2018 CHAMPIONSHIPS

HIGHLIGHTS

Mount Union makes program history with first title: The Mount Union men's indoor track and field team claimed its first-ever team title at the 2018 NCAA Division III Championships at the CrossPlex in Birmingham, Alabama.

The Purple Raiders tallied 41 points to edge out North Central (Illinois) by a single point while Rowan and Wisconsin-Eau Claire rounded out the top four spots. It is the 16th different national title for the school as Mount Union has a record 13 titles in football, the 1974 men's cross country title and the 2014 men's outdoor track and field title.

Similar to 2014, everything came down to the last event — the 4x400 meter relay — and just like 2014, the Raiders won the event and the title.

Senior Tyler Neff, juniors James Roth and Clark Etzler, along with sophomore AJ Digby, posted a season-best time of 3:13.77 to get the win and the final 10 team points holding off North Central (Illinois) in second in the race.

Mount Union also got a win in the 60-meter hurdles from sophomore Mason Plant, who posted a school-record time of 8.00 seconds. It was his second All-American finish in the event as he placed third in 2017.

The Raiders were just 0.01 from picking up another event win as Louis Berry was second in the 60-meter dash with a time of 6.79 seconds. Jamal Watkins of Birmingham Southern repeated as national champion in the event.

Jared Lewis was the other repeat national champion picking up his second consecutive win for Stockton in the triple jump with a leap of 50 feet, 1.75 inches.

A pair of sophomores completed the scoring for Mount Union in field events in Sean Sherman and Matt Keim.

Sherman became an indoor All-American for the first time as he finished fourth in the shot put with a throw of 56 feet, 3 inches, while Keim had a mark of 16-foot, 6.75-inches in the pole vault to place second and claim All-American honors for the first time in his career.

With a total of 12 athletes achieving All-America status during the two-day meet, North Central (Illinois) scored six more points than the 34 which tied them for the team title in 2017.

The Cardinals crowned an individual champion when Dhruvil Patel emerged victorious in the 5,000-meter run. In third place for most of the final mile, Patel darted inside race leader Darin Lau of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, the 2017 Division III cross country national champion, and took the lead with one lap remaining. Patel surged away to win in a personal-best time of 14 minutes, 22.48 seconds.

The Cardinals also got All-America efforts from Dylan Kuipers, who equaled his indoor personal best with a clearance of 16 feet, 4.75 inches to finish third in the pole vault, and the distance medley relay team of Chris Buechner, Michael Stanley, Michael Anderson and Zach Hird, which placed seventh in 10:00.26.

North Central's Peyton Piron placed third in the 400 meters in a time of 48.01 which tied the Cardinals' indoor school record set by Dan Benton in 2012.

Patel returned to the track Saturday for the 3,000-meter run. After bidding his time near the back of the pack early in the race, he moved up through the field as the pace picked up. Steadily picking off competitors, Patel hit the finish line fourth in a personal-best time of 8:19.87.

North Central's 4x400-meter relay team of Piron, Daniel Spaccapaniccia, Maceo Findlay and Ben Nordman placed second overall only to Mount Union's time of 3:13.77 to clinch second place in the team race.
