Individual Records

The format of the game changed in 2001, with scoring for each game moving from 15 points to 30 points, except in matches that go to the full five games, in which the winning score in the fifth game remains 15 points. In reflection of this change, category leaders under the new scoring format are separated in order to not eliminate the achievements of those student-athletes who played with the previous format.

Official NCAA volleyball records began with the 1981 season and are based on information submitted to the NCAA statistics service by institutions participating in the statistics rankings. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate.

Information on blocking has not been included in the following records since there appeared to be a significant variance in the methods by which blocking statistics were kept during the 1980s. Research continues to determine a standard by which to measure blocking statistics for NCAA record-keeping purposes.

Official career records include players whose career statistics were recorded during the era of official NCAA play.

An "M" located after a number under a "games played" column indicates the number of matches played, as the number of games is unavailable.

Team Records

Official NCAA volleyball records began with the 1981 season and are based on information submitted to the NCAA statistics service by institutions participating in the statistics rankings. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate.

Information on blocking has not been included in the following records since there appeared to be a significant variance in the methods by which blocking statistics were kept during the 1980s. Research continues to determine a standard by which to measure blocking statistics for NCAA record-keeping purposes.

An "M" located after a number under a "games played" column indicates the number of matches played, as the number of games is unavailable.

Individual Records

The format of the game changed in 2001, with scoring for the winning team in each game moving from 15 points to 30 points, except in matches that go to the full five games, in which the winning score in the fifth game remains 15 points. In reflection of this change, category leaders under the new scoring format are separated in order to not eliminate the achievements of those student-athletes who played with the previous format.

Official NCAA volleyball records began with the 1981 season and are based on information submitted to the NCAA statistics service by institutions participating in the statistics rankings. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate.

Information on blocking has not been included in the following records since there appeared to be a significant variance in the methods by which blocking statistics were kept during the 1980s. Research continues to determine a standard by which to measure blocking statistics for NCAA record-keeping purposes.

Official career records include players whose career statistics were recorded during the era of official NCAA play.

An "M" located after a number under a "games played" column indicates the number of matches played, as the number of games is unavailable.

Team Records

Official NCAA volleyball records began with the 1981 season and are based on information submitted to the NCAA statistics service by institutions participating in the statistics rankings. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate.

Information on blocking has not been included in the following records since there appeared to be a significant variance in the methods by which blocking statistics were kept during the 1980s. Research continues to determine a standard by which to measure blocking statistics for NCAA record-keeping purposes.

An "M" located after a number under a "games played" column indicates the number of matches played, as the number of games is unavailable.

Individual Records

The format of the game changed in 2001, with scoring for each game moving from 15 points to 30 points, except in matches that go to the full five games, in which the winning score in the fifth game remains 15 points. In reflection of this change, category leaders under the new scoring format are separated in order to not eliminate the achievements of those student-athletes who played under the previous format.

Official NCAA volleyball records began with the 1981 season and are based on information submitted to the NCAA statistics service by institutions participating in the statistics rankings. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate.

Information on blocking has not been included in the following records since there appeared to be a significant variance in the methods by which blocking statistics were kept during the 1980s. Research continues to determine a standard by which to measure blocking statistics for NCAA record-keeping purposes.

Performances from two-game matches are not included in single-match records.

Official career records include players whose career statistics were recorded during the era of official NCAA play.

An "M" located after a number under a "games played" column indicates the number of matches played, as the number of games is unavailable.

Team Records

The format of the game changed in 2001, with scoring for each game moving from 15 points to 30 points, except in matches that go to the full five games, in which the winning score in the fifth game remains 15 points. In reflection of this change, category leaders under the new scoring format are separated in order to not eliminate the achievements of those student-athletes who played under the previous format.

Official NCAA volleyball records began with the 1981 season and are based on information submitted to the NCAA statistics service by institutions participating in the statistics rankings. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate.

Information on blocking has not been included in the following records since there appeared to be a significant variance in the methods by which blocking statistics were kept during the 1980s. Research continues to determine a standard by which to measure blocking statistics for NCAA record-keeping purposes.

