DIVISION II MEN'S

Highlights

'DU' It Again: Drury Sweeps Division II Titles: They stood in a block about 20 strong adjacent to the C.T. Branin Natatorium pool. They clapped to the music blaring from speakers. They cheered the latest of many triumphs from their teammates. They shouted, "DU! DU! DU!"

They were the Drury swimmers and they had every right to be thrilled Saturday night. Both the men's and women's team from the Springfield, Mo., school were in the process of each capturing 2010 NCAA Division II Swimming and Diving championships.

Not that it was a foreign experience. It marked the sixth consecutive crown for the Drury men, who collected 538 points to beat out Incarnate Word (San Antonio) with 403 points and Wayne State (Michigan) with 343.

One might assume Drury coach Brian Reynolds figured from the season's start that his perennial champion men would emerge with another title, but that wasn't necessarily so.

The majority of the points racked up by his 2008-09 team were scored by seniors. This year, freshman distance swimmer Chris Jacobsen and versatile sophomore Jun Han Kim, who won both the 200-yard individual medley and 200-yard butterfly, picked up the slack and ushered what could be a new era of Drury dominance.

"I knew at the beginning of the year a big issue for us was going to be whether we could quickly develop freshmen to take over roles and continue to make progress with the sophomores and juniors," Reynolds said. "The kids love the challenge of coming on to this team and playing such a big part of maintaining our tradition."

Kim said it was talent and camaraderie that translated into championships for both the men and women.

"The main thing is that we bonded with each other and pulled for each other," he said. "If we just trained by ourselves, it wasn't going to happen because there wouldn't have been any motivation. We were inspired by our teammates. And it wasn't just the men's. Our men and women train together and we're a family."

The Panthers arrived on March 13 with a significant, but not overwhelming, lead. But their preliminary runs placed four men and a relay team in the finals, which all but wrapped up the crown.

Just to make sure, they performed brilliantly in the evening session. Jacobsen placed first in the men's 1,650 freestyle.

Considering Drury's tremendous showing, placing second had to be considered a victory. Incarnate Word coach Phil Davis praised his men's team for doing just that.

"I believe we shocked a lot of people here," said Davis. "But we expect to compete against anyone and hold our own. We're going to try to take home the big trophy next year."

A number of swimmers and divers not wearing Drury uniforms also performed well. Clarion's Logan Pearsall claimed both the 1-meter and 3-meter diving championships.

The highlight of the night was a scintillating competition in the men's 200-yard breaststroke. Wayne State freshman Joaquin Abascal Gallegos edged out Ashland's Cheyne Fisher and Kim for the crown. The field was so strong that defending meet champ Zlatan Hamzic of Missouri S&T placed fifth.

The individual championships change every year. The team titles, however, generally end of in the trophy case at Drury University.
