

Indoor Track and Field

DIVISION I MEN'S

Highlights

Florida claims top spot in men's indoor track: At the end of the two-day gamut of ups and downs that is the Division I NCAA Indoor Track and Field National Championships, Florida coach Mike Holloway had a hard time thinking of anything that went wrong for the Gators.

"I don't know," Holloway said. "The worst thing that happened to me was that I had a stomachache for a couple of days."

There's no doubt Holloway left the Randal Tyson Track Center feeling better on Saturday night. That's because a near-flawless performance by the top-ranked Gators resulted in the school's first indoor national championship.

Florida had come close before, finishing second three times in Holloway's seven previous years as head coach.

"It's been a long journey and I'm just so proud of my staff. I'm so proud of my athletes and everybody associated with the program," Holloway said. "I'm almost at a loss for words; that's how happy I am."

"It's just an amazing feeling, an absolutely amazing feeling."

Florida began the day with 20 points, four behind host Arkansas, but had loads of chances to score and didn't waste time getting started. After No. 2 Oregon took the lead with 33 points behind a world-record performance in the heptathlon from Ashton Eaton and a solid showing in the mile, Florida picked up seven points in the 400-meter dash.

The Gators then took the lead on the strength of Jeff Demps' victory in the 60-meter dash. Jeremy Hall added a sixth-place finish in the event, boosting Florida's total to 40 points.

Christian Taylor kept Florida's momentum going, winning the triple jump, while teammate Omar Craddock placed seventh. That gave Florida 52 points, 18 more than second-place Texas A&M.

That was the first time Holloway allowed himself to think about what might be in the works.

"We kind of felt coming in that the first team to 50 would be the national champion, and after we got to 52 after the 60, we felt that we had a chance," Holloway said. "After the 3K we knew we were national champions, but we wanted to make sure until after the (1,600-meter) relay before we started celebrating."

The celebration, at least the one before the official trophy presentation, consisted of a plethora of hugs and smiling faces. Many of the Gators sported T-shirts that read, "Finish The Mission," an apparent reference to last year's runner-up finish.

Florida finished with 57 points, while No. 3 Texas A&M and Oregon tied for second with 44. No. 5 LSU was fourth with 42 and No. 8 Arkansas fifth with 38.

"Actually I was trying to get to 62," Holloway said with a laugh. "I'm greedy, but I'll take 57."
