2016 CHAMPIONSHIP

HIGHLIGHTS

Pittsburg State women's track and field team savors national title: Waiting for the conclusion of the women's 1,600-meter relay at the NCAA Division II Women's Track and Field Championships on May 28 became the longest minute and 45 seconds of Cassie Caswell's life.

A few hours earlier, Caswell did her part in Bradenton, Florida, to help Pittsburg State vault into first place at the national meet by finishing second in the shot put in her last collegiate competition.

Caswell's finish got Pittsburg State rolling in the right direction. Coach Russ Jewett was feeling a roller-coaster of emotion from the time Pittsburg State competed in the shot put to two hours later in the 400 hurdles.

Then, Pittsburg State sophomore Emilee Iverson won the high jump championship with a jump of 5'9.25" top performance.

Pittsburg State compiled 52 points to move to first place with a couple of events left. The team knew if Saint Augustine's finished first or second in the 1,600 relay, Saint Augustine's was going to have a special day. Saint Augustine's won the men's title.

Saint Augustine's 1,600 relay team took fourth, allowing Pittsburg State to edge the Falcons by one point and win their first ever women's outdoor track and field title.

Teamwork, support from the entire school and a sense of community all played a role.

"There is a whole bunch of people that went into this team's championship this year," Jewett said. "Obviously, the student-athletes are at the top of the list. My assistant coaches are a big factor. Our leadership at Pitt State is a big factor, and the support we get from our community and alumni are all reasons for this championship."

Assistant coach Brian Mantooth, who coaches the throwing events, was selected Division II men's national outdoor assistant of the year. Jewett earned women's national outdoor coach of the year by the U.S. Track and Field and Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA).

"Anytime you bring a national championship home, it is a big deal, a feather in your cap," Jewett said. "We are getting some exposure for our university and that can only be a good thing."

"Just hosting a national championship alone does great things for your institution and your athletic department. To have your women's team get on the podium in the indoor championship (fourth place) at home was nice. The crowning achievement was the women's outdoor championship."

There is no better way to conclude a collegiate athletic career than to win a national title in record-breaking fashion.

That is what Azusa Pacific senior Allie Updike did in the women's javelin. Updike, the defending champion, broke her own meet record with a toss of 183-feet, 10-inches in the 2016 championships. The record-breaking toss came on her first throw.
