Division II Championship Highlights

2014

Adelphi caps perfect season with sixth national title in program history:

In the end, Adelphi did it with defense and goaltending, causing a total of 14 turnovers and getting six big time stops from Taylor Hayes to top Lock Haven 7-5, capturing the program's NCAA-record sixth Division II Women's Lacrosse National Championship. With the win the Panthers close out the 2014 season with a school record 22 wins and no losses.

Alexa Froccaro led the Panther offense with three goals and an assist, while Devin Crimi tied the Adelphi points record with a goal and an assist on the day. Rachel Aitkens also had a big day, scoring one goal and adding an assist in the win.

Ryley Weber and Camille Rosellini led the defense with three caused turnovers each, while both Rosellini and Felicia Mills had three draw controls. Four Panthers had three ground balls and Hayes made six stops, including four on free positions in her 20th victory of the season.

The first half was a back and forth defensive struggle with the Panthers being held to its lowest output all season, scoring just two goals. However, the Adelphi defense came to play as well, pitching a shut out in the first 30 minutes.

The Brown and Gold offense came from Jahelka, who took advantage of a one on one match-up, using an outside roll to get free and score over the Lock Haven keepers shoulder at the 18 minute mark. Almost 14 minutes later Froccaro sprinted past her defender and bounced the ball past Chrissy Baffuto to give Adelphi a 2-0 lead.

The Panther defense did the rest in the first frame, forcing seven Lock Haven turnovers, as five different members of the Adelphi defensive unit recorded caused turnovers. Hayes also played big, making four stops in the first 30 minutes of action, including two on free positions to keep the Bald Eagles scoreless.

Adelphi widened their cushion to three goals just 3:08 into the second half when Aitkens sprinted down the right sideline and behind the goal, before finding a streaking Keesling, who notched the Panthers third goal. However, Lock Haven fired back, scoring two goals of their own to get within one goal, 3-2 with 21:55 left in the contest.

Froccaro tallied her second goal of the game three minutes later to push Adelphi's margin back to two, but the Bald Eagles scored two more, this time just 36 seconds apart to tie the game at four all with 16:32 to play. Less than three minutes later Devan Crimi stepped up, scoring her first and only goal of the game on a free position to put the Brown and Gold back on top, 5-4. Then Froccaro completed her hat trick, scoring an unassisted goal with 8:50 on the clock to give Adelphi a little breathing room at 6-4.

But, Lock Haven still had a lot of fight left, scoring less than two minutes later to pull back within one goal, 6-5. However, the Panthers managed to do just enough, as Aitkens iced the game with 4:23 to play, scoring off of a Froccaro assist to give the Panthers their final margin of victory at 7-5.

Sileo's big game sends LIU Post past Limestone for consecutive national title: Thanks to a seven-point effort by junior Jackie Sileo, LIU Post took down Limestone 10-7 to successfully defend its national championship and put the finishing touches on a perfect season.

For most of the first 45 minutes of the NCAA Division II women's lacrosse national championship game between LIU Post and Limestone, it was anybody's guess who was going to come out on top.

LIU Post tied the game at five with 17:39 remaining in the second half, and then went ahead on a goal by Jenna Pierro just 48 seconds later. With four more unanswered goals, LIU Post finally seemed ready to cruise.

Limestone bounced back with two goals within the final five minutes to pull within 10-7.

LIU Post's victory gave the team a consecutive national championship and fourth in school history. With an overall record of 20-0, LIU Post is the first undefeated national championship in DII women's lacrosse since Adelphi accomplished the feat in 2011.

Somehow, all those dreary days on the practice and playing fields now seem worth the effort.

After one more score by Limestone at the beginning of the second half, the Pioneers had a streak of six unanswered goals. That turned the tide of the game for good.

Sileo led the way for LIU Post with four goals and two assists.

A key to LIU Post's success in the second half was its draw control, with nine to its credit to just two for Limestone.

2012

LIU Post grabs national title; Sileo named tournament's Most Outstanding Player: Sophomore attacker Jackie Sileo set a NCAA Division II championships record with a game-high nine points as fifth-ranked LIU Post defeated No. 7 West Chester, 17-16, for the 2012 Division II National Championship, at Owlsey B. Frazier Stadium at Bellarmine University.

Sileo was named the tournament's Most Outstanding Player, joining teammates senior Nan Mayott, senior Lauren Spagnoletta, senior Chelsea Donaldson and junior Ashley Olen, all of whom were named to the NCAA Championships All-Tournament team.

In a game that featured two programs with a storied history against each other in NCAA competition, the championship game did not disappoint, as the Pioneers jumped out to an early lead, then held off a furious comeback attempt by the Golden Rams to earn the victory. The Pioneers are just the second program in DII history to win three national championships.

West Chester grabbed an early lead as Tori Dugan scored the first of her five goals on the afternoon at 29:17.

