter relay, then held off a late charge by defending champion LSU in the meet's final event, the 1,600-meter relay, to win the crown June 9-12 at Texas.

UCLA also collected two individual titles en route to the victory, including a record performance by defending champion Sheena Johnson, who improved on her own meet mark in the 400-meter intermediate hurdles. Chelsea Johnson claimed the Bruins' other title, in the pole vault.

As it turned out, the key to victory was UCLA's first eight points in the meet. UCLA failed to qualify for the final during preliminaries of the 400-meter relay, but got a second chance when Texas' relay team was disqualified. The Bruins took advantage by finishing second in the event on Day 3 of the meet.

Chelsea Johnson's Day 3 victory in the pole vault and Monique Henderson's second-place finish in the 400-meter dash on Day 4 pulled UCLA squarely into contention. Then, Sheena Johnson's victory in the 400 hurdles – one of three meet-record performances at the championships – gave UCLA the lead, six points ahead of Nebraska and 20 points ahead of LSU.

The Bruins were helped further when LSU senior Stephanie Durst was disqualified for a lane violation in the 200-meter dash final, scrubbing what appeared to be a second-place finish. But LSU set the stage for one last attempt at denying the Bruins the title when Neisha Bernard-Thomas won the 800-meter run.

The Tigers entered the 1,600-meter relay as a favorite and delivered on that promise with a meet-record victory, but UCLA managed a fourth-place finish in that closing event – just good enough to finish a point ahead of LSU in the final standings, 69-68.

"I don't like having a dramatic finish like that," said UCLA coach Jeanette Bolden, who coached the Bruins to indoor team titles in 2000 and 2001 but has seen her outdoor teams finish second five times in her 11-year tenure at the school. "It took all of me just to stay in the stadium (during the relay).

"We've been so close and stubbed our toe at this meet so many times. I just got off the phone with Jackie (Joyner-Kersee, a former UCLA student-athlete) and she said, 'It's about time – it's our time!'"

UCLA won the first two Division I women's team titles in NCAA championships history, in 1982 and 1983.

LSU fell short in its bid to repeat as team titlist but claimed the most event titles of any team at the championships with its sweep of the two relays and the 800-meter victory.

"Anytime you can go to the wire and do your best you can't be unhappy," LSU coach Pat Henry said. "What the ladies' mile relay was able to do tonight was tremendous."

The all-senior team of Bernard-Thomas, HazelAnn Regis, Monique Hall and Nadia Davy broke South Carolina's two-year-old meet record in the event by a second, finishing in 3:25.26. Earlier, the Tigers' other relay, the senior-laden 400-meter team of Lolo Jones, Hall, Durst and anchor Muna Lee, successfully defended the title it won at last year's meet, falling just short of LSU's 15-year-old record in the event.

"We did everything we could do tonight," Henry said. "People say it was the disqualification that hurt us, but we could have scored in other areas. I have faith in the officials; if they use good judgment then that's OK. It's a track meet; anything can happen."

Nebraska never has finished better than third in the championships, but the Cornhuskers did it for the fifth time in school history as Ineta Radevica successfully defended her 2003 title in the triple jump and completed an indoor-outdoor sweep of the event this year. Becky Breisch added a title for Nebraska in the discus throw and finished third in the shot put, an event she won last year.

Host Texas finished fourth behind the only other meet record at the championships, posted by Nichole Denby in the 100-meter hurdles. The Longhorns recorded third-place finishes in three other events, including sophomore Sanya Richards' performance in the 400-meter dash, an event she won last year.

Florida, whose Candice Scott successfully defended her title in the hammer throw, finished fifth.

Two distance runners also successfully defended individual championships. Mississippi State's Tiffany McWilliams again won the 1,500 meters – following up her March victory in the indoor mile run – and Stanford's Alicia Craig won the 10,000-meter run. Another distance specialist, Kim Smith of Providence, followed up her indoor sweep of the 3,000- and 5,000-meter run with her third title of the year, in the outdoor 5,000 meters.

