

Indoor Track and Field

DIVISION I MEN'S

Highlights

Florida edges Arkansas to garner third consecutive national title: Florida's men got its payback for losing the Southeastern Conference title as they won their third consecutive team crown at the NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championships on March 10.

Florida took the meet with 52 points. It was followed by Arkansas (47), Arizona (41), Arizona State (31) and LSU (27). The Gators' loss to the Razorbacks in the Southeastern Conference championships was fresh in coach Mike Holloway's mind; he didn't allow himself to relax until Jeff Demps edged Illinois' Andrew Riley 6.56 to 6.57 to win the 60-meter dash final.

"When Jeff popped up with a victory and Omar (Craddock) was leading in the triple jump, I knew we had 50 (total points)," Holloway said. "And we had (Sean Obinwa) in the 800. I knew Arkansas couldn't get any better than 47, and I knew we were fine."

"It was a battle all meet. Arkansas really had a great meet. My hat's off to coach (Chris) Bucknam and his team and his staff. They nipped us at the SEC meet, and we knew going in it was going to be a battle with them. They do such a great job. We felt like coming into today if we did what we're capable of doing, we could pull it off."

Folks got a glimpse of that with a dominant first day where all but one of its entrants made it to the finals. That Florida has won the past three titles is almost a given.

"If you look at our recruiting over the past couple of years, there is nobody out there saying, 'I can't believe Florida is doing this.' We have a great group of athletes. We have a great staff, a great support staff and we're supposed to do this."

Just like Demps was supposed to win the 60 meters. He was the two-time defending champion in the event. And after posting a school-record, personal-best and collegiate-leading time of 6.52 seconds in the 60-meter preliminaries March 9, he said he was merely trying to hold up his end.

"It's one thing we all counted on was everybody coming out and doing their best," Demps said. "I definitely thought about getting the 10 points for the team. We came to win a team title and we did that today."

"It definitely feels good to win it three times back-to-back-to-back. I want to thank God, my coach and my family for just believing in me and having faith."

Along with Demps, Craddock won the triple jump and Tony McQuay topped the 400-meter dash field to lead Florida to victory.

McQuay took the 400 in 45.77, and Craddock won the triple jump at 54 feet, 11-1/2 inches.
