DIVISION II MEN'S

Highlights

Drury sweeps titles again; Panthers become first team to sweep three consecutive titles: Mission accomplished. The “three-sweep” is complete.

In 2010 in Canton, Ohio, Drury became the first school in NCAA Division II history to sweep the men's and women's championships in swimming and diving in consecutive years.

Now, after yet another dominating performance by the Drury men and a solid four days of work by the Drury women in 2011, make that three years in a row.

The Drury men captured their seventh consecutive Division II title and the Drury women their third straight and fourth in the past five years on March 9 to 12 at the Palo Alto Natatorium in San Antonio, Texas.

For the Drury men, it was virtually no contest after the first couple of days of the four-day competition, as they took a 205-point lead into the final night and coasted, finishing with a total of 600½ points to easily outdistance runner-up UC San Diego (345). Wayne State (Michigan) was third with 295, followed by Grand Canyon (292½) and Wingate (252) to round out the top five.

“It was just a total team effort, every kid, every race,” Drury coach Brian Reynolds said. “The kids work so hard all year training for this moment, and it's always such a joy to see them get to experience it, and especially for the seniors who've been through it for four years. It never gets old.”

For the Drury men on March 12, Ryan Arabejo delivered a second-place finish in the 1,650-yard freestyle; Vladimir Sidorkin and Carlos Viveros finished second and eighth, respectively, in the 100-yard freestyle; Jun Han Kim was fourth in the 200-yard breaststroke; and the group of Gerrit Thomsen, Viveros, Kim and Sidorkin establishing a new national record in the 400-yard freestyle relay (2:56.43), breaking the old mark of 2:56.63 set by their Panther teammates in 2009.

The Drury men have now won nine Division II championships in all, with titles in 1999 and 2003 preceding their current run of seven straight. The Drury women picked up their eighth Division II title overall, with the others coming in 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000 and 2007.