Georgia's Hyleas Fountain came up short in her attempt to repeat as heptathlon champion and complete an indoor-outdoor sweep of that event, but she completed a sweep in the long jump with her victory over Nebraska's Radevica. Also, Georgia Tech's Chaunte Howard (high jump) and North Carolina's Laura Gerraughty (shot put) completed indoor-outdoor sweeps of their events.

Shandria Brown of Lincoln (Missouri) swept the 100- and 200-meter dashes for the second consecutive year.

2004 Championships

Highlights

Lincoln (Missouri) Sprints to Crown: Defending champion Lincoln (Missouri) dominated the sprints and swept two relays to win the Division II Women's Outdoor Track and Field Championships May 27-29 at Cal Poly Pomona.

The Blue Tigers' Shandria Brown was a double winner for the second straight year in the 100- and 200-meter dashes, and teammate Moya Thompson led a 22-point effort by four Lincoln runners in the 400-meter dash with her repeat victory in that event.

Lincoln sprinters added an additional 26 points to those two winners' 30 points in the three events, and other Blue Tigers added precious points by scoring in the 800-meter run, 400-meter hurdles and shot put, to go with the 20 points that Lincoln earned from the relay victories.

Lincoln needed nearly all of those points to outscore runner-up Adams State, which scored most of its points in the distance events but also made its presence felt in the sprints and finished only four points behind the Blue Tigers.

Adams State's Zoila Gomez joined Lincoln's Brown as the only double winners at the meet, winning the 10,000-meter run by nearly a minute with a time of 34:16.34, then posting a nearly 19-second victory in the 5,000-meter run with her time of 16:32.97. However, Gomez, who had qualified for the latter event with a time under 16 minutes, was unable to challenge Julie Bowers' 19-year-old record of 15:59.34, set for West Chester.

The Grizzlies' Stephanie Bylander finished second behind Gomez in the 10,000 meters, and Adams State also scored at least two runners in both the 3,000- and 5,000-meter events. The Coloradoans' Deborah Bome also contributed by scoring in the 100- and 200-meter dashes and by anchoring the Grizzlies' third-place performance in the 400-meter relay, but those efforts weren't quite enough to topple the Blue Tigers.

"We expected to get a lot more points in the 200 and we were concerned Adams State had a lot left," said Lincoln coach Victor Thomas, whose Blue Tigers actually trailed the Grizzlies entering the final event of the meet, the 1,600-meter relay.

"I take my hat off to the girls," Thomas said, after the relay team of Lileith Simms, Marlene Smith, Kelly Marshall and Thompson won the event, while Adams State finished sixth.

Abilene Christian, whose Stephanie Warren won the triple jump, finished third at the championships. North Dakota State, with Kinsey Coles' 800-meter victory, finished fourth, and Angelo State took fifth behind LaTisha Burns' victory in the long jump.

Cal State Bakersfield joined Lincoln and Adams State on the list of schools claiming multiple titles, as the Roadrunners' Cecilia Barnes won the discus throw and April Burton claimed the victory in the hammer throw.

There were no new championships records at the meet.

Outdoor Track and Field

DIVISION III

2004 Championships

Highlights

Titans Give Performance to Remember: Wisconsin-Oshkosh's dynamic duo of Liz Woodworth and Robyn Jarocki dominated the Division III Women's Outdoor Track and Field Championships May 27-29 at Millikin, each turning in record performances and together collecting three individual titles as the Titans won the team title.

The victory was Wisconsin-Oshkosh's sixth at the meet, but first since 1997, tying the Titans with Christopher Newport for most Division III outdoor track team titles.

Woodworth won her third straight 800-meter run title and also collected her first 1,500-meter crown, winning the latter race in record time and outpacing two-time defending champion Missy Buttry of Wartburg in the process. The senior posted an Olympic Trials qualifying time of 4:15.20 in the 1,500, which bettered Buttry's year-old record in the event by more than five seconds and gave Woodworth a career total of four outdoor titles to go with three indoor 800-meter wins.