Performances from two-game matches are not included in single-match records.

An "M" located after a number under a "games played" column indicates the number of matches played, as the number of games is unavailable.

Tournament History

The National Invitational Volleyball Championship (NIVC) began in 1989 under the name of the Women's Invitation Volleyball Championship (WIVC).

The NIVC was created to provide an additional postseason opportunity for NCAA Division I women's volleyball programs. The NIVC had served as a springboard for schools to advance to the NCAA tournament the following year. A total of 29 teams advanced to the NCAA tournament after competing in the NIVC the previous year. The Founder's Cup was presented each year to the NIVC champion in recognition of the three individuals most responsible for developing and creating this tournament—Eastern Kentucky head volleyball coach Geri Polvino, former head volleyball coach at UAB Brenda Williams and Charlie Daniel, former head volleyball coach at Western Kentucky.

A total of 89 NCAA Division I women's volleyball programs participated in the NIVC during its seven-year history (listed alphabetically below).

2004 Championship

Highlights

Stanford Sweeps Minnesota For Title: Stanford (30-6), behind 29 kills from senior Ogonna Nnamani, won its sixth NCAA championship with a 30-23, 30-27 30-21 victory over Minnesota (33-5) in front of a crowd of 8,826 fans at the Long Beach Arena on December 18.

Stanford entered the match as the 11th seed in the tournament, while Minnesota was the fourth seed.

Stanford used a 5-0 run to break a 13-all tie to take game one, despite trailing 6-3 in the early going. The Cardinal, behind three points by Nnamani, scored the final five points of game two. Stanford scored 12 of the last 15 points of the third game to wrap up the title.

Stanford concluded the season on a 15-match win streak, something the Cardinal had not accomplished since the 2001 season. Stanford dropped only three games in its last 10 matches (total of 33 games).

Nnamani, the tournament's most outstanding player, hit .562 for the match on 48 swings to pace the Cardinal offense. Setter Bryn Kehoe handed out 48 assists as Stanford hit .436 as a team for the match. Jennifer Hucke recorded nine kills and a .368 attack percentage, while Kristin Richards posted eight kills and 11 digs. Franci Girard hit .556 with five kills, while Liz Suiter totaled six kills on a .417 attack percentage with a team-high five blocks. Courtney Shultz dug a team-high 14 balls for Stanford.

Erin Martin and Trisha Bratford each compiled 13 kills for Minnesota. Kelly Bowman and Meredith Nelson were credited with nine kills in the match, along with 19 assists from Bowman. Lindsey Taatjes knocked down five kills to go with five blocks and five digs. Jessy Jones recorded six kills for the Gophers, while Paula Gentil had a team-high 15 digs.

Nnamani set a tournament record with 165 kills. She also tied the tournament record with 15 block solos, a mark shared by Pacific's Jayne Gibson, set in 1981.

To get to the championship, Stanford defeated Washington 30-25, 23-30, 30-27, 30-24, and Minnesota defeated Southern California 30-25, 29-31, 30-26, 30-20, in the semifinals.

All-Tournament team: The all-tournament team consisted of Stanford's Nnamani, Hucke, Richards and Kehoe, and Minnesota's Martin and Gentil.

DIVISION II

2004 Championship

Highlights

Barry Rallies for Third Championship: The Barry Buccaneers rallied from a game-one loss to defeat Truman 25-30, 30-21, 30-25, 30-24, to win the championship on their home court.

The Bulldogs came out strong in the first game, hitting .326 with 20 kills. Jessica Sears paced the attack with five kills. With the score tied 18-18, Truman scored six of the next nine points to build a lead that carried them to the win.

In the second game, the Buccaneers found a way to crank it up a notch and even the match. The Bucs put consistent pressure on the Bulldogs, driving Truman coach Qi Wang to utilize his first two timeouts of the tournament. Fernanda Brino had eight kills as the Bucs reversed the hitting trend from game one.

"Every single game this year, we were able to reach in for a source of energy," Barry coach Dave Nichols said. "Every time we got a streak going, I felt that the crowd added one point to that. Absolutely, it was huge, and it brought the best out in the players."