Mayott scored at 26:48 to give the Pioneers the equalizer, then quickly struck again with unassisted goals at 25:32 and 22:24 to give the Pioneers a 3-1 lead.

Sileo dished her first assist of the day as she connected with Katie Rotan at 17:41. Sileo then scored her first of the afternoon at 16:39, followed by Mayott's free position goal and an unassisted tally by Spagnoletta at 13:06 to cap the seven goal run and give the Pioneers a 7-1 lead.

MacKenzie O'Keefe's free position goal would break the seventeen-minute scoring drought for the Golden Rams, and Dugan struck again at 11:08 to make it a 7-3 game.

Junior Abbie Ross scored on an assist from sophomore Samantha Losco at 9:53 to give the Pioneers a five goal cushion, but Lauren Glassey and Jamie Dolan scored back-to-back at 9:09 and 7:46 to make it an 8-5 contest. Sileo scored at 5:36, Glassey countered at 4:12, then Sileo struck again at 2:46 to give the Pioneers a 10-6 edge. Theresa Giunta scored on a free position at 1:04, but Sileo scored yet again with 15 seconds remaining in the half to give the Pioneers an 11-7 lead heading into halftime.

Dolan scored on a free position at 25:16 to open the second half scoring. Spagnoletta's unassisted goal at 22:43 made it a four-goal lead, but back-to-back Golden Ram goals cut the lead down to two, 12-10. The Pioneer responded as Sileo connected with Olen for two straight goals at 18:49 and 15:54 to push the lead back to four, 14-10.

Following another Dugan goal, Spagnoletta and Sileo scored within a one-minute span to make it a 16-11, five goal lead for the Pioneers with just over ten minutes to play.

But it was clear that West Chester was going to put up a valiant fight, as they Golden Rams mounted a four-goal comeback effort that spanned from 9:42 until Sileo finally broke the scoreless drought for the Pioneers with an unassisted goal at 3:45 to make it a 17-15 game. The Pioneers won the ensuing draw, but a turnover gave West Chester another chance on the offensive end, and they converted, making it a one-goal lead with :17 remaining on the clock. But the Pioneers came up big and controlled the draw as they ran out the clock to win their third National Championship in program history.

Junior goalkeeper Dominique Mosca made eight saves, including several key stops down the stretch. Jess Henderson made 11 saves for West Chester.

Offensively, Sileo was the leader for LIU Post, with six goals and three assists. Mayott scored four goals, Spagnoletta finished with a hat trick, and Olen added two goals and two helpers.

For West Chester, Dugan's five goals paced the Golden Rams. Dolan and Glassey registered hat tricks, while O'Keefe added two goals and an assist. The game was an extremely even affair on the stat sheet, as LIU Post took 30 shots to 29 for West Chester. WCU won 19 draw controls to the Pioneers' 16, and ground balls went to LIU Post by a 13-11 margin. Free position shots were the main advantage for the Golden Rams as they were able to convert 8-of-15 attempts, compared to only 4-of-5 for LIU Post. Turnovers were also relatively even, with 13 for WCU and 12 for CWP.

LIU Post ends its season with a 17-3 record, tying the program record for wins in a season. West Chester wraps up its season with a 16-4 slate.

2011

Adelphi claims 2011 title in a rout; Panthers complete perfect season, win three-peat: Top-ranked Adelphi won its third consecutive Division II Women's Lacrosse Championship with a 17-4 victory against No. 3 Limestone. Adelphi ends their season at a perfect 20-0. The 13-goal victory was the largest margin of victory in a national championship game in the history of Division II women's lacrosse.

For the Panthers, Erica Devito scored four goals and handed out three assists, while Elizabeth Fey and Marissa Mills each scored four goals. Claire Petersen handed out four assists and Frankie Caridi set aside six shots in the win.

The Panthers got out to a hot start, scoring the game's first six goals. Sophomore Demianne Cook scored the first goal of the game in unassisted fashion, just under six minutes into the contest. A little more than a minute after Cook's tally, Petersen set up Devito with a behind-the-back pass for a 2-0 Adelphi advantage. Mills would then score the next two Adelphi goals, both unassisted. With 20 minutes left in the half, Petersen set up Devito once again for a score, while senior Kaitlyn Carter scored Adelphi's sixth goal of the half just over two minutes after Devito's second goal.

Limestone would get on the board with 17:32 left on the clock when Raquel Prager found Chelsea Treat, cutting Adelphi's lead down to five. Devan Crimi found the back of the net with just over 15 minutes left to give Adelphi their six-goal lead back. For the third time in the first half Petersen set up Devito for a score, sending the Panthers into the locker room with a 8-1 lead.