Meanwhile, Jarocki won the hammer throw with a record toss of 58.63 meters (192 feet, 4 inches) and also scored with a third-place finish in the discus throw and fourth-place finish in the shot put.

Combined, Woodworth and Jarocki scored 41 of the team's 57 points as the Titans completed a sweep of this year's indoor and outdoor team titles. The duo repeated a feat they accomplished at the indoor championships in March, with Woodworth's selection as most outstanding track performer and Jarocki's selection as most outstanding field athlete.

However, unlike Wisconsin-Oshkosh's $28\frac{1}{2}$-point victory at the indoor meet, the competition for the outdoor team title was close, as Calvin finished only $2\frac{3}{4}$ points behind the Titans despite the fact that the Knights did not win a single event.

The Knights scored points in 10 of the meet's 21 events, including a second-place finish by Katie Corner ahead of Jarocki in the discus throw and Kimberly Vanderzee's tie with three other jumpers for second place in the high jump.

Calvin made once last lunge at catching Wisconsin-Oshkosh in the meet's final event, but the Knights' third-place finish in the 1,600-meter relay wasn't quite enough to catch the Titans.

Defending champion Wheaton (Massachusetts) finished third at the meet as Amber James concluded her standout career with her fourth straight victory in the 400-meter run and third straight title in the 200-meter run. Her seven titles overall in Division III outdoor competition ties James with Kim Oden of Nebraska Wesleyan for the second-highest total of individual career outdoor victories, trailing only Rhondale Jones of Lincoln (Pennsylvania), who won nine events.

James and Darcel Edwards of McMurray each equaled another championships record, joining Oden and triple jumper Eleena Zhelezov of Brandeis as the only four-time winners of an event. Edwards collected her fourth straight victory in the triple jump, and also finished second in the long jump, an event she won last year.

Wartburg finished fourth, largely on the strength of Buttry's successful defense of her title in the 5,000-meter run and her second-place finish in the 1,500. The College of New Jersey swept the meet's two relay events and Tiffany Clark finished second behind James in the 400-meter dash as the Lions finished fifth in the team standings.

Three other competitors joined Woodworth and Jarocki in setting records during the meet, led by Elizabeth Wanless of Bates, who completed a sweep of this year's indoor and outdoor shot put events. Wanless, who also set the indoor record in March, bettered the 16-year-old outdoor mark by two feet.

Also recording new marks were Julia Rudd of Wisconsin-La Crosse, who beat a year-old mark in the 3,000-meter steeplechase, and Raegan Schultz of Central (Iowa), who improved on a five-year-old mark in the heptathlon.

McMurry's Darcell Edwards joined a group of only four Division III women to win the same event four times, as she captured the triple jump crown every year from 2001 through 2004.

Water Polo

NATIONAL COLLEGIATE

2004 Championship

Highlights

Trojans Tally First Title in High-Scoring Final: Southern California outlasted a fiesty Loyola Marymount squad to capture its first National Collegiate Women's Water Polo Championship and complete an unbeaten season May 9 at Stanford.

In the highest-scoring game in the brief four-year history of the championship, the Trojans toppled the Lions, 10-8, to win their first title in their first tournament appearance. Loyola Marymount was making its first appearance in the title game.

With the victory, Southern California culminated a perfect 29-0 season.

Southern California freshman Brittany Hayes contributed three goals and four assists in the winning effort. Seven other Trojans also registered scores in the game. Loyola Marymount teammates Cara Colton and Stacia Peterson combined for seven goals for the Lions.

Southern California opened the scoring when Lauren Wenger found the back of the net off an assist from Hayes on a six-on-five situation just 1:43 into the contest. Hayes added a second goal at the 3:03 mark, but the Lions sliced the deficit in half on the first of four goals by Colton. The Trojans re-established a two-goal lead just before the close of the first period on an Erin Wilson skip shot.