The Bucs kept the hitting pressure on in the third game, slamming 21 kills and hitting .362, while holding the Bulldogs to .130 hitting in the frame. Brino was again top gun for Barry with seven kills in the game.

Game four was tight, with neither team able to build a substantial lead until the Bulldogs mustered a 17-11 advantage. But Barry responded with a 16-5 run to go up 27-22, and two kills from Sarah Alexander and one from Kelly Dantas gave the Bucs the title.

"We know, no matter what, that you always have to go to the end," Truman's Wang said. "Overall, we are satisfied with our team, over the whole season. On this match, I have to give the credit to Barry, they are a great team and very experienced."

Brino led all attackers with 24 kills and 17 digs. Karla Bersano added 15 kills, Samanta Tucillo recorded 14, Dantas compiled 12 and Alexander had 10 as all five of the Bucs' hitters registered double-figure kills.

Sears led the Bulldogs with 22 kills, Tiffany Graham and Sarah Shearman each added 11, and Micaela Walter posted 10. Michele Rosamiglia directed the Barry offense to a .324 attack percentage with 59 assists, while Truman's duo of Christine Wagener and Rebecca Knefelkamp had 26 and 24, respectively.

To get to the championship, Barry defeated Minnesota Duluth 30-18, 30-26, 30-28, and Truman defeated Nebraska-Kearney 30-22, 30-22, 30-28, in the semifinals.

All-Tournament team: The all-tournament team consisted of Barry's Brino, Rosamiglia, and Bersano; Truman's Sears, Shearman and Graham; Minnesota Duluth's Callie Zwettler and Vicky Bragleman; Nebraska-Kearney's Erin Gudmundson and Erin Arnold; Lock Haven's Li YiZhi and Cal State San Bernardino's Briana Harris.

DIVISION III

2004 Championship

Highlights

Juniata Upends Defending Champion For First Title: Washington-St. Louis was the defending champion. Juniata was the nation's top-ranked team. Something had to give as the two squared off in the title match at the Rochester (Minn.) Mayo Civic Center Auditorium, and it did, as Juniata dethroned the Bears, capturing the school's first championship in its 24-year history with a 3-0 victory.

Juniata (37-3) was led by a 17-kill, five-block performance from sophomore all-American Stephanie Kines, as the Eagles posted winning scores of 30-27, 30-27, 30-28. Also in double figures in kills for Juniata were Katie Charles with 13, Katie Laucks with 12 and Rachael Schatz with 10. Carli Dale, the tournament's Most Valuable Player, compiled 51 assists and 12 digs, while Tara McMinn led all players with 25 digs.

Juniata held its biggest lead of the opening game at 20-17, only to have the Bears tie the game four more times, the last at 27-27. The Eagles then scored three straight points — the final one on an ace by Laucks.

Juniata never trailed in game two and held a solid 29-23 advantage, only to have Washington-St. Louis go on a four-point run. The game's final point came on a service error, to give Juniata a 2-0 game advantage.

The Eagles completed the sweep — their second over Washington-St. Louis this season — by scoring five of the game's final eight points.

"I couldn't feel better about the school I work for and for this team, which deserves all the credit," said Juniata head coach Larry Bock, who earned his fourth AVCA Coach of the Year honors.

Emilie Walk led Washington-St. Louis with 11 kills and Megan Houck added 10. Nicole Hodgman led the Bears' defense with 23 digs, Colleen Winter added 16 and Amy Bommarito recorded 12.

"Even though one team won, there was no loser tonight," said Washington-St. Louis head coach Rich Luenemann. "The difference tonight was Juniata's backcourt defense. They played unbelievably. You know you lost, but you look back and say 'That was a great match.'"

Juniata defeated New York University 30-21, 30-25, 30-19, and Washington-St. Louis defeated La Verne 30-25, 30-15, 30-25, in the semifinals.

All-Tournament team: Juniata's Dale, Kines, McMinn and Laucks earned all-tournament honors, along with Washington-St. Louis' Kara Liefer and Whitney Smith.
