2017 CHAMPIONSHIPS

HIGHLIGHTS

Wisconsin-La Crosse and North Central \(Illinois\) share national championship title: North Central (Illinois) and Wisconsin-La Crosse tied for first at the 2017 NCAA Division III Indoor Championships on March 11 at Al B. Carius Track in Naperville, Ill. The two tied with 34 points a piece, while Wisconsin-Whitewater claimed third with 30 points, and Wisconsin-Stevens Point fourth with 27.

This was Wisconsin-La Crosse's 18th indoor national championship, and North Central's fifth.

Heading into the events on March 11, North Central had 26 points, and three events left to compete in: high jump, 3,000-meter run and 4x400-meter relay. By the time the 4x400 rolled around, North Central had a four-point lead over Wisconsin-La Crosse.

If Wisconsin-La Crosse won the 4x400 relay, North Central had to finish at least 3rd to tie for the national championship. Wisconsin-La Crosse pulled out the first-place finish with a time of 3:15.81, and North Central slide into 3rd place in the event.

This was Wisconsin-La Crosse's lone first place finish in an event, but they were not alone. The titles were split across the board with schools not claiming more than one first place finish.

North Central's first placer was Luke Winder who cleared 5.20 meters in the pole vault. This was Winder's third indoor title. He claimed it in 2015 and 2016 as well.

"It was nerve-wracking the whole day," said North Central Head Coach Frank Gramarosso after seeing his team win its first national track and field title since 2012. "We were anticipating getting some points at the end of the day, but anything can happen. It was great to have the whole team here and do this at home, and now we get to hang another banner."