Adelphi opened the final 30 minutes of play with three straight goals in a five-minute span. Mills would score the first of three goals, her third of the afternoon, while Cook and Fey followed suite with the next two goals. The Saints came back with back-to-back goals to cut the lead to 11-3, both from Treat. After Treats two scores Adelphi would answer back with three more goals. Sophomore Meg Brown would score an unassisted goal, her first of the game, with 14:16 remaining in regulation, while Fey scored the next for her second and third of the half, with the assists coming from Petersen and Devito.

With just under 10 minutes left on the clock, the Saints scored their fourth and final goal from Prager which came on a free position shot. Adelphi went on to score the game's final three goals. Devito would assist on Fey's fourth goal of the game for the first of three, while Devito and Mills scored the next two, respectively, giving Adelphi the 17-4 victory.

For the Saints, Treat led the way with three goals, while Prager added a goal and an assist. Rashelle McLellan and Brigid Milchling combined to make seven stops.

Five Panthers were named to the All-Tournament Team: Fey, Petersen (Tournament Most Valuable Player), Caridi, Mills, and Cook.

Adelphi is now the only team in Division II Women's Lacrosse history to win three consecutive national titles. The Panthers' 20-0 season was also their second undefeated season in three years.

Adelphi's current winning streak has reached 26 games, dating back to last season.

2004

Hock's Half Dozen Helps Adelphi Gain Title Goal: Adelphi junior Katherine Hock's six second-half goals led the Panthers to a 12-11 victory over West Chester and their first Division II Women's Lacrosse Championship.

The May 15 championship match was played as part of the inaugural Division II National Championships Festival in Orlando, Florida. The win marks Adelphi's first championship for a women's program at the school.

West Chester, which previously won this event in 2002, dominated the first half of the game and held a 6-1 lead at the break. The Golden Rams maintained a majority of the possessions and outshot Adelphi, 12-5. Kathleen Sheehan tallied three goals and an assist to lead West Chester's charge.

The second half was a different story as the Panthers scored three goals in the first seven minutes to close within 6-4 with 23:28 still remaining in the game. Hock scored six of the Panthers' last seven goals of the game.

After West Chester's Danielle Roy scored at the 22:55 mark to put the Golden Rams up, 7-4, Adelphi rallied with four of the next five goals to tie the score at eight on a Hock goal with 9:01 remaining. West Chester's Kirstin McGoldrick gave the Golden Rams their last lead of the game when she tallied a goal with 7:04 remaining. Adelphi scored the next three goals, two by Hock, to take a 11-9 lead with 4:42 left in the game.

West Chester made their last push with two goals in a row, the final one coming with 2:16 remaining in the game on a shot by Roy. Hock scored what turned out to be the game-winner with 1:29 remaining.

Hock led all scorers with six goals, while Roy led West Chester with four. Sheehan added three goals and four assists.

"Katherine (Hock) was the first recruit I ever signed," said Adelphi head coach Jill Lessne. "She completely stepped up at a time when we needed her. She proved that when you really want something you can achieve it. West Chester is a phenomenal team. They are extremely competitive with top-notch athletes. They made us work really hard for this championship."

West Chester defeated Limestone, 23-12, to advance to the championship game. Adelphi beat LIU Post, 11-10, to make it into the finals.

Hock was named to the all-tournament team, along with teammates Tara Grodotzke, Lauren Lopez, Allyson Murphy and Melissa Demasi. Others to make the team were Sheehan, Katelyn Martin and Christa Somits of West Chester; Summer Ferraro and Pam Gateau of Limestone; and Trisha Moran and Lauren Lomonaco of LIU Post.

2003

Stonehill's First: Colby Confer's goal with 11 seconds left capped a four-goal comeback to lift Stonehill to its first championship, 9-8, over Longwood, May 11 in front of a home crowd. Stonehill had trailed 8-5 early in the second half after Emily Bikowski gave the Lancers their second threegoal lead of the day with her fifth goal.

Erin Acone led the champions with three goals after scoring six in the previous day's 14-13 semifinal win over LIU Post. Bikowski's five goals gave her championship tournament records for goals (11) and points (14).

2002

It's Official: West Chester won its first true Division II championship after being the Division II representative in the National Collegiate Championship two other times. In the previous year, the first of a true Division II championship, West Chester had the opportunity to grab the NCAA trophy but fell to LIU Post in the championship game, 13-9.

This time the Rams seized their chance to be golden with an 11-6 win over Stonehill May 12 in front of a West Chester crowd.

The title is the Golden Rams' first NCAA women's team championship and its first NCAA team championship in any sport since 1961, when the school's men's soccer team took the Division I trophy. The last time West Chester won any version of a national championship was 1979, when women's lacrosse won the United States Women's Intercollegiate Lacrosse Coaches Association crown.

2001

Fitting Name: Turns out the "Pioneers" nickname is quite applicable to LIU Post – on Mother's Day, the ladies from Long Island claimed the inaugural Division II championship, knocking off West Chester, 13-9. The win avenged a 12-7 April loss to the Golden Rams, the only Division II loss of the season for the Pioneers.
