

Indoor Track and Field

DIVISION II WOMEN'S

Highlights

Blue Tigers seize second title: The NCAA Division II Indoor Track & Field Championships came down to the final event on the women's side: the 1,600-meter relay.

Ashland, Lincoln (Missouri) and Grand Valley State entered the finale separated by just three points.

It was the defending-champion Lincoln Blue Tigers who came up with the big effort to race to the title again with 56 points. Ashland and Grand Valley State tied for second with 47 points.

"When it came down to the 4 x 4, and we kind of thought it was going to come down to the 4 x 4, we knew we were going come out victorious," said Lincoln's Keniesha Jones.

Repeating as champions was quite a feat for a school that has no indoor facilities, said coach Victor Thomas.

"We have to compete every week to keep the kids in shape," he said. "We had the kids (working out) on the basketball court. So I think it's a great achievement by these kids to come out on top again."

When it came down the last event, however, he was as sure of victory as his athletes.

"Coming into the 4 x 4, they haven't lost all year," Thomas said. "So I wasn't worried."

The Tigers fell behind after the first leg of the race, but they quickly made up the gap to cruise to the victory in a time of 3 minutes, 40.98 seconds.

"We knew what we had to do," said freshman Michelle Cumberbatch. "We know each other's weaknesses and strengths. No matter what. In the first leg, we were a little behind. But, because we know each other so well, we know how to pick it up in the end and that's how we come out on top always."

Individually, Jessica Pixler of Seattle Pacific won her fourth consecutive crown in the mile (4:46.42).

"I just knew I needed to run smart," she said. "I feel like I executed my race plan well. It would have been nice to have finished the last two laps a bit faster at the Albuquerque Convention Center, but I just didn't have a whole lot left."

After running the individual mile twice, as well as once more as the anchor for the victorious distance medley team, the mile-high elevation took its toll, Pixler said.

"I think running at altitude added a whole different level to it to the difficulty of doubling," she said. "It's just the altitude. You feel nauseous and your head feels lightheaded and all that fun stuff."