Southern California added to its lead just 22 seconds into the second period when Liz Simms rifled a shot past Lions goalie Katie Murray. Loyola Marymount countered with tallies by Devon Wright and Peterson to close the gap to 4-3 heading into the half.

Eight of the 11 goals scored in the second half came off extra-man situations. In the third frame, Southern California's lead swelled to 8-5 on the strength of two goals by Hayes and one each by Eszter Gyori and 2004 Mountian Pacific Sports Federation player of the year Moriah Van Norman.

With less than six minutes left in the game, Erika Figge pushed the Trojans ahead by 9-6. The Lions managed to pull to within one at 9-8 on back-to-back goals by Colton. Southern California junior Anna Pardo added an insurance goal at the 3:52 mark to seal the victory.

Southern California head coach Jovan Vavic said winning the championship is a big relief.

"Once you win a national title, it's like getting a huge monkey off your back," he said. "I did not really look at the record (29-0) because for us, it was more important to win the title."

The Lions, who improved on last year's third-place finish, stunned Stanford, 5-4, in semifinal play to advance to the final. Loyola Marymount finished 25-6 on the season. The Trojans defeated Hartwick, 12-4, in their semifinal contest to earn a berth in the title game.

In the third-place match, Stanford downed Hartwick, 12-2. The Cardinal, the 2003 championship runner-up, ended the season at 20-5. Hartwick closed the year at 33-9.

Southern California's Hayes, who piled up five goals in two games, was named the tournament's most outstanding player. Joining Hayes on the all-tournament squad were teammates Simms, Van Norman and goalkeeper Kelly Graff, as well as Loyola Marymount's Wright and Teresa Guidi.

Second-team all-tournament members were Wenger and Erika Figge of Southern California, Loyola Marymount netminder Murray, Kate Chambers from Hartwick, and Stanford's Lauren Faust, Hannah Luber and Wendy Watkins.

Southern California goalie Kelly Graff may not be holding the ball, but she made one of her five saves, in the Trojans' 10-8 win over Loyola Marymount in the final.

Summary

NATIONAL COLLEGIATE/DIVISION I

2003-04 Championships

Highlights

The wealth was spread around this season in Division I men's team championships as no school won more than a single championship. Three schools won their first overall men's team championship, with Delaware claiming Division I-AA football, Baylor taking the Division I tennis title and New Mexico capturing the National Collegiate skiing title. California added to its title total with its first championship in a particular sport, as the Bears finished atop the 2004 leaderboard in golf.

In individual sports, Texas led the way with 10 championships, including seven swimming trophies, two indoor track and field trophies, and one outdoor track and field trophy. Auburn added seven championships to its total, and Arkansas won six titles. The only team to win an individual title for the first time overall was Texas Tech in outdoor track and field. Baylor won its first individual tennis title, and Stanford won its first wrestling title.

Lars Loeseth's third-place finish in the men's slalom helped New Mexico to the 2004 National Collegiate skiing championship, the Lobos' first NCAA team title credited on the men's chart.

National Collegiate/Division I Team Championships

(Note: Each school involved in a tie is credited with one championship. The boxing championships began in 1932 and were discontinued after the 1960 championships. The following schools are credited with unofficial team championships in the following sports: Boxing—Wisconsin 4, Idaho 2, Catholic, Penn St., Syracuse, Virginia, Washington St., West Virginia, one each. Outdoor Track and Field—Illinois, Southern California, Stanford, one each. Wrestling—Oklahoma St. 3, Iowa St., Indiana, one each. All other figures denote official team championships.)

National Collegiate/Division I Individual Championships

(Note: Each school is credited with one championship for each competitor involved in a tie. The boxing championships began in 1932 and were discontinued after the 1960 championships. The individual championships totals for fencing, rifle and skiing include some championships won by women. In tennis, two championships are awarded each year: one to the school whose competitor wins the singles championship and one to the school whose team wins the doubles championship. In swimming, track and skiing, relay victories count as one championship.)

+Division II school. ++Division III school. +++NAIA school.

