

Outdoor Track and Field

DIVISION II MEN'S

Highlights

Adams State captures first title: For the first time in school history, Adams State captured the NCAA Division II Outdoor Track and Field Championships on May 26. With the win, the Grizzlies became the first men's team to take home the Division II team title besides Abilene Christian or Saint Augustine's since 1982.

Adams State's men claimed two individual national titles, as senior Drew Graham defended his outdoor national title in the 1,500-meter run, and freshman Boris Berian took first in the 800-meter run.

The final day started off for Adams State in the shot put as sophomore Wesley Lavong finished fifth, throwing a season best 17.37 meters (57-0).

The men's 400-meter relay team of freshmen Derek Brown and Justin Smit and seniors Rushane Scott and Justin Cropper posted a seventh best time of 41.13.

Graham then led a 1-2-7 Adams State finish in the 1,500-meter run. Graham outkicked junior Keegan Calmes down the stretch, winning with a time of 4:13.98. Calmes crossed second in 4:14.50 and freshman Matt Daniels came across in seventh with a time of 4:15.60.

Scott came back to the track for the 100-meter dash, finishing second in 10.1146 seconds. The top three finishers in the event were all clocked at 10.12 seconds, and the times had to be calculated out to the thousandth of a second to determine the champion.

Berian won the 800-meter final with a time of 1:54.45. Graham, who had completed his 1,500-meter title defense just one hour earlier, crossed the line in fifth in 1:56.38.

Freshman Kevin Batt led three scoring Grizzly runners in the 5,000-meter run, finishing third in 15:17.26. Senior Matt Bond crossed the line fifth in 15:21.40. Redshirt-freshman Tabor Stevens, who had placed third in the 3,000-meter steeplechase earlier in the meet, added a final point with an eighth-place finish in 15:26.44.

It was the 23rd team national championship in the career of Adams State head coach Damon Martin.

Abilene Christian's Nick Jones became just the 11th male outdoor track and field athlete in NCAA championship history to win the same event four times in his career. Jones won the discus throw for the fourth time in the past five years with a hurl of 59.77 meters (196-1). Ashland's Ryan Loughney won the hammer throw for the third consecutive year, breaking his own championship meet record with a toss of 70.74 meters (232-1).