Summary

DIVISION II

Eric Patten (right, #5) is congratulated after homering in Delta State's win over Grand Valley State that clinched the school's first Division II baseball championship.

2003-04 Championships

Highlights

Abilene Christian was the only school to win two sports, taking both indoor and outdoor track and field. Those victories moved the Wildcats into first place in team titles with 26 championships. Three schools won team titles for the first time in any sport – Le Moyne (lacrosse), Lynn (soccer) and South Carolina-Aiken (golf). Also, three teams won team titles for the first time in a particular sport – Delta State (baseball), Kennesaw State (basketball) and West Florida (tennis).

Individually, Cal St. Bakersfield led the way with eight wins, six in swimming and two in indoor track and field. Drury added seven swimming titles and Abilene Christian won three indoor track and field titles, and three outdoor track and field titles. Two schools claimed their first individual titles in any sport – Harding (outdoor track and field) and Livingstone (outdoor track and field).

Team Championships

(Note: Each school involved in a tie is credited with one championship. The gymnastics championships began in 1968 and were discontinued after the 1984 championships. Lacrosse was discontinued from 1982-92 before being reinstated. Ice Hockey was discontinued in 2000.)

Summary

DIVISION III

2003 2004 NCAA® CHAMPIONSHIPS

2003-04 Championships

Highlights

For the fourth consecutive year, Wisconsin-La Crosse won both the indoor and outdoor track and field titles to increase its overall total to 24, trimming Kenyon's overall lead to one. Kenyon won swimming for the 25th time. Middlebury won the tennis championship for the first time and also claimed its seventh ice hockey title. In addition to Middlebury, three other teams earned their first championship in a particular sport: Gustavus Adolphus (golf); Trinity (Tex.) (soccer); and Wisconsin-Stevens Point (basketball). George Fox (baseball) won its first team title of any kind.

In individual championships, Kenyon led the way with 11 titles, all coming in swimming. That performance increased the Lords' overall total in individual titles to 219, also all the result of the swimming and diving program. That total is more than four times that of second-place Lincoln (Pennsylvania) outdoor track and field. Wisconsin-Oshkosh was just behind Kenyon's 2003-04 performance with 10 individual titles — six in outdoor track and field, three in indoor track and field, and one in wrestling.

George Fox (outdoor track and field), Mary Washington (tennis) and New York University (indoor track and field) won their first individual titles in any sport. Chicago won its first two outdoor track and field individual championships, St. Norbert won its first indoor track and field event, Springfield took a swimming event for the first time, and Wartburg won the individual cross country crown for the first time.

Mary Washington's Dan Uyar (foreground) and Paul Bristow captured the 2004 Division III men's doubles crown, the first individual championship in Mary Washington's history.

Individual Championships

(Note: Each school is credited with one championship for each competitor involved in a tie. In tennis, two championships are awarded each year: one to the school whose competitor wins the singles championship and one to the school whose team wins the doubles championship. In swimming and track, relays count as one championship.) +Division I school. ++Division II school. +++ NAIA school.

Summary

NATIONAL COLLEGIATE/DIVISION I

Photo by James Nielsen/NCAA Photos

Nebraska's Amanda Burgoyne eyes the target at the 2004 National Collegiate Bowling Championship. The Cornhuskers won the title in the inaugural year of the NCAA's 88th championship.

2003-04 Championships

Highlights

UCLA was the only school to win four team championships, as the Bruins claimed golf, gymnastics, softball and outdoor track and field. The four titles also moved UCLA ahead of LSU into second place in the all-time team championships category. Southern California and Stanford each won two team championships. The Cardinal won cross country and tennis, and the Trojans won water polo (for the first time) and volleyball. Minnesota (ice hockey) won a team championship for the first time in any sport, and Nebraska captured the inaugural bowling championship.

In individual championships, Georgia won 10 titles – six in swimming; three in indoor track and field; and one in outdoor track and field. Six schools – California, LSU, Nebraska, North Carolina, Stanford and Texas – won four championships each. The four individual titles won by Stanford increased its first-place all-time total to 155. The Cardinal swimming and diving team increased its championships total to 117, which leads all institutions in titles in a single sport. Several schools claimed individual titles in a particular sport for the first time, including California (golf), Georgia Tech (outdoor track and field), Mississippi State (indoor track and field) and North Carolina (gymnastics).

National Collegiate/Division I Team Championships

(Note: Women's fencing was discontinued after 1989; a coed championship has been held since 1990. Coed championships are recorded in the men's section because mixed teams of men and women competitors are designated as men's teams in NCAA legislation.)

National Collegiate/Division I Individual Championships

(Notes: Each school is credited with one championship for each competitor involved in a tie. The fencing, rifle and skiing champions are included with the Men's National Collegiate/Division I Championships because mixed teams of men and women competitors are designated as men's teams in NCAA legislation. In tennis, two championships are awarded each year: one to the school whose competitor wins the singles championship and one to the school whose team wins the doubles championship. In swimming and track, relay victories count as one championship.)

DIVISION II

Megan Storck (center) of California (Pennsylvania) found plenty of opposition on her way to the basket in the 2004 Division II championship game. The Vulcans edged Drury to win their first basketball title.

2003-04 Championships

Highlights

It was a year for new faces as four schools won team championships for the first time in any sport. Those schools were Adelphi (lacrosse), Angelo State (softball), Mercyhurst (rowing) and North Alabama (volleyball). California (Pennsylvania) earned its first championship in basketball, Kennesaw State claimed its first championship in soccer, and Lincoln (Missouri) won the indoor track and field title for the first time.

Cal State Bakersfield won five swimming titles and two outdoor track and field titles to lead the division with seven individual championships. Lincoln (Missouri) was just behind with six.

Six schools won their first individual title in any sport: Brigham Young-Hawaii (cross country), Colorado School of Mines (outdoor track and field), Humboldt State (rowing), Mercyhurst (rowing), Minnesota State Mankato (indoor track and field) and Minnesota State Moorhead (indoor track and field). Additionally, three schools won individual titles for the first time in a particular sport, including Central Missouri State claiming an indoor track and field title, Clark Atlanta winning an outdoor track and field title, and Texas A&M-Kingsville taking an outdoor track and field title.

Summary

Photo by Peter Zuzga/NCAA Photos

Elizabeth Wanless gave Bates its first Division III individual championship by winning the shot put at the 2004 indoor track and field meet. She also won the event at the outdoor championships.

2003-04 Championships

Highlights

Middlebury won three championships, including cross country, ice hockey (for the first time) and lacrosse. Two schools – Oneonta State (soccer) and Wilmington (Ohio) (basketball) – claimed their first championship in any sport. Ithaca won its first rowing title and St. Thomas (Minnesota) won the softball championship for the first time. Kenyon's win in swimming increased its first-place total for championships in a single sport to 20.

In individual championships, Kenyon led the way with 10, all coming in swimming. Nine schools won their first individual titles in any sport. Adrian and Bates each earned two titles, one each in outdoor and indoor track and field, to top the list. The other first-time champions were Connecticut College (swimming), DeSales (indoor track and field), Hiram (swimming), New York University (outdoor track and field), Rensselaer (swimming), Trinity (Texas) (outdoor track and field) and Whitworth (outdoor track and field).

McMurry won individual championships in both golf and indoor track and field for the first time. Three other schools also won an individual championship in a given sport for the first time – Bowdoin (indoor track and field), Gustavus Adolphus (outdoor track and field) and Trinity (Connecticut) (rowing). Kenyon ballooned its division-leading total for all-time individual championships to 209.

Individual Championships

(Notes: In tennis, two championships are awarded each year: one to the school whose competitor wins the singles championship and one to the school whose team wins the doubles championship. In swimming and track, relays count as one championship. From 1996-99, golf was a Division II/III championship. The championship was recorded in the division in which the winner competed.)
